FRIDAY, JULY 13, 1900.

Generosity is the only mistake of our government in Porto Rico. Free rations are to be curtailed in order to induce lazy folks to go to work.

Uncle Sam has fifty ships-of-war in the far east and it is the largest fleet there. Our legitimate interests in the Pacific will not be neglected by the present administration.

Our army in the Philippines will not be reduced until the islands are quieted and properly governed. The yellow papers that raised such a clamor about insufficient forces tried to discourage recruiting, and now are noisy about reduction.

The troublesome plants that infest the wheat fields—French pink and fern—cannot thrive where the succulent beet is properly cultivated. Therefore the Yamhill county farmers have treated themselves to another blessing not considered at the time they signed the beet contracts.

The situation in China remains about the same—a good deal of talking seasoned with a sprinkling of nervous apprehension. In this respect, the boxers of the flowery kingdom do not differ materially from common prize fighters of civilized America.

Teddy Roosevelt will make an extensive tour of the west. Bryan will steer clear of all towns on dates set for Teddy's visits. One is the man who went to fight for his country, and fought; the other is the man who went to fight for his country, and resigned.

Every reason that was urged against the election of Bryan in 1896 can be repeated this year, with the added force of experience. Among the many new reasons is his cry against our nation accepting the fruits and responsibilities growing out of the Spanish war. If that were the only one, it should be sufficient argument for his defeat.

Now that the farmers of this county have pledged 5000 acres to the culture of sugar beets they will very wisely seek the information as to the methods of preparing the soil, and the care of the crop. They will be able to profit by the mistake of the farmers of Union county, who were unfamiliar with the details of thorough cultivation, and who therefore suffered loss from the first year's experiment in raising beets. Thorough cultivation and care, the requisite for any crop, applies with greater force to the beet sugar industry.

McKinley was nominated and elected in 1896 on a platform which declared for a protective tariff and for a bimetallic circulation of money based upon the single gold standard for the redemption of all money, whether silver or paper, if the holder desired the gold. Upon these issues all other questions of party administration of national affairs were based. Mr. Bryan was nominated upon a platform declaring for the unlimited coinage of silver with gold, and for a tariff for revenue only. What would have been the conditions had Mr. Bryan's theories been adopted by his election can only be a matter of conjecture, yet the best thinkers of the country believe that the results would have been very different from what they are. The republicans kept their pledge to coin silver, and now we have more silver money per capita than ever before. By having a gold or single standard of value for our money, it has all kept a uniform purchasing power. One can but feel that this would not have been the case had silver been declared by law to be the equal in value with gold, because, while the gold production of the world has increased, so has that of silver increased in still greater proportion, and the consequence would have been two kinds of circulating money; that is, dollars of different purchasing power.

The sensational press has been reveling in the publication of dispatches relating to the attempted assassination of President McKinley. The rumor was without foundation, yet the anticipation of the "remote possibility" gave joy to the blood-thirsty press correspondents.

The game law makes it unlawful to kill deer between November 1st and following July 15th. In consequence of the suspension of the closed season next Sunday, it is presumed the mountains will echo the crack of many Winchester's.

The man who built the Oregon and the man who sailed the Oregon have each been accorded a measure of praise. Now, the man who floated the Oregon after her encounter with the jagged rocks on the China coast, is entitled to consideration.

Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois, who was nominated as vice president on the ticket with Bryan, was vice president during Cleveland's last term, and during the campaign will be a constant reminder of the distressing and disastrous times experienced by the country during that democratic administration, and a warning to the electorate not to repeat the experiment.

A few of the unjointed newspapers of the Salem Journal stripe, are howling at President McKinley for, as they say, "plunging us into war with China." The United States is not at war with China, nor has any declaration of war been announced. But the mugwump press sees an opening and dashes into it without regard to consequences. This same brand of journalism howled itself hoarse when the Maine was blown up because the president did not have Spain licked at once. It is a howling element, and is only happiest when howling the loudest, never going to the genesis of a proposition, but simply howling its little song against the administration. Does it follow that because Chinese hordes are slaughtering defenseless American missionaries, burning legations and killing foreign ministers that we are supposed to stand idly by and not lift a hand to protect our own citizens. A nation is cowardly and is open to harshest criticism that permits such a thing. In China it was a rush by Americans, British and Russians to save lives. How it was carried on may be judged by what Capt. Eaily of the British warship "Aurora" said in his report, which was that he "wished to have it made known that it was due to the Russians that anybody was left alive in Tien Tsin." It was a struggle against the "yellow devil," and it seems that all availed nothing so far as Peking was concerned. Yet, the yellow journals accuse President McKinley of waging war against China. American citizenship is the most sacred on all this earth, and after going in friendship, and with no purpose save to further the interests of China as well as our own, the representatives of the government and the poor American missionaries have been overborne and mercilessly slaughtered. Then there is but one thing to do, and that is to go there in such a form that ever after the murderous hordes will respect the citizenship and the flag of the United States.

