To Save Money

On your shoe purchase is what we are offering you for the next thirty days. We will make a general reduction on all our stock of shoes, including all the latest styles. Our regular prices are way below anything in McMinnville, and when we cut them still further it's time you were investigating this. Besides the general reduction on all shoes, we are sacrificing all our broken lines and odd sizes, and to move them quickly, have put them on what we call our bargain counter and cut the prices right in half. They won't last long at 1/2 prices, so come early.

LOCAL NEWS.

G. S. Wright, dentist.
E. C. Walker visited relatives in Salem over Sunday.
Elsia Wright made a business trip to Portland this week.
Wanted to buy—4 tons of good clover hay.
Tommy Hutchens has taken a position with T. A. White.
Full line of field and garden seeds at Daniels' produce market as cheap as anywhere in the valley.
Fred Royal has been made inside clerk at Hendrick's grocery and Harry Hobbs is driving the delivery.
The patent leather ladies' shoes, French heel, have arrived at Mr. Dielschneider's.
Have you seen the display of Lion coffee premiums in P. P. Wright's front window?
A full stock of single and double harness. Repairing a specialty, at Manning's.
Something for nothing!—that's what is offered you by the Lion coffee premium display in P. P. Wright's window.
Charles Redmond, a student of the state university, has returned home for his vacation.
For sale—100 acre farm, nearly all in cultivation. Good location. Best bargain in the county. Enquire at this office for owner.
Prof. W. C. Haggerty, late principal of the Carlton schools, is to fill the position of deputy under Sheriff Sitton.
F. W. Spencer has the Rambler bicycle, in several different models. These wheels have the best pneumatic tire ever made. Call and see them.
John Holland has returned Arch Perry's farm near Tillamook city for a period of five years, and will move over right after harvest.
Blue Flame oil cook stove, cheaper than wood. Call and see them at Hodson's.
The bridge across the Yamhill at this place now has a substantial new cover, which will preserve it much longer from decay.
Congressman Tongue arrived at his home at Hillsboro Monday morning, where he will spend his vacation until congress convenes again.
This world is not so bad a world.
As some would try to make it:
For much of comfort comes to those Who wear Star 5 Star shoes.
They are at the Racket store.
Yesterday was one of the longest days of the year. From sun to sun was 15 hours and 16 minutes. The three following days will be the same length in this latitude.
For sale—the old McDonald donation claim, consisting of 633 1/2 acres, midway between McMinnville, Amity and Dayton. For particulars call at The Reporter office, or inquire of F. Freeman at the farm.
Mrs. Jacob Wortman arrived home Monday evening from a two weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. Sexton, of Douglas county, who was recently injured by the collapse of a bridge which she was driving over. When Mrs. Wortman left her sister was much improved, but not yet out of danger.
Rain has been falling more or less continuously in this part of Oregon since Sunday last. All clover hay lying out will be badly damaged, and that which is likely to fall and mould. There is a little comfort in the fact that the rain will cause more clover to grow. We must get into the culture of sugar beets.
These will grow while it rains. The maturing cherries are also badly split by the rain.
Marilao Camp Spanish-American war veterans was organized at Wright's hall in this city Thursday evening, June 14th, with about twenty-five members. Lieutenant J. A. Young was elected captain of the camp; Corporal A. E. Lambert, 1st lieutenant; Paul B. Cooper, 2d lieutenant; Will Ungerman, 1st sergeant; Geo. Snyder, quartermaster sergeant; Frank Hayes, sergeant of the guard, and W. P. Morris, sentry; Walter Mellinger, C. D. V. Bockes and R. I. Kinney, trustees.

