BLOODY SUNDAY IN ST. LOUIS

TWENTY STRIKERS ARRESTED

Half a Dozen Strikers Shot Down-Militia Is Being Prepared for Action-Deputy Sheriffs Did Shooting.

St. Louis, June 12 .- The day just ended has been one of the most eventful and bloody since the great strike on the St. Louis Transit began more than a month ago. There were numerous encounters between strikers and other individuals and the constituted authorites, resulting in four deaths and the wounding of five or more persons, mostly strikers. The dead are:

C. Edward Thomas, striking conductor on the Choteau avenue shot in breast by deputy sheriff; died on the way to hospital.

George Rine, striking motorman on Delmar avenue line; shot in abdomen by deputy sheriff; died at city hospital. Fred Boehm, aged citizen, shot and instantly killed while standing in his front yard by deputy sheriff.

Ed Burkhardt, striking conductor on Delmar avenue line; shot in head; may

The day was quiet until this afternoon, when the police were taken off a number of street car lines for the purpose of giving them a rest and to test the ability of the Transit Company to operate without friction.

The most serious trouble broke on between 6 and 7 o'clock in front of the six-story building on Washington avestreets, occupied by the sheriff's posse comitatus as a barracks and headquarters. Several hundred strikers had gone to East St. Louis earlier in the day to attend a picnic given for their benefit, and toward evening began returning home. The trouble was precipated when 150 strikers in uniform and headed by a drum corps, came west on Washington avenue. In their caps, some of them had cards bearing these "Union or nothing; liberty or words: death."

Just as they were passing the barracks, a car of the Park avenue division was going west. A number of the men broke from the line and rushed for of well-known miners arriving from the car which was without the usual police guard. A brick was thrown through the car window and a shot was fired by somebody not known.

At the first intimation of trouble the sheriff's posse swarmed from the building and surrounded the crowd of strikers, calling on them to disperse. Other shots were fired. Then several deputies turned loose their repeating shotguns, loaded with buckshot. As far as can be learned only four men in the strikers' ranks were hit. Not a deputy was wounded.

Under the command of Colonel Cavender, the deputies arrested 20 of the strikers and took them into the barracks, where they were searched. Three revolvers and a number of pocket knives were secured, and the prisoners were taken to the Four courts, where they vere locked up pending an investigation. The remainder of the strikers fled, followed by a squad of mounted police that had been summoned. They dispersed without further trouble.

A Hotchkiss and other guns were mounted in the center of the train. A second train left at 11 Rothstein's visit, but this is regarded o'clock, with 600 British, Japanese. Russian and French troops. Repairing matter and new rails were taken along.

DOM PAUL TALKS.

Correspondent Found Him in a Car at London, June 11 .- The exeutive offices of the Transvaal government are in a railway car, which is shunted on a switch at Machadodorp. President Kruger caused the interior of the coach to be reconstructed some time ago, with a view to contingencies that have now arrived. A correspondent of the Daily Express, who went from Lourenco Marques to see President Kruger, was received yesterday. The president sat smoking a long pipe. He looked worried, but his bearing itself was quiet and determined. He did not make the least objection to being interviewed. The correspondent was equipped for the interview by cables from London.

"Yes," said President Kruger, "it is quite true that the British have occupied Pretoria. This, however, does not end the war. The burghers are fully determined to fight to the last. They will never surrender so long as 500 armed men remain in the country. I feel encouraged by the fine work Steyn and Dewet are doing in the Free tate. The correspondent suggested that the war was over, inasmuch as the capital had been taken. "The capital," exclaimed President Kruger, with energy, "what is a capital? It does not consist of any particular collection of bricks and mortar. The capital of the republic, the seat of the government, is here in this car. There is no magic about any special site. Our country is invaded, it is true, but it is not conquered. The government is still effective." Referring to the reason why he left Pretoria, President Kruger said:

"I was not foolish enough to be taken prisoner. I provided this means of locomotion precisely for the same reason as our burghers supply themselves with horses when they take the field. It is necessary that I should be able to move quickly from place to place. That is all. Bye and bye this car will take me back to Pretoria. For the present, it enables me to keep away from Pretoria, where I could be of no sevrice and where I should only play into the hands of the enemy."

