

CANCER Cannot be Cut Out or Removed with Plasters

Surgical operations and flesh destroying plasters are useless, painful and dangerous, and besides, never cure Cancer. No matter how often a cancerous sore is removed, another comes at or near the same point, and always in a worse form. Does not this prove conclusively that Cancer is a blood disease, and that it is folly to attempt to cure this deep-seated, dangerous blood trouble by cutting or burning out the sore, which, after all, is only an outward sign of the disease—a place of exit for the poison?

Cancer runs in families through many generations, and those whose ancestors have been afflicted with it are liable at any time to be stricken with the deadly malady.

Only Blood Diseases can be Transmitted from One Generation to Another

—further proof that Cancer is a disease of the blood. To cure a blood disease like this you must cure the entire blood system—remove every trace of the poison. Nothing cures Cancer effectually and permanently but S. S. S. S. S. S. enters the circulation, searches out and removes all taint, and stops the formation of cancerous cells. No mere tonic or ordinary blood medicine can do this. S. S. S. goes down to the very roots of the disease, and forces out the deadly poison, allowing the sore to heal naturally and permanently. S. S. S. at the same time purifies the blood and builds up the general health. A little pimple, a harmless looking wart or mole, a lump in the breast, a cut or bruise that refuses to heal under ordinary treatment, should all be looked upon with suspicion, as this is often the beginning of a bad form of cancer.

Mrs. Sarah M. Keeding, 941 Windsor Ave., Bristol, Tenn., writes: "I am 47 years old, and for three years had suffered with a severe form of Cancer on my jaw, which the doctors in this city said was incurable, and that I could not live more than six months. I accepted their statement as true, and had given up all hope of ever being well again, when my druggist, knowing of my condition, recommended S. S. S. After taking a few bottles the sore began to heal, much to the surprise of the physicians, and in a short time made a complete cure. I have gained in flesh, my appetite is splendid, sleep is refreshing—in fact, an enjoying perfect health."

Discourages the Sugar Factory.

C. W. Nibley, of Baker City, in a late interview with the Oregonian, said the beet sugar factory at LaGrande, in which he is largely interested, is not satisfactory, for the reason that the farmers will not raise beets. The capacity of the factory is 35,000 to 40,000 tons of beets each running season of 100 days. The first year 8000 tons were obtained. Last year the supply was increased to 11,000 tons, but this season it fell back to 9000. This tends to discourage the company, which is now contemplating removal of the plant to some point in Utah. The profit in beet sugar manufacture comes from working large quantities of beets. The general expenses would not be perceptibly larger for working up 40,000 tons of beets than for the 9000 tons. When the general expense for 40,000 tons must be borne by the 9000 tons, the business lacks a good deal of paying out, and at the present rate the company does not feel warranted in standing further loss. About half the beets delivered to the mill this year were grown by the company itself in order that it might set an example in beet culture and assist its own mill with raw material. It made money on the beets it raised. One LaGrande man, John Caviness, Mr. Nibley says, raised 100 acres of sugar beets and cleared $50 on every acre, or $4000 net on the whole. This is more than four times as much as he could have made from wheat on the same ground. But beet raising requires, in addition to knowledge of the business, constant attention, something more than merely sowing the seed and harvesting the crop. Extra labor is required at thinning time and in the harvest, but for the remainder of the season an ordinary family will easily tend several acres.

John Wanamaker's New Magazine

The latest development in magazines is the entrance of the firm of John Wanamaker into the publisher's field. They will take over and publish, beginning with the December issue, Everybody's Magazine. "We have set ourselves the task of building up in character and circulation an illustrated magazine of our own and of the best type" says the announcement. So radical a departure seems to call for some explanation; the statement is made that the Wanamaker stores have become the largest sellers of books at retail in the country, and they think that a popular magazine belongs naturally to this organization. A highly attractive Christmas number is promised with contributions from James Whitcomb Riley, Miss Mary E. Wilkins, Charles Major, author of "When Knighthood was in Flower," Edwin Asa Dix of "Deacon Bradbury," fame and a novel serial by a new southern woman writer of whom much is expected.

A Village Blacksmith Saved His Little Son's Life.

Mr. H. H. Black, the well-known village blacksmith at Grahamville, Sullivan Co., N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old, has always been subject to croup, and so had the attacks been that we have feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy, for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by Howorth & Co., druggists.

Yamhill against the World.

Yamhill county has almost every sort of celebrity, not to say freak. The latest is an inventor at Sheridan, who says he will soon demonstrate perpetual motion as an actuality. He calls his invention "The Glory of Eden." In an article in the Sun he says: "The scientific world has been reaching out for many ages to discover this great secret hidden among the undiscovered mysteries of science. The most towering intellects tackled and wrestled over that thing during their lives, wrecked their brains, squandered their fortunes, beggared their families, and finally were assigned a place in the insane asylum. It was undiscovered by them for the time was not yet. The belief was planted in their minds that it was possible. That belief still stands indelibly fixed in the minds of many scientists which lures them on to victory. Wait! Watch!