Nathaniel Holman, of Dallas, father of Mrs. W. H. Logan of this city, died at Good Samaritan hospital last Monday afternoon, after undergoing an operation that morning for enlargement of the spleen. For a time, hope of his recovery was entertained, but six hours after the operation hemorrhage began and could not be stayed. Mr. Logan accompanied his father-in-law to the hospital, and had the sad experience of returning with his lifeless body. Mr. Holman was a prominent and highly respected citizen of Polk county. The funeral was held at Dallas on Wednesday.
Emil Lindberg, son of John Lindberg of Carlton, died at Denver, Colo., on June 11th, of consumption, aged 25 years.
The funeral was held at Carlton on Saturday morning, conducted by Rev. A. J.
Hunsaker. A large number of friends were present, showing the high esteem in which the young man was held. Young Lindberg had also spent one winter in New Mexico, but there seemed no escape from the dread disease. He expired in the arms of his brother, while they were returning in a carriage from a trip to the mountains.

CASTORIA
Bears the signature of CHAS. H. FLETCHER.
In use for more than thirty years, and The Kind You Have Always Bought.

G. S. Wright, dentist.
J. H. Henderson of Salem was in the city briefly last Friday.
Emerson, Milton, Lakeside and Prince pianos at C. Grissen's.
Attorney Fenton and family were Portland visitors over Sunday.
The Misses Georgia and Kate Jones are visiting relatives in Portland.
A large line of that fine pattern bunting at the Racket store.
Paul Cooper has gone to Portland to seek employment. Paul deserves a first-class job.
Miss Jessie Reese and her brother Hal of McCoy spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Patty.
H. C. Burns was called to Ballston yesterday to officiate at the burial of Mrs.
Ball, an elderly lady.
If the weather is favorable tomorrow and Sunday, the McMinnville and St.
Paul ball teams will play in this city.
The exhibition of Tissot pictures at the C. P. church was interesting, but not more so than the average lantern display.
Prospective land buyers ought to find a bargain by scanning the columns of The Reporter. A number of good farms are offered for sale.
Mrs. Myrtle Barnhart has been installed at the head of the clothes ironing department of the state asylum, which is said to be a good position.
In P. P. Wright's front window is a display of Lion coffee premiums—many fine articles exchanged for trademarks cut from Lion coffee wrappers.
J. O. Palmer is a late arrival from Memphis, Tenn., and will probably become associated with his brother in the fish market.
Fine, large Wilson strawberries, cultivated beds, for sale by the proprietor, D.
M. Evans, at three cents per box. Pick yourselves. Come one and all. Gopher, 6 miles north of Sheridan.
The person who took the plow from my garden was seen and recognized. If returned at once, no questions will be asked. But if not, he must abide by the consequences.
Monday evening the west bank of the excavation for the new Flynn & Murton building caved in, and lately the bank on east side has given the workmen considerable trouble.
H. F. Murton and Geo. T. Murton of Portland visited at the home of their brother, C. C. Murton of this city, last Sunday, at which time a family reunion was held, all members of Mrs. Williamson's family being present.
For sale—104 acres, 3 1/2 miles from McMinnville, at a bargain. 75 acres in cultivation, 7-room house; large barn; 14 acres orchard; variety of fruit; good place for stock. Terms easy. Inquire at this office.
Capt. J. T. Apperson, of Oregon City, has been chosen president of the Oregon Pioneers' Association. Capt. Apperson is one of the state's earliest pioneers and has always taken a deep interest in the building up of the state institutions.
Interesting children's day exercises were held at the Christian church last Sunday evening. Besides the parts taken by the children, the Grissen-Holman orchestra gave two selections, and Rev.
V. E. Rowton of Castle Rock, Wash., gave an address.
The pentecostal camp meeting on the old Methodist camp grounds at Canby, will be held June 28th to July 9th, under the leadership of Dr. Gue. Dr. Cool of Spokane will take a prominent part in the meetings. Appropriate Fourth of July services will be held at the grounds.
Mrs. C. C. Sperry of Brownsville, mother of Mrs. E. S. Warren of this city, died Saturday morning, June 16th, after an extended illness from liver trouble.
Mrs. Warren had been at her bedside for five weeks. Miss Millie Hale, a grand-daughter, attended the funeral from this city.
The seventh annual session of the Willamette Chautauqua will begin at Gladstone Park, Oregon City, on July 11 and will close July 21. The first lecture of the session will be given in the morning of the first day. Many people over the state feel a warm interest toward these annual meetings of the Chautauqua as they are of vast benefit to those who can attend.