Rothstein, a wellknown financier of St. Petersburg, would soon arrive in this country, with here as an agent of his government and determining whether or not a large ments. Russian loan could be floated in the United States, are said by leading foreign bankers in this city to be accurate. Whether or not M. Rothstein shall ultimately be successful in his mission, however, it is not believed by prominent local financiers that he will be able to place a loan of any magnitude in the United States for the next few months, until the presidential campaign shall be ended.

It may be remembered that in February of this year, the Russian imperial government negotiated a loan of $15,000,000 with a syndicate of New York banks, trust companies an insurance companies. In exchange for their money the syndicate receive four per cent bonds, guaranteed principal and interest by the Russian government and secured by a first mortgage on the Wladikawkos railway system. The loan now sought is also for railway construction, according to a Wall street man intetrested in the February operation, who said: "M. Rothstein, president of the Russian Imperial Bank of St. Petersburg, and one of the government's trusted agents is, I have been informed, coming here to get money for the Russian trans-Caucasian railway. This is one of the longest roads in the world and is not completed by any means. Money two bridges burned, and the railway is needed. M. Rothstein is coming from London here, and is going to Washington to see the Russian minister, through whom all negotiations are to be made."

The London report also said that a large Russo-American bank might be established here as an outcome of M. by high authorities here as exceedingly

PLANS FOR CARNAGE

Disclosed by Sundry Filipino Documents Captured.

Manila, June 13 .- The great store of insurgent documents discovered by General Funston, together with the interesting papers which Captain Smith found in the possession of General Pantaleon Garcia, throw interesting side lights upon the Filipino government. Most important of the lot is Agvinaldo's plan for the uprising of Manila, which was drawn by him at Malolos, is in his own handwriting in Tagalog language, and bears the date January 9, 1899. Pinned to the document was a translation into Spanish done in the hand of Buencamino. Aguinaldo's order was addressed to his "valiant sandatihans" or bolo men. When the word for the uprising was given they were to slay all American soldiers in Manila. The inhabitants were to repair to the housetops, whence they were to hurl down upon the insurgents heavy furniture and any iron implements they might have, heated red hot. They were also to have ready in their houses hot water, which was to be thrown upon passing soldiers, or squirted at them from bamboo syringes. The women and children were exhorted to help in preparing the water and boiling oil, which they were to pass out to the men for use. Afterward the bolo men were to run through the streets slashing Americans wherever they met them. They were instructed not to stop to pick up the guns of the soldiers they killed, those could be collected afterward. The bolo men were warned to restrain themselves from the temptation to looting, because, as Aguinaldo explained, he was particular desirous to make good in the eves of foreign nations his assertions that the Filipinos were disciplined and civilized people. Particular injunctions were given for protecting the Man and Woman Now Serving Life Sentences for Murder.

Topeka, Kan., June 13.—The supreme court has reopened the celebrated murder cases of George Dobbs and Mrs. Amelia New, now serving life sentencein the Lansing penitentiary for the murder, near Eureka, in 1897, of Joseph New, the woman's husband. The court has granted a wrist coram nobis, which is, in effect, an order to the district court to hear the application for a new trial, which the lower court had refused. Dobbs and Mrs. New were convicted two years ago. The theory was that a view to looking over the situation positions cutting off the British forces | they were in love, and conspired to get rid of New, so they might marry. After they had been in the penitentiary for some time, Alvin Ballard, sent upfor horse stealing, asserted that he could prove that Dobbs and Mrs. New were innocent. Ballard said Frank Allgood, now in the penitentiary for forgery, William Turner and he were the real murderers. Ballard told the story in detail, saving he belonged to a robber band organized by Allgood, and told the officers where they could find many stolen horses and vehicles. Ballard was taken from the penitentiary to verify his assertions, and aided the officers in recovering much stolen property.