LOCAL LODGE HISTORY.

Statement of Progress and Work of Charity Lodge During 8 Years. Dr. J. D. Baker, who has been recorder of the above lodge for eight years, has prepared some interesting history of this lodge, from which we gather the following facts: Charity lodge No. 7, A. O. U. W., was instituted Nov. 29th, 1878, being 22 years old this month. During these years it has not only survived the many trials that always must be overcome by a society of its character, but has continually increased in public favor and confidence. In 1892 the lodge had 56 members, now it has 141. The average age of the membership eight years ago was 41 years, now it is 40. Whole number initiated since 1892, 140. Number of deaths during same time, 9. Amount paid to beneficiaries, $17,000. The oldest member of the lodge at this time is George W. Olds, who is about 69 years. The lodge was instituted with 13 charter members, five of whom are still living in McMinnville, viz., R. Nelson, C. D. Johnson, G. W. Jones, W. G. Henderson and B. F. Hartman. The number of charter members who have resided in this locality for so many years proves the stability of the order and its favor among business men. Eight years ago the amount paid on an assessment was $56; the last assessment was $269.53. There were no other fraternal beneficiary societies in this community eight years ago, now there are three others in active operation, each soliciting members and being fairly successful. During this period one of the most severe panics in the history of the country has been upon us, and has been a severe strain upon societies of this nature, making it impossible for many members to pay their assessments, and consequently they were dropped. The general mode of assessment was changed three years ago from the level to the classified plan, causing a good deal of dissatisfaction at the time, many of the older members preferring the old plan. Considering the three obstacles mentioned, the lodge should be pleased with the progress made and encouraged with the outlook for the future. Much has been done to assist the families of sick members, and many other charitable deeds which cannot be enumerated. McMinnville is not the only place where this order has prospered. In the Oregon jurisdiction it has increased 250 per cent in the same time, making this the leading state in number of members per capita. In the whole country there was initiated last year 56,000 members, being the largest number in any one of the 32 years of its existence up to that time. The first seven months of this year there have been initiated 44,000 members. This is the latest information at hand.

Fine line of mackintoshes at the Racket store. Do not buy till you see them. The Grange & Farmers store will be headquarters for Christmas goods. 49-3

S. A. Manning of this city, B. O. Hoffman of Whiteson and J. W. Allen of Newberg have been drawn as trial jurors for the United States circuit court to be held in Portland December 3d.

The first of January we expect to move across the street in the Fenton building. We want to sell all the goods we can before that time. Please come in and help us move them. H. MILLS & SON.

Peter Thomsen has traded his 30 acres of land lying a short distance west of the college to Henry Brner, for 160 acres of land six miles west of Stayton. Mr. Brner will at once become a resident of McMinnville.

At the M. E. church next Sunday morning the pastor will preach on the subject "A Wicked Business," and in the evening he will preach again at the usual hour. All are invited to attend, especially those who have no church home elsewhere.

Hood River has a centenarian, David Irwin, 101 years old, whose appearance at the polls on election day drew a larger crowd than the political speakers had done during the campaign. Contrary to the general rule with men of his age, Mr. Irwin was not pleased with the result of the election.

In Little Nestucca precinct in Tillamook county the socialists outnumber the democrats. They came up to the polls with a solid 17 votes for the Debs ticket. The republicans had 26 votes, the democrats 10 and the prohibitionists 5. This must be that famous social colony we have heard so much about, as established in Tillamook county.

E. W. Haines has bought the Washington mill property at Forest Grove, with the exception of the machinery, for $2500, and will at once move his grist mill from Gales Creek to that place. The plant will be operated by electricity. Plans are now being considered to make the waters of Gales Creek, three miles distant, furnish the power.

John Tyler and Charles Seelye sold their onion crop of four acres for $1300, says the Woodburn Independent. Five years ago Mr. Tyler rented this place, situated 2 1/2 miles east of Woodburn, and two years afterwards bought the tract for $1500, and now owes nothing on it. O. A. Beamis, whose place adjoins Mr. Tyler's, this year raised 1000 sacks of onions on three acres, and disposed of the product for $1100.

Subjects for discussion at the Christian church next Lord's day are the following: Morning—"The Relation of Missions to the Gospel." Evening—"The Tragedy of King Saul, Jonathan and David." Of course we expect to have Thanksgiving services at the Christian church. We expect to have a first-class program of Portland and home talent. Sixteen male voices, Hobbs-Patty quartette, and quartette of brass. Something special next Sunday evening.

To remove a troublesome corn or bunion: First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as closely as possible without draining blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn for a few days, to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism, Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by Howorth & Co., druggists.

Mr. Colton, international secretary of the Y. M. C. A. for the west United States, addressed the students of the college and others Monday evening. He is a polished speaker, and quite a young man. He took the position that the shortcomings of christian people, and their failure to live an overcoming life is one of the greatest stumbling blocks in the pathway of christian progress, and that it had indeed almost come to a decision on the part of christians between better living or leading men into unbelief. He urged closer and more systematic study, prayerfulness and personal communion with Christ.
