

THAT NEW SIGN.

Have you seen that new sign over my door? It simply says C. C. Murton, and it simply means that I am the sole owner of the business. I trust that the many friends that I have made during the past year will continue the liberal patronage they have given me. I am making new friends every day. If you don't know me come in and give me the glad hand anyhow, I want to know you and I want you to know me. I aim to keep a well assorted stock of general merchandise, and to sell at living rates. Keep your eye on that umbrella in my north window. It is being reduced for every day and some one is going to get a bargain. Remember, when you see it in my ad it's so.

C. C. MURTON.

LOCAL NEWS.

A. S. Venen, formerly of this city, is now located at Forest Grove.

J. T. Simpson, Esq., of Sheridan, was in the city on business Wednesday.

Wm. Scott, music dealer, made a business trip to Portland on Wednesday.

President Boardman and daughter Faith are among the grip afflicted.

Fred Thompson of Albany has again enrolled as a student at the college.

Photo mounts cut to any size you wish at this office, and for sale cheaper than the cheapest.

Forest Grove has a cornet band composed of young ladies, who talk of giving a recital Feb. 22d.

Mrs. Mamie Briggs of The Dalles, field worker for the Degree of Honor, will visit Yamhill lodge No. 10, tonight.

Recorder J. L. Hoskins is still kept at home by illness. His condition the first of the week was somewhat worse.

Members of the O. F. R. A. should not forget the meeting of that association on Tuesday, Feb. 12, at 10 a. m. If you are not there don't grow after it's over if some of the things done do not suit you.

Mrs. A. L. McNeal of Epworth, Iowa, visited this week with her mother, Mrs. M. Williams and family, returning to Portland on Wednesday, where her children are attending school.

The souvenir dishes, cups, plates, etc., of the college, high school and court house at the Grange store are something new and novel.

F. E. Rogers did not extend his trip farther than Astland last week. He learned that the drugstore at Klamath Falls was not what he desired, and he took the back train for home.

I have money to loan on farm property at good terms. Parties wishing to borrow, call and see me.

R. L. CONNER.

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Stephens, who died at Goldendale, Wash., Jan. 24, aged 81 years, lived near Sheridan for 35 years, and was the mother of Ira D. Stephens, lumberman of this county, and Mrs. Martha Whitmer of Bellevue. She was a great aunt of the Misses Patty of this city.

Columbus School Notes.

We are having reviews this week. Many of our sick pupils have resumed their studies.

This week ends five months of school. It will not be long until vacation comes again.

The literary society had a special meeting Monday afternoon and elected the following officers for the next two months: President, Miss Christa Seiders; vice president, Vernon Derby; secretary, Hardy Ballinger; Treasurer, Miss Ida Stewartson.

Safe for sale. ODELL & WOOD.

Wire fence at the Fence Works. Fresh milk cows for sale.

5-4 R. O. JONES, Amity, Or. Mrs. C. R. Hamblin is visiting a sister in Seattle.

Have you seen that new granite ware at Hodson's. Guaranteed the best.

There's a tiger loose in town. A "snap shot" may be seen and full particulars learned by calling at Grange & Farmers store.

James Keid, one of the progressive and successful farmers of this county, is putting in 13,000 tile on his farm east of town. The tile are from the Taylor & Heath factory. Mr. Keid will doubtless get some good results from this stroke of enterprise.

C. F. Daniels carries a stock of flour, feed and baled hay, and sells as cheap as the same can be bought anywhere in the valley.

Mrs. Wm. Jones, who lived on the Wortman farm near Carlton, died last Friday after an illness of one month from typhoid fever, which later developed into rheumatic fever. She was 25 years old, and leaves a husband and two young children, one an infant of four months. Burial was made at Carlton on Monday.

Wm. Merriman, who has been station agent at this place over a year past, has been fortunate to secure a better position, a no less important place than the Salem station. This means a salary of $125 per month, which is $50 increase. He left here on Tuesday, to enter upon his new work. His successor at this place is Mr. T. J. Belts, who will be assisted by Joseph Brownlee. Mr. Merriman's family, who have been visiting at Salem, will return to McMinnville before moving to their new home.

Fred Post, who lives on the island in the Willamette, was in town Saturday, and told us that during the big freshet he was surrounded by water, and it was necessary to cross a channel ten feet deep in order to get out to mainland. His orchard was flooded so that he could ride all over it in his boat. Fortunately his residence, dryer and other buildings were not reached by about three or four feet. Notwithstanding all this, Mr. Post says he slept pretty well.

A Convincing Answer.

"I hobbled into Mr. Blackmon's drug store one evening," says Wesley Nelson, of Hamilton, Ga., "and he asked me to try Chamberlain's pain balm for rheumatism with which I had suffered for a long time. I told him I had no faith in any medicine as they all failed. He said: 'Well, if Chamberlain's pain balm does not help you, you need not pay for it.' I took a bottle of it home and used it according to the directions and in one week I was cured, and have not since been troubled with rheumatism." Sold by Howorth.

Edward Fuller, a member of the Southern Pacific bridge gang, had the forefinger of his right hand badly mashed Monday while assisting in hanging one of the new heavy doors in the company's warehouse. He got his finger jammed between the door and the wall, tearing the nail off and bruising the finger terribly.—Independence West Side.

Nasal Catarrh quickly yields to treatment by Ely's Cream Balm, which is agreeably aromatic. It is received through the nostrils, cleanses and heals the whole surface over which it diffuses itself. Druggists sell the 50c. size; Trial size by mail, 10 cents. Test it and you are sure to continue the treatment.

Announcement.
To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids to the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Cream Balm in liquid form, which will be known as Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price including the spraying tube is 75 cents. Druggists or by mail. The liquid form embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation.

Consumption

is destruction of lung by a growing germ, precisely as moldy cheese is destruction of cheese by a growing germ.

If you kill the germ, you stop the consumption. You can or can't, according to when you begin.

Take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil: take a little at first.

It acts as a food; it is the easiest food. Seems not to be food; makes you hungry; eating is comfortable. You grow stronger. Take more; not too much; enough is as much as you like and agrees with you. Satisfy hunger with usual food; whatever you like and agrees with you.

When you are strong again, have recovered your strength—the germs are dead; you have killed them.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you.

SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 409 Pearl St., New York. 50c. and $1.00; all druggists.

The genuine has this picture on it, take no other.
