

Filipinos Warmly Welcome American Commissioners.

WHEN ON THEIR FIRST TRIP NORTH

Judge Taft and His Associates Have Gone to Bacolor to Organize a Provincial Government-Bulucan Will Next Be Visited

San Fernando, Province of Pampanga, Island of Luzon, Philippines, Feb. 14.-Bacolor and all the towns adjacent to the railroad, which names are historic on account of the fierce battles of the earlier periods of the American occupation, turned out to welcome the United States Philippine commission as it proceeded northward, on its first trip to organize provincial governments. At every station, including the hamlets where the train did not stop, there were bursts of music from the native bands and cheers for the American commission and the partido federale. The clowd at Malolos, the former seat of the insurgent government, was smaller, in proportion to the population, than at the villages. At all the stops addresses were delivered by the natives, and responses were made by Judge Taft, the president of the commission; Professor Worcester, General Flores, Chief Justice Arellno and Dr. Tavera, president of the Federal party. The natives repeatedly declared the people were beginning to understand the purpose of the Americans, adding that the commission's acts showed its promises would be kept.

Judge Taft told the people of the towns in Bulucan province that a provincial government will shortly be established there The American party alighted at San Fernando, passed under an arch of welcome and was greeted by the military and hundreds of children waving American flags and singing "Hail Columbia." The entire American party was then driven to Bacolor, capital of the province of Pampanga, where they will be cordially entertained tomorrow, and until applying the provincial government to Pampanga, there will be a public discussion of the laws enacted.

General Grant received information that a band of Tarlac insurgents is approaching for the purpose of harassing the people of Bacolor. He has sent scouts out after them.

THE ALASKA BOUNDARY.

Laurier Explaines the Relations Between Can- State of Siege Proclaimed in the Spanish Capada and the United States.

Ottawa, Ont., Feb. 14.-The address in reply to the speech from the throne was disposed of in two hours in the house of commons. During the debate R. E. L. Bordon, the leader of the opposition, asked the premier as to the condition of affairs between Canada and the United States in regard to the Alaska boundary and the joint high commission. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in reply, said that the position of the joint high commission is exactly the same as when it separated. The commission is still in existence. When the sessions of congress and the Canadian parliament are over, he expects that negotiations will be resumed and a satisfactory conclusion reached. He had no hope, however, of reaching a settlement in regard to the Alaska boundary. It was impossible to reach a settlement with the present view taken by the United States, but he thought an honorable compromise may be arrived at. It may be settled by an honorable compromise or arbitration. A third party may be called to arbit.ate. For the present, there is a provisional boundary, which was also adopted in the way of a compromise.

SUPREME JUSTICE SHOT.

Tried to Prevent Two Men Searching His Home for Alleged Abductor.

Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 14.-Chief Justice McClellan, of the Alabama supreme court, was shot in the right shoulder at his house this morning by either Jesse D. Beale or his son, Phelan Beale, of this city.

The wound is a serious one. It is alleged that the Beales went to the house of Judge McClellan to find John McQueen, of Birimingham, assistant solicitor of Jefferson county, whom the elder Beale charged with abducting his daughter, Caroline.

It is alleged Miss Beale had not been at home all night and they had been informed that McQueen had been riding about in a hack with her. Judge McClellan attempted to prevent the Beales from going through his house in their hunt for McQueen. This they resented, and one of them, believed to have been the father, shot McClellan with a pistol. The Beales pursued their hunt and believed they had located McQueen in a closet which was locked, and fired about a dozen shots through the door. McQueen was in the closet, but was in a narrow place to the side of the door, and was not struck by any of the balls. The Beales were arrested and held without bail.

With nightfall, every approach to the Puerta del Sol was jammed with the idle populace. Insulting remarks were hurled at the police and civil guards. A trumpeter sounded a charge, which was made with swords drawn. Heads were not spared, many persons were injured, and there were numerous arrests. The scattering crowds sought the shops and hotels. All the front doors of the Hotel de Paris were smashed in, a great crowd assembling there. The police and guards charged into the streets, but the dispersed throngs quickly reassembled.

As was anticipated, the funeral of Don Ramon de Campoamor, was attanded with serious disturbances. The weather was beautiful and enormous crowds gathered along the route taken by the funeral cortege. Considerable disorder marked the passage of the procession, but the troops stood at strategic points and prevented any very formidable outbreak until the end of the city was reached. At that point the demonstrators, who included many students, raised the cry of "Long live liberty," and, having broken up into small parties, proceeded to various parts of Madrid to renew the demonstration. One band of students stoned a convent.

In the evening fresh riots took place at several points. Gendarmes charged with drawn swords, and a number were bruised and wounded. The demonstrators replied to the charges of the gendarmes with a shower of stones. Altogether some 30 arrests were made during the day, including a military officer, whose arrest resulted in a protest by his brother officers, the matter being referred to the captain-general.

The authorities have warned the newspapers to abstain from the publication ot news or comments calculated to fan the present agitation.

Cause of Disturbances.

New York, Feb. 18 .- A special to the Times from Washington says: The disturbances which General Weyler is now trying to quell, are not, it is said by persons familiar with the situation, of either Carlist or Republican origin, although both parties are no doubt active in trying to take advantage of the trouble. It is declared that the uprising is in reality an outbreak of the discontented. Those taking part in it comprise all classes of malcontents, and its causes are like those which brought about the French revolution.

Poverty has been increasing, the burden of taxation has been growing heavier, and the laboring classes are ripe for revolution. At the same time the ruling dynasty is unpopular. All these complications and a number of others have brought about a widespread feeling of unrest, and great events are looked for in Spain unless the incipient revolution is quelled. Spain has been tending toward a rebellion for some time.

BRADSTREET'S REPORT.

Trade Advices Are Reported to be More Cheerful.

Bradstreet's says: Trade advices are rather more cheerful. This applies as much as to current retail business which has been enlarged with wintry weather as it does to the opening spring trade which finds stimulation in the general confidence felt as to the general outlook for the year. Prices show exceptional strength, all things considered, the one weak spot being raw cotton which shares the rather usual tone manifested by the cotton growers and yarn markets. Foreign demand for our breadstuffs has been rather better. Specially cheerful reports come from the shoe and leather, the lumber and the iron trades, the strength of prices of the latter having been increased by the talk of pendng consolidations although the volume of business is restricted from the same cause. Failures are smaller than of late and current railroad earnings show large gains over good returns of a year ago.

Despite the check given to business by the talk of consolidations, a fair volume of trade is doing at all leading iron markets, and the adavnces in these columns last week are firmly held. Bessemer pig is still selling at $13.25 at valley furnaces, equivalent to $14 at Pittsubrg and sales of 10,000 tons are reported. Immediate deliveries of steel billets still cost 50 cents to $1 more than pool price-$19.75. Chicago reports manufacturers' price lists withdrawn pending the consolidation, but that billets are $2 a ton higher on sales of 20,000 tons.

Wheat, inculding flour shipments, for the week agrgegate 4,814,878 bushels, against 4,997,813 last week.

Failues for the week in the United States numbered 226 as against 350 last week.

Canadian failures numbered 39, against 34 last week.
