

SCROFULA The Blighting Disease of Heredity.

In many respects Scrofula and Consumption are alike; they develop from the same general causes, both are hereditary and dependent upon an impure and impoverished blood supply. In consumption the disease fastens itself upon the lungs; in Scrofula the glands of the neck and throat swell and suppurate, causing ugly running sores; the eyes are inflamed and weak; there is an almost continual discharge from the ears, the limbs swell, bones ache, and white swelling is frequently a result, causing the diseased bones to work out through the skin, producing indescribable pain and suffering. Cutting away a sore or diseased gland does no good; the blood is poisoned. The old scrofulous taint which has probably come down through several generations has polluted every drop of blood.

Scrofula requires vigorous, persistent treatment. The blood must be brought back to a healthy condition before the terrible disease can be stopped in its work of destruction. Mercury, potash and other poisonous minerals usually given in such cases do more harm than good; they ruin the digestion and leave the system in a worse condition than before.

S. S. S. is the only medicine that can reach deep-seated blood troubles like Scrofula. It goes down to the very roots of the disease and forces every vestige of poison out of the blood. S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known. The roots and herbs from which it is made contain wonderful blood purifying properties, which no poison, however powerful, can long resist. S. S. S. stimulates and purifies the blood, increases the appetite, aids the digestion and restores health and strength to the enfeebled body. If you have reason to think you have Scrofula, or your child has inherited any blood taint, don't wait for it to develop, but begin at once the use of S. S. S. It is a fine tonic and the best blood purifier and blood builder known, as it contains no poisonous minerals. S. S. S. is pre-eminently a remedy for children.

When my daughter was an infant she had a severe case of Scrofula, for which she was under the constant care of physicians for months at the end of that time, however, she was almost despaired of her life. A few bottles of Swift's Specific cured her completely, as it seemed to go direct to the cause of the trouble. I do not believe it has an equal for stubborn cases of blood diseases which are beyond the power of other so-called blood remedies. S. I. Brooks, Monticello, Ga.

Our medical department is in charge of experienced physicians who have made Scrofula and other blood diseases a life study. Write them about your case, or any one you are interested in. Your letter will receive prompt and careful attention. We make no charge whatever for this.

On October 6th, at 2 o'clock p. m., there will be a meeting of the Grange at the Grange hall. All farmers, whether interested or not in the Grange, are requested to attend, for the consideration of business that will vitally interest every person.

The vein of tin ore in the coast mountains west of McMinnville is again attracting attention. M. V. Ennsley, the owner, has released a former bond on the property, and Mc Masters & Burrell, of Portland, have agreed with him to put down a diamond drill to a depth of five hundred feet on the lode unless pay ore is found at a lesser depth.

As Rev. R. W. King is on the awarding committee to bestow the prizes for the best amateur photography, his own work with the camera will not be placed in competition. It will be on exhibition, however. The prizes are four in number, and will be first and second for two classes. The first prize in each is a lamp, the second an album.

Services in the M. E. church will be held next Sunday as usual. The pastor has returned from Ashland and will preach. The morning service will be held at the usual hour of 11, but in the evening the Epworth League will hold its service at 6:30, and the preaching service will be at 7:30.

For the carnival today and tomorrow the ladies of the W. C. T. U. will have a "Mothers' Rest" waiting room next door to the O K restaurant. Everybody is welcome. Ice water from the old oaken bucket will be free. This is a good idea on the part of the ladies. A place to rest on an occasion like today, is something needed, and many will avail themselves of the opportunity.

At the Baptist church the pastor will preach in the morning next Sunday on "Our Work in Oregon," and in the evening on "The Wise Choice." Miss Mollie Patty will again commence her work in the choir, which we will all appreciate. On Sunday evening she will sing one of her best solos, and the service of song in the evenings at this church will be carefully arranged from this time forward. Miss Trumbull will give us some fine execution on the organ and you should come to the service early to hear the opening voluntary. With the addition of another voice in the present choir, which we hope to announce soon, we will be able to have the best of musical service that this church has ever had. The evening service will begin from this time forward at 7:30 instead of at 8 o'clock as heretofore.

That Free Stereopticon Lecture Course.

EDITOR REPORTER. Dear Sir: The Reporter of August 31 contains a mention which needs revision. I refer to your notice of the free stereopticon lecture course planned to advertise Oregon and serve as state exhibit at Buffalo next year. Classing this undertaking as a private enterprise, you claimed that the legislature has no right to appropriate funds for its equipment. Permit me to ask, are not state funds, besides cancelling state indebtedness, intended to promote the general welfare by improvement and development of the country? What does Oregon need more than an infusion of fresh, vigorous citizenship? The need of more people, money and enterprise in perfecting state development, is imperative. Would not an undertaking to secure these desirable auxiliaries be worthy of the fostering care of citizens individually, and as a commonwealth? This plan is beyond the petty bounds of personal aggrandizement, both in its origin and hoped-for results. It is to be a great, traveling advertisement for and by the state of Oregon, given away, as advertisements always are, with cost to the advertiser only. It will come before the legislature, not to beg favor, but as a thorough business proposition for the state, to be considered and recognized, or rejected by Oregon's financiers, whose ultimate and cordial approval is confidently expected. MISS M. L. SUTTON.

Prof. Duncan, principal of the Dayton schools, was a welcome visitor Wednesday afternoon. He made a few remarks and said he was quite well pleased with our work.

Say, if you want to see some good marching you ought to come down and watch us form and march in some day.

The schools are progressing nicely under the able management of Prof. Bristow. He is a very pleasant man and has good control over the children.

an honest purpose, but her project, which doubtless would bring some good results to the state, is directly in line with county or district work to be fostered by local commercial interests, and not such as the state could consistently undertake. If the exhibit were confined to the Buffalo exposition, there would be little more justification for granting the request, but the course, as we understand it, is designed to tour the central and eastern states.

Good Words for Mrs. Urruh.

The White Ribbon Bulletin of Tower City, N. Dak., in which state Mrs. Ada Urruh has been working as national organizer, after speaking of that lady's 20 years' service for temperance, thus compliments her abilities:

"She was born in Indiana in 1853 and inherits from both father and mother the sturdy character and will power that enables her to meet all opposition and break down all obstacles. Of a peculiarly delicate physique, her indomitable will carries her successfully through greater strain than can be endured by most stronger women. She frequently says: 'One can do what they will to do, and our lives are measured not so much by the number of years we live, but by what we do.' She will, when she comes to our state convention, have completed nearly nine months of constant work, only interrupted by the sad journey that took her to her mother's happy death bed, returning immediately to our state. During this time she has given an address nearly every day and many days held one or two additional meetings, assisting in conventions and institute at Chautauqua at Devil's Lake, where she was accorded a recognition by Chautauqua officials, never before given to our speakers there.

Mrs. Urruh has been for some years the president of the board of national organizers. She is an eloquent, logical speaker, handling the weapons of pathos and humor effectually. No speaker has ever entered our state that has done so much to build up the work.

To be sure. You are not a watchmaker. How should you know the difference? That is just why you should buy that watch of a substantial, located, home jeweler—a place where you know of whom you are buying, and the assurance of a business reputation, and guarantee that goes with every sale. Here you take no risk. It isn't like sending off for a watch—we couldn't afford to misrepresent the quality, as our best advertising develops in the watches we have sold from year to year. It is our ideas of store-keeping to make people satisfied; they come again and send others. We think it pays.

As to prices, it stands to reason that the jeweler of the smaller towns like ourselves, can undersell the city jeweler who are laboring under enormous rentals and varied expenses of city merchandising.
