NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION, Land Office at Oregon City, Oregon. July 30th, 1900. NOTICE is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the county clerk of Yamhill county at McMinnville, Oregon, on September 8, 1900, viz: George G. Seely, H. E. No. 1144, for the southeast quarter of Section 20, T. 4 S. R. 6 W. He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz: Richard Aylward, Frank E. Taylor, Ludwig Griebel and Charles Griebel, all of Sheridan, Oregon. CHAS. B. MOORES, Register.

BOARD OF EQUALIZATION, NOTICE is hereby given that the Board of Equalization of Yamhill county, Oregon, will meet at the court house on Monday, September 17, 1900, and continue in session for one week, for the purpose of examining and correcting the assessment rolls in any errors that may occur therein in valuation or description of property, and for transacting any other business that may lawfully come before the board, and all parties interested are requested to appear before said board at said time and place, and show cause, if any, why their assessment should not remain upon the roll. Do not neglect to examine your assessment, the assessor has no power to correct errors after the meeting of the board. Dated this 22d day of August, 1900. J. M. YOCOM, County Assessor of Yamhill County.

Dr. G. S. Wright has begun picking his prune crop. The Reporter would suggest to local contemporaries that the county assessor and his deputies do not "violate" property for the board of equalization to correct, but they do place a "value" upon it. C. H. McClain of Harney county was in the city on Tuesday, with the remnant of a band of horses which he had brought to the valley to sell. He left home with some fifty head, and had disposed of nearly all, at prices ranging from $60 to $150 per head. One particularly nice matched span, weighing about 1150 pounds each, he sold in Portland for $325.

LOCAL NEWS.

G. S. Wright, dentist. Scott & Williams, Grissen's old stand. Miss Nellie Ramsey of Salem is visiting friends in McMinnville this week. Big cut in ladies' and gents' tan shoes at the Racket store. Mrs. C. P. Bishop of Salem visited with Mrs. W. D. McDonald the past week. Potatoes are scarce in the local market. They are worth 50c per 100 pounds. Chas. Grissen's advertisement as book-seller is still running in the Oregon Searchlight, Dr. Grannis' paper. St. Charles store is headquarters for glass jars, pint, quart and one-half gallon, strictly cash; also sugar must be sold for cash or produce. Notwithstanding all that has been said and done the best intrinsic values are to be found at the Racket store, especially in those Star 5 Star shoes. Cal. Long recently shot two deer near his ranch in the mountains. He killed them by the Dewey plan—before breakfast. They are found on the ridges in the early morning. Wanted—Hop pickers; for a large yard. Nice camping near good wood and water. Half a mile from Dayton. See or engage with Dr. B. F. Swick, Dayton, Oregon. Mrs. M. V. Jones, who had visited a number of weeks with her daughter, Mrs. T. D. Henderson, and a large circle of friends throughout the valley, started last Friday on the return to her home in Crescent City, Calif. Rev. R. W. King is showing some fine photos of the Hendrick peach orchard and the handsome lot of people who harvested the crop. Mr. King stands in the front rank of amateur experimenters with the camera, and there is a host of others. Next Lord's day is the beginning of Pastor Lindsey's second year with the McMinnville Christian church. All are cordially invited. Morning subject—"A Worked Out Salvation." Evening subject—"Our trip from Portland to Nome." Good music under the leadership of Dr. J. H. Nelson. Mrs. Frank Abram Powell is to arrive soon from Topeka, Kansas, where her husband has for the past year been pastor of a church. Rev. Powell has accepted a call to California, and enroute to the new location, Mrs. Powell is to visit Corvallis relatives, and may stop in McMinnville. Miss Nellie Gardner returned Monday evening from a delightful visit with friends at Forest Grove. The Grove is being enlivened by large tent meetings of the salvation army, supporting a stringed orchestra of five pieces and about fifteen exhorters. They will not come to McMinnville, as they do not visit towns where barracks have been established. We hear a bad report from our friend Grissen, now a denizen of the Coast Range. He was building a house, and conceived that he was as capable as the strongest German to pull the cross-cut saw. He worked manfully for a while, but the result was he was laid up for repairs. He went to the mountains to rest, and this is now he did it. The Wahlberg hop farm at North Yamhill is being equipped with a strictly modern kiln for drying the output of the farm. The plant includes a double kiln with two drying floors, each 26 feet square, and a cooling and storage-room about 100 feet distant from the kiln, the two being connected by an elevated railway. The green hops are lifted to a level with the drying floors by an elevator. R. E. Smith's best cow, worth any two others of his herd, was struck by the south bound passenger Thursday evening of last week, and so badly injured that it became necessary to kill her. She was a cow that gave six gallons of milk daily when fresh. It was the first case for years in which the cattle running in his pasture did not show fear of an approaching train. The railroad company will probably indemnify him for the loss. Elsie Wright has temporarily suspended threshing operations, but has about made his circuit. The largest day's threshing was the first one at Jesse High's, when 1600 bushels was the tally. The best yield was also at this place. Elsie states that the most remarkable feature of the season's run was the weather. He threshed continuously for 25 days without rain—the best record in his whole history of threshing, covering a period of 28 years. The man who refuses to advertise is always afraid to reduce prices and offer bargains for the same reason. The man who advertises, says an exchange, is desirous of stirring up opposition. He courts it because he has bargains for his customers and fears the competition of no man. Deal with the live advertiser and you will always be getting the best bargains and the latest style of goods. A meeting is to be held in this city tomorrow for the nomination, by the precinct committees of young men, of young women for carnival queen. The boys are already up in arms against the proposition to make married women eligible to be queen, and as a result they will be barred. The question is, what can the married ladies do to get even for this knightly affront? The best thing is to get in and support some young lady with all the ardor you possess.