In the turmoil and tribulation of politics and war, Elsia Wright, the harness maker, has not been lost sight of. He is still doing business at the same old stand and is as ready now to give customers the best articles for the least money as he ever was. Among the latest invoice in his line will be found some very fine buggy robes and fancy bridles.
His riding and buggy whips are good persuaders.
Mrs. Edna Houck, wife of Allie Houck, died in this city early Friday morning, at the home of John Rohr, after an illness of five years, aged 31. She had been a great sufferer from an ailment that puzzled all the doctors, many of whom thought the trouble to be cancer, and an operation was sustained in Portland last fall under this presumption.
An autopsy by Drs. Michaux and Cook & Cable revealed the cause of death to be pelvic abscess. Funeral services were conducted on Saturday at South Yamhill church, by Chas. Grissen.

Manning sells cheap and buys more.
Fireworks and bunting at the Racket store.
Mrs. A. P. Akin will soon leave for a visit with her brothers in the east.

all competitors. Sold by Manning.
The St. Charles store is offering an elegant new line of the latest patterns in crochery, glassware and queensware.
R. M. Duncan of Shenandoah, Iowa, made a brief visit to his brother, Prof. S.
S. Duncan of Dayton, this week. They were in this city on Wednesday.
Wm. C. Wangaman, aged 31 years, was committed to the asylum from this county on Thursday of last week. His insanity was due to excessive drinking of intoxicants.
Be sure to go to the old reliable Racket store for hats, underwear, gloves, corsets, hose, ribbons, Star 5 Star shoes and most everything you want.
A fine quality of salmon trout sent in from the noble Trask river during the week, was evidence of the successful excursion of the Messrs. Link and Rogers.
Mrs. W. D. McDonald was taken to Good Samaritan hospital, Portland, last Friday, where she submitted to a dangerous surgical operation Saturday. Mr.
McDonald reports her as getting along nicely.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rowe of What-com have been visiting Mr. Rowe's mother, Mrs. E. C. Dallas. She had not seen him for 17 years, and did not recognize him. Mr. Rowe may buy property here.
Rev. Herbert Johnson of Massachusetts, a graduate of McMinnville college, and the gentleman who preached an excellent educational sermon last year in this city, was married on the 14th inst in Dalton, Mass. The bride is a cousin of the present governor of Massachusetts, and is very wealthy.
Mrs. Lucy A. Wallace died at her home on B street, in this city, Monday morning, June 18, 1900, aged 72 years. Mrs.
Wallace, whose maiden name was Pierce, was born in New York state and when about thirteen years of age removed to Indiana, where she resided until about nine years ago, when with her sons, she came to McMinnville.
Three sons and one daughter of the family remain: Frank W., Cary A., Claude M. and Mrs. Ada W. Unruh, national organizer of the W. C. T. U. During her residence in this city, Mrs. Wallace has endeared herself to many friends. The funeral was held at the Baptist church on Tuesday afternoon, Rev. R. W. King officiating.

The district convention of Woodmen for the northern Oregon district met in Independence on Wednesday, calling together about 260 delegates. The prime purpose was to choose delegates to attend the head camp which convenes in Salt Lake City in August. The representation is one delegate for every 800 members.
A special train was run from Portland to Independence. Delegates going from here were: W. T. Maey, E. W. Wallace, Henry Gee, Wm. Schmidt, B. F. Rhodes, E. R. Wallace, Orin Woodrum and Louis Triplet. Others who went to see the ball game were: Geo. Adams, Ed Allen, Frank Hayes, E. M. Underwood, Jesse Irvine, Ward Wiscarver, Walter Hembree and Al Kratz.