Headache may be called a woman's ailment. Some men suffer from it. But almost all women have to endure its pain with each recurring month. This fact points at once to the intimate relation between the health of the delicate womanly organs, and the general health of the whole body. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription banishes headache by banishing its cause. It cures the diseases which irritate the delicate womanly organs, fret the nerves and waste the strength. It increases the vitality and builds up the nervous system. "Favorite Prescription" contains no opium, cocaine or other narcotic.

"I want to praise your medicine," writes Mrs. Sarah J. Burney, of Crescent City, Putnam Co., Fla. "I have been sick for twenty years, and have been almost in bed five years, and now I am able to work all day. I have taken eight bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and four of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and one vial of 'Pellets.' I praise your medicine to all. I had the headache but it is gone. My throat is well and cough gone, and all my old troubles are better. I tried many other kinds of medicine and four doctors."

To Guard Against Fire.

In view of the narrow escape from a destructive conflagration due to the building of a bonfire near a residence, the ordinance governing such cases is timely, and is in full force. Section 13, of Ordinance No. 10, reads as follows:

"No person or persons shall build or cause to be built, in any public street or alley of this city, any fire for the purpose of burning any hay, straw or rubbish of any kind, from the first day of April until the first day of November of each year, or suffer or cause to be built, any fire on their own or rented, or leased premises for the purpose of burning up any rubbish of any kind, within twenty feet of any building or fence, except permitted by the fire wardens of this city."

A Good Cough Medicine.

Many thousands have been restored to health and happiness by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. If afflicted with any throat or lung trouble, give it a trial, for it is certain to prove beneficial. Coughs that have resisted all other treatment for years, have yielded to this remedy and perfect health been restored. Cases that seemed hopeless, that the climate of famous health resorts failed to benefit, have been permanently cured by its use. For sale by Howorth & Co., druggists.

5000 Acres Leased to Capitalists on Royalty.
10,000 Acres Reserved for Development.

This Company also owns Two Million Five Hundred Thousand Shares of the Capital Stock of 50 of the best oil companies in California, thus covering as thoroughly as can be done all the oil fields.

Par Value of this stock is from $1.00 to $10.00 per Share.

IT HAS THREE SOURCES OF INCOME.

- 1st—Royalties collected on 5000 acres.
- 2d—Dividends collected from 2,500,000 shares of stock held in 50 companies.
- 3d—Oil produced from 10,000 acres.

It covers the Oil Interests of the State and will expand with them. Its eggs are not all in one basket.

It offers 50 chances to one compared to any other oil company. It is as sure to pay large dividends as there is oil in California. Its plan is a new one and the best and safest yet conceived. Business men endorse the plan as do sensible, prudent people everywhere.

Why buy the stock of an oil company having limited resources when you can in one company invest in the entire oil field of California? Why do it?

The California Consolidated Petroleum Company has men behind it of capital and high reputation. There are few people on the Pacific Coast who do not know some of the directors at least by reputation. Their names are not only a guarantee of the honest handling of the money but of the success of the company.

This company is not a trust. It is not connected directly or indirectly with the Standard Oil Company, all rumors to the contrary notwithstanding.

The stock of this company can be bought for a short time at fifty cents per share, which is one-half of the par value. This offer will positively be withdrawn and stock advanced to $1.00 per share as soon as the block of Treasury Stock offered for sale has been sold.

Should the limited amount of stock offered at 50 cents per share be sold before receiving your application your money will be promptly returned. "First come, first served," is the Company's policy in selling this stock.

Purchasers may engage stock at once by paying one-fourth of purchase price, 12 1/2 cents per share, and balance within sixty days from date of application. Following form of application may be used:

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS.

R. E. Blackburn, the President and General Manager of the California Consolidated Petroleum Company, has achieved success in the inauguration and management of large enterprises. He is known as California's "Orchard King."

Hon. Will A. Harris, the Company's Vice-President and Attorney, is a lawyer and creator of national reputation, and is acknowledged authority on mining laws.

Fred L. Johnson, secretary, who, though largely interested in gold mining properties, will devote his time and executive abilities solely to the Company's interests.

Senator S. N. Andrews, Treasurer, is one of Southern California's solid citizens who, deservedly, holds the confidence of the public. His good impress has been left upon the laws of this commonwealth.

G. W. Luce is the Assistant General Passenger Agent of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, which responsible position he has held for many years to the satisfaction of that corporation and the public.

P. J. Beveridge, son of ex-Governor Beveridge of Illinois, is one of the most active of Los Angeles capitalists. The electric railway from this city, via Hollywood, to Santa Monica, is the latest monument to his enterprise.

J. M. Hale, one of the leading dry goods merchants of Los Angeles, is one of the four Hale brothers, who own dry goods establishments in San Francisco, Sacramento, San Jose, Salinas, Petaluma, Los Angeles and New York.