G. S. Wright, dentist. Elder Arnold Lindsey is visiting in Portland this week. Miss Fannie Durgan of Portland is visiting Miss Bergitta Nelson. J. Capps & Sons all wool clothing from $9 to $13 a suit at the Grange store. Hammocks, croquet sets, guitars, mandolins, etc., at Scott & Williams. Roseburg will have a street fair Sept. 17, 18 and 19, and they have no completion of locks to celebrate. Blue Flame oil cook stove, cheaper than wood. Call and see them at Hodson's. Hop picking began in Charley Kuns' yard on Wednesday morning. Charley is said to have a good crop. John Bates of Sheridan has been assisting in galvanizing iron work at Hodson's for a couple of weeks. C. F. Daniels carries a stock of flour, feed and baled hay, and sells as cheap as the same can be bought anywhere in the valley. H. P. Webster, who has been over to Woods almost ever since the June election, is expected to return home this week. For sale—100 acre farm, nearly all in cultivation. Good location. Best bargain in the county. Enquire at this office for owner. 191f Mrs. W. T. Vinton is visiting her father near West Chehalis, which gives W. T. an opportunity to eat his mother's cooking once more. Hon. W. A. Howe has received about 18,000 bushels of wheat at his warehouse, and will probably reach the 35,000 mark by the end of the harvest. The school children declare they will not attend school during the carnival. Here's trouble for Profs. Bristow and Alderman right in the outset. Gus Paulus will have a thousand pounds more hops than he ever raised before. He is delighted with the prospects for good yield and price. Henry Eccleston began picking his hops yesterday. He has a force of about 30 pickers. The crop is said to be better than last year. The fish and poultry market of H. A. Palmer & Co. is located in the brick building adjoining the McMinnville National bank. Produce bought and a fresh stock of groceries for sale. T. C. While in Salt Lake City W. T. Macy met J. C. Gates, formerly in the livery business here. He is running a dray, and would do well but for the fact that he is a Gentile, and Mormons boycott Gentiles. Hugh Easterly, eldest son of George Easterly, returned to McMinnville Saturday evening after an absence of seven years at Warrensburg, Tenn. He was accompanied by his brother and sister, Guy and Edith. Wm. Bordett returned home from Nome on Tuesday. We understand he brings the word that W. L. Warren is the only man who went from here who made expenses. W. L. happened to fall into a good job of running an engine at $6.50 a day. The Multnomah base ball team will play the home team at this place next Saturday and Sunday. The local team expect to have Graham and Martin as their battery, which will insure a good game. The usual admission price will be charged. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Macy and Miss Louisa Maloney returned Monday evening from their trip to Salt Lake City. It was a very pleasant visit for all of them. Mr. Macy is unsettled in his plans for the future, but will not return to the management of the Kegg grocery. Mrs. Annie Evenden is home from Pullman, Wash., visiting with her family at Gopher. She is well pleased with her work at the head of the musical department in the Pullman college, and will return about Sept 27th to begin the school year. County Judge R. P. Bird has bought the two lots adjoining Mr. Gortner's residence on the north, and will construct a good substantial residence thereon yet this fall. The Judge obtained these lots at a bargain, paying $150, with sidewalk, shade trees and drainage already provided. Some improvement is noticed in the singing of Miss Jennie Snyder, since taking culture from Madame Norelli, more particularly in the modulation of the higher tones. Her voice has always been a power, particularly as a chorus leader, and it should secure for her a position of both profit and pleasure. Families in McMinnville desiring either young men or young lady students to do work for all or part of their board and lodging would do well to notify me at once, as I have a number of such students in prospect for the new term. Also families desiring to furnish board to students the coming year will accommodate by informing me as to rooms, rates, etc. H. L. BOARDMAN, President. Chas. Belat and family returned Monday evening from New Garden, Ohio, after an absence of 15 months. Mr. Belat formerly operated the Whiteson cider and jelly factory, and only went back to Ohio for a temporary sojourn. He still retains his land and cider press and fixtures, and may go into the cider business again, either in this city or in Whiteson. He should be encouraged to locate at this point.

Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Cook are at Newport. Wm. J. Dodson has returned home from Montana. Miss Bergitta Nelson returned from Newport on Tuesday. The best wire lanterns are found at the fence works. The Reporter and Weekly Oregonian one year for $2, strictly in advance. Mrs. Lou Watkins will leave within the next week for her home in Boise. S. R. Baxter, the staunch republican of Dayton, was in the city on Tuesday. A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wright on Sunday, Aug 20th. Hop pickers save money buying their supplies at the Grange & Farmers store. Chas. P. Nelson will go over to Newport tomorrow, and return Tuesday with his mother. Ernest Henderson is on his way home from Nome. He is now visiting relatives at New Whatcom. Miss Carrie Schenk returned Friday from her visit to her father and brother in New Whatcom. The latest form and most durable and fashionable hop baskets at the McMinnville Fence works. E. Estes returned Wednesday evening from his trip to Indiana, to close up the estate of a deceased brother. The Dalies has caught the carnival affluence and will have one in October. Come down and see how we do it. Judge J. E. Magers came up from Portland Wednesday evening. His family returned from Newport yesterday. Mrs. Varner, after a visit of three weeks at D. S. Holman's, returned to her home at Cleveland, Wash., on Tuesday. Prof. and Mrs. Rennie Doane of Pullman, Wash., arrived Wednesday evening for a visit at J. C. Cooper's for the next three or four weeks. The new face jackets and capes have arrived at the Grange & Farmers store, and are now open for inspection at prices lower than ever before sold. 33-2 Hettie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Baker, is suffering from an attack of inflammatory rheumatism, her condition being considered quite serious. H. C. Roberts of Peoria, Ill., visited his old friend, M. Underwood, last Monday. He is the head of the traveling men for the Avery Mfg & Thresher Co. Uncle Jacob Wortman and wife have been spending the closing days of August on their son John's ranch at the head of the Willamina. Rev. G. W. Fender will return home tomorrow and will fill his pulpit Sunday, both morning and evening. All cordially invited. Good music for both services. L. E. Walker has opened a little grocery store out at the Miller hopery, where picking will begin next Monday. J. P. Irvine is assisting in the store in town. J. P. Kenedy, grand chancellor Knights of Pythias of Oregon, and J. H. McKibben, editor of The Senator, paid a fraternal visit to Diana Lodge in this city Wednesday evening. Mrs. M. L. Sutton of Millwood, Oregon, proposes to put her camera to effective and practical use in advertising Oregon. The plan projected is a free stereoscopic lecture course designed to tour the central and eastern states and serve as an Oregon exhibit at the Buffalo exposition in 1901. This course will present Oregon in all its phases: Historical—treating of earliest days and exciting incidents, a tribute to pioneers; commercial—devoted to harbors, seaport towns and shipping; agricultural—in the interest of farmers, stockraisers and fruit-growers; industrial—to manufactures, fishing, lumbering and mining; and scenic—consisting of a large collection of Columbia, Umpqua, Rogue river, coast and other views, entirely new and irresistible. The advantage of such a course over a small exhibit in a crowded pavilion is obvious. The expense will be many times less. She says, "With a small appropriation from the state, to cover cost of the stereoscopic outfit, I am confident the venture can be made self-supporting on an advertising or subscription basis." This is the weak point in the lady's scheme. The legislature has no right to appropriate funds for the equipment of private enterprises. Otherwise the plan is a good one. Senator Mulkey is such a lady's man that Mrs. Sutton has appealed to him for his influence in the legislature, and he has rather promised to exert it. Yamhill members are hereby warned to keep an eye open for Mulkey and Mrs. Sutton.

