On your shoe purchase is what we are offering you for the next thirty days. We will make a general reduction on all our stock of shoes, including all the latest styles. Our regular prices are way below anything in McMinnville, and when we cut them still further it's time you were investigating this. Besides the general reduction on all shoes, we are sacrificing all our broken lines and odd sizes, and to move them quickly, have put them on what we call our bargain counter and cut the prices right in half. They won't last long at 1/2 prices, so come early.

This world is not so bad a world, As some would try to make it; For much of comfort comes to those Who wear Star 5 Star shoes.
They are at the Racket store.
Mrs. George A. Black of Aberdeen, Wash., is visiting her cousin, Delos Underwood, who has so far recovered from his severe illness as to be able to come to town last Monday.
Glen Winslow of Newberg passed cently graduated from the agricultural

For sale—the old McDonald donation claim, consisting of 633 1/2 acres, midway between McMinnville, Amity and Dayton. For particulars call at The Reporter office, or inquire of F. Freeman, at the farm. 25-8 Some of the farmers announce that their winter wheat will be ready for harvesting right after they get home from the celebration. Oats will be an immense crop. The late rains are said to have washed off the rust that was bothering the wheat, and it is likely to take a new start.
Hillsboro has given up her intention of celebrating the Fourth. McMinnville had no intention of capturing all the attractions, but since we have secured them, our neighbors are respectfully invited to come up and join us. The trains run just right for them to get the cream of our celebration, and get back home in good season.
A gentleman from North Yakima has been buying milch cows in this county this week to take to his home for dairy purposes. He told us there were four creameries in the immediate vicinity of North Yakima, which distributed monthly to the people the sum of $10,- 000. He emphasized the need of creameries in this country, and told us why we do not have them. The reasons he gave rather throw the blame on the people. We do not have good enough roads and do not fix up our cow lots and patures as they should be. Some disgraceful cow lots had met his gaze in traveling through the valley. People must clean up, work intelligently and make dairying a business in order to succeed.
He seemed to think the time is coming when greater interest will be shown here in this industry, and when it does come the people will be more prosperous. It is a hard condition when we must sell our cows to a neighboring state to make from them which should be made money and kept at home.

McMinnville, at a bargain. 75 acres in cultivation, 7-room house; large barn; 14 acres orchard; variety of fruit; good place for stock. Terms easy. Inquire at this office. 27-4 James White, who went with the last enlistment from this place to the Philippines, has been visiting his brother, T.
A. White and family, this week. He has been living with his parents in California since returning from the war.
The boys at the court house are guessing on the total population of the United States, and will buy $1 worth of Dr. Renaud's remedies to get into the big prize contest advertised in the Chicago papers.
Guesses range from 73 millions to 79.
Mrs. Wm. Toney and two children will leave tomorrow for Gilroy, Calif., where Mr. Toney went some time ago for the benefit of his health. They will make that their home for the present. Mr.
Toney reports that he is being benefited.
The ball game between McMinnville and St. Paul last Saturday was a hot contest, resulting in victory for the visitors by one score—12 to 13. The rain prevented the game on Sunday. Bills are out advertising games with the Astoria team next Saturday and Sunday.
Services at the M. E. church will be held as usual next Sunday. In the morning the pastor will read the general rules of the church, which it is the custom to do once a year in the Methodist churches. In the evening he will preach at the regular hour. Everybody is cordially invited to these services.
Mrs. Fannie H. Robinson, who died in Salem last Sunday at the age of 77 years, was the widow of John Robinson, formerly of McMinnville, and the mother of Prof. L. H. Baker. As an emigrant she belonged to the party of 1853 that opened the road through the Natchez pass, and was the longest survivor of this party.
Polk county's new court house was dedicated on Monday, Judge R. P. Boise filling the place of honor, and delivering the principal speech of the occasion.
His talk was interesting, in the fact that it was a legal history of the county and district from the building of the first court house to the present. The entire bar present took part in the speechmaking.
George Snyder announces the discor-dinance of his relation with the Valley Transcript this week, and is succeeded by Mr. Harbaugh, who came here from Iowa over a year ago, and who has been farming for David Stout. George declares his intention of improving the musical talent with which nature has endowed him, and for that purpose finds it necessary to go elsewhere.
W. T. Macy was chosen one of seven delegates to the meeting of the head camp of Woodmen in Salt Lake City on August 15th. It was a hard fight, but Macy nearly always gets there. The other delegates chosen are J. C.
Jones, J. P. Meneffe and C. M. Bequette of Portland, Walter Tootze of Woodburn, S. S. Walker of Oregon City, W. Kirkpatrick of Dalles, and J. S. Bohannon of Independence.
A recent visitor to La Grande is quoted as saying that the sugar-beet factory at La Grande will manufacture more sugar this year than during either of the two preceding years, because the yield of beets is so much larger. The farmers have learned a great deal about the culture of sugar beets in the past three years, and are showing more interest in their work than formerly. It is said that the factory will be able to run three months this year, and they expect to have nearly 20,000 tons of beets to turn into sugar. The first year the factory consumed 800 tons. Last year nearly 12,000 tons were produced; and this year they expect to go near to the 20,000 mark.
The new catalogue of the state agricultural college has come to hand. It shows an enrollment in all courses the past year of 405. Of the 33 counties in the state, 27 are represented in the attendance.
Fifteen students were enrolled from Yamhill county. They were A. H. Frazier of Sheridan; J. H. and F. R. Gallagher and Ray Goodrich of North Yamhill; Ina Pearl Allen of Amity; E. W.
Redd of Carlton; Elmer Baxter of Dayton; Chester W. Laughlin of North Yamhill; Elsie M. Canfield and Harry E. Du-puy of Lafayette; Lizzie A. Gallagher of North Yamhill; Arthur C. Heston of Dundee; Zophar Sharp of Bellevue; Myrtle Burgess of Sheridan; Glenn Winslow of Newberg. The faculty of this institution is now composed of 27 members.

The official roster of the next legislative assembly has been compiled, and shows a total republican strength in the two houses of 55. On joint ballot the republican majority is 20.
Charley McPhillips kindly remembered this office on Wednesday with one of the finest clusters of Royal Ann cherries ever W. R. Brown, Amity, Oregon, has a new 3/4 steel skein wide tire Weber wagon for $85 cash. Also a new reversible disc harrow for $40. Also a fine driving mare, six years old, sired by Coeur d'Alene, dam Kishar, which he wishes to sell. 28-4 Captain Wyatt Harris and his colab-orers in the county in census taking are winding up their work. They are not permitted to give out any figures. Such information must issue direct from Washington. Asked if the population of the city equaled his expectations, the captain said it did not, but some of the populous suburbs could not be included.

There is one suburb to McMinnville, which if taken within the city would pay taxes enough to support a good bridge, which now has to be kept up by the county. It would also make a far better showing in population about census taking time.

OBITUARY.

Died, in the home of her parents in the northern part of the city, Thursday, June 14, 1900, Hattie, the beloved daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. Smith. Hattie's brief life of seven years and seven months was sweet and fair. Her last illness was brief, but filled with patiently endured suffering.
Here, the mother-heart that aches with longing
For the nestling from its refuge flown!
There, the heart of God, the love eternal,
And a little child to lead us home.
Here, no more the rain of mother-kisses Falls upon our darling's upturned face; There, God grant we meet her kept forever In a purer than our love's embrace.

Cost or value will be no guide, as we have to make this a very rapid sale in order to commence changes in our store room well. Every article in the
