D. H. Turner gladdened the hearts of his family Monday evening by returning home from the Nome gold fields, after an absence of several months. He has a prosperous appearance, says he had a good time and seems to have fared well on his northern trip. He did very little mining himself, though he exhibits some interesting specimens of the yellow metal which he panned out on the beach. Mr. Turner has been employed as clerk in the Nome postoffice, and relates some interesting facts in regard to the work of the postal department there. As mail was not received very regularly, it came sometimes in an avalanche. On one steamer 96 sacks of mail were received and before they could get it all distributed, two more steamers came, each bringing a like amount, and it was a week before they got it all taken care of. On one day the money order business transacted amounted to $13,902, which speaks well even for a mining camp. Mr. Turner, contrary to some returned miners, still thinks Nome a success, and intends now to return when transportation opens up in the spring.—Newberg Graphic.

Notwithstanding all that has been said and done the best intrinsic values are to be found at the Racket store, especially in those Star 5 Star shoes.

With election out of the way, the interest in dairying and diversified agriculture should be renewed throughout the Willamette valley.
The locomotive that pulls the Sheridan express came up Wednesday night with an electric searchlight, which penetrates the fog and darkness for hundreds of feet in advance of the train.

Mrs. Wm. Blackburn of Sheridan holds the lucky number which secures the silk dress at the Chicago store. The gentleman holding 6404, which secures the shoes and hat, has not yet reported.
Ed Cox, the blacksmith, has taken advantage of the opening for a man in his line at Hopewell, and will move over next week. Carr, the former blacksmith there, skipped in the dark of the moon, leaving numerous obligations. He made money but kept it as pocket lining.

A fruit and vegetable cannery would be a valuable addition to McMinnville's line of industries, and it is to be hoped that the interest which M. B. Hendrick has given to the project of converting his warehouse into a cannery will lead him to embark upon the enterprise.
The Oregon Emergency Corps was disbanded last Saturday, after existing since April 26, 1898. During its lifetime it raised and disbursed thousands. Its last official act was turning over to the monument fund the sum of $721.95. Of this amount $20 came from the auxiliary at McMinnville.

The Grange store people expect to begin moving the first of next week, and the transition will be made so gradually, a department at a time in the evenings, that they'll be in the new building before you are fully aware of it. They are going to have very convenient, well-lighted and commodious quarters, as well as an improved location.
At the November council meeting the usual routine of business was transacted and among the other proceedings was the passage of the ordinance permitting steam wood saws to operate on Third street earlier in the evening and later in the morning than formerly. The light and water committee was also empowered to place incandescent lights in the vicinity of the boat landing and on the street leading thereto.

A young man named Jack Burton died of typhoid fever on Tuesday, at the residence of Bob Miller on I street. Deceased was 21 years of age, and a cousin of Mrs. Miller. Deceased was buried on Red Prairie, his home being on Salmon river. Chas. Garner is lying very ill of the same fever at the same place. Burton had so far recovered as to be up at one time, ate too freely of blackberry pie and suffered a relapse.
A very enjoyable social was held at the M. E. church last Monday evening, under the auspices of the Epworth League. It was the regular night for the League business meeting, and as soon as the business was over a very pleasant social time was held, after which refreshments were served. There was a large attendance of the League and its friends, and everybody expressed themselves as having had a very enjoyable time.

At a recent meeting of the W. C. T. U. a letter was read from Mrs. Coates, the representative of that organization in Manila, stating that the soldier boys had very poor water to drink and that plans were being perfected whereby ice water could be furnished the boys free of charge. As all such things cost money, an appeal was sent to the local W. C. T. U.'s for free will offerings for that cause. The union here responded with an offering of $5.00. In some such quiet way these christian women are trying to serve the Master.

The steamer Bonita struck a rock in the Willamette last Friday, which punched a hole in her hull. With the aid of the siphons a soft patch was put on and she was only delayed a few hours. The high stage of water prevented her getting over the Lafayette locks part of last week, but she came to hand as usual Monday night.

Joseph Carter, who for about two years and a half has been a county charge, died Oct. 31st, at the residence of Mr. Huguette in this city, aged 77 years. Mr. Carter was a pioneer of 1851, and was a native of Illinois. For the past fifteen years he has been totally blind, and was paralyzed three years ago, being entirely helpless since that time.
The Hillsboro Independent of last week publishes in full a lengthy speech on campaign issues delivered in that city by Hon. S. B. Huston. It is a gem, and we propose to preserve it as more completely embracing every phase of the 1900 campaign than any document that has come to our notice. Mr. Huston is an observing and thinking man, and occupies the true democratic position his party escaped from in 1896.

SAVI

We feel that being citizens of the United States, and common citizens of Yamhill county, state of Oregon, and city of McMinnville, that we should be allowed to have a thanksgiving day, and feeling that Mr. McKinley meant us as much as any other free Americans, we have concluded to hold a citizens' thanksgiving service at the Christian church in this city on the 29th of this month, at 11 a. m. All are cordially invited to attend. The following program is arranged:
Reading of president's proclamation, by Mayor Maloney.
A male chorus of sixteen McMinnville citizens, under the leadership of Dr. Nelson.
Scripture reading and prayer, by Prof. Bristow, principal of McMinnville high school.
The city orchestra, under the leadership of Mr. Feeley.
The Hobbs-Patty quartet.
Sermon by Arnold Lindsey, pastor.
Closing hymn—"Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean."
A turkey dinner.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and find it to be a great medicine," says Mr. E. S. Phipps of Poteau, Ark. "It cured me of bloody flux. I cannot speak too highly of it." This remedy always wins the good opinion, if not praise, of those who use it. The quick cures which it effects even in the most severe cases make it a favorite everywhere. For sale by Howorth & Co., druggists.

The Real Thing

The art of imitation in jewelry has been brought to such a high degree of perfection that the cheap "gilt" stuff, found in general stores, can with difficulty be told from fine rolled plate or solid. Wear will demonstrate the difference—appearance will not. The only safe course in buying jewelry of any sort is to rely upon experience and honesty of the established dealer, who cannot AFFORD to misrepresent his goods.