Farm for Sale. 201 acres, 1/2 mile from Carlton. 170 acres under plow, 80 acres summer fallow good 10-room house, orchard and small fruit. Terms easy. This is one of the best farms in the county. Address Box 14, Carlton, Oregon. 371f The Union Missionary society of the city of McMinnville met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Root on Wednesday afternoon, August 29th, 1900. The subject, "India as a Missionary Field," was discussed, after which officers to serve the following year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Bardon; vice president, Mrs. Grover; secretary, Mrs. Ella Rogers; treasurer, Miss Clara Turner. Upon a unanimous vote of the members present a little Hindoo girl was adopted by the society and given the name of McMinnville, Oregon. The constitution of this society provides that any woman who is a member of any church may become a member. It is earnestly hoped that all christian women may join with us in the good work.

A Chicken Party. Wednesday evening a number of young people, composing a walking party, wended their way out to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cook, where a social hop was enjoyed, after which refreshments were served. Each lady of the party carried a chicken, hence the sobriquet "chicken party." Besides the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Cook, the members of the party were: Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Olds, the Misses Winnie Gilbert, Hallie Reynolds, Alta Booth, Jennie Snyder, Etta Redmond, Georgia and Kate Jones, Faye Martin, Florence Dielschneider and Maud Hembree. Messrs. Francis Dielschneider, Fred Boardman, Wm. Newell, George Adams, Wm. Ungerman, John Redmond, Chas. Young, Royce Cook and Dr. Clark.

Fiendish Work. Dan Crigler, who lives above Peavine ridge, met with a serious loss last Saturday night about 12 o'clock. An incendiary set fire to his large barn filled with hay, and all was consumed, including other hay stacked outside, in all about 50 tons. Suspicion points to certain individuals possessed of the devil generally, and to whom is attributed other fiendish acts, such as gashing living animals with sharp knives. A horse in that neighborhood was ruined recently by deliberately cutting through his hide while standing in the barn. Early the next morning after the Crigler fire the Peavine school house was discovered to be on fire by some farmers who were early on their way to thresh. A corner of the building had been set on fire and it had spread well up towards the roof. The same individuals are supposed to have set both fires.

W.M. F. DIELSCHNEIDER & BRO., The Jewelers. The flight of time has never had a better assortment of recorders gathered under one roof before. American clocks in all styles, designs and makes, and surpassing all are seen those dainty yet serviceable porcelain clocks with their pretty faces and rich decorated cases that can always be washed clean and bright when they get a little dusty or dirty. We have just received twelve cases of clocks directly from the factories and confidently assert that we have as fine an assortment of reliable clocks at as low a price as was ever offered in the Willamette valley. Those indebted to the St. Charles store are requested to call at once and settle their accounts, as we must have money to carry on the business. Respectfully, MRS. N. E. KEGG. CASTORIA Bears the signature of CHAS. H. FLETCHER. In use for more than thirty years, and The Kind You Have Always Bought.
