DEWET HAS ESCAPED.

Crossed Orange River With Bulk of His Command.

LONDON, March 5.—General Dewet lost heavily in men and stores by his incursion into Cape Colony, but he seems to have made a clever escape with the bulk of his command. Apparently Commandant Hertzog crossed the Orange river with him.

General Hamilton, who was pursuing, heard that General Dewet was surrounded at Phillipstown, northwest of Colesburg. On arriving there he found the Boers had not been doubled back and were struggling across the river at Colesburg. Apparently this is another instance of defective intelligence regarding the doings of the Boers.

The Daily Telegraph has a dispatch from Colesburg dated yesterday, which says:

"Numerous columns are still hunting for Dewet. This place is in a hubbub, and the troops are marching off in various trains to press the pursuit further."

CARRIED OUT ON LAKE ERIE.

Twenty-one Men on Floating Ice—Seventeen Rescued.

SILVER CREEK, N. Y., March 5.—Twenty-one fishermen were carried out on Lake Erie, off Silver Creek, tonight on floating ice, but 17 of them were rescued.

The last seen of the four men they were still on the ice, but a high wind was blowing up a big sea, and the ice was fast breaking up. They were about four miles out, and there was a mile of open water between them and the shore. When it was found that the men were cut off from shore this morning a message was sent to Dunkirk by the mayor asking for assistance.

A special train was made up, and a party of rescuers brought a boat on a flat car. They worked heroically all day. The 17 who were rescued were taken off the floating ice with great difficulty. They said that their comrades probably perished, as they were in perilous positions.

Fruit Men Alarmed Over Weather.

VANCOUVER, Wash., March 4.—Clark county fruit men are apprehensive lest the present warm weather continues long enough to endanger the fruit crop. There is some danger of the trees budding out under the influence of continued warm weather to such an extent that a freeze or a continued cold rain a month later would prove disastrous. Up to this time the winter has been most favorable for the orchards, and the prospects for a big crop the coming season were never better.

California Town Threatened.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 5.—The levee above the town of Washington, Yolo county, is in danger of breaking, owing to the wash caused by the high winds, and a large force of men is working to save it. ## INAUGURATION DAY

Crowd of 40,000 Witnessed the Ceremonies

ON THE EAST FRONT OF THE CAPITAL

Oath Administered by the Chief Justice in a Downpour of Rain—President McKinley's Second Term—New Vice-President.

WASHINGTON, March 4.—William McKinley a second time is president of the United States. He was ushered into that office in a city ablaze with more and finer decorations than ever have graced the holiday loving national capital, whose streets resounded to the tread of more marching soldiers and sailors than ever have participated in a like function, and had as witnesses to the ceremonies a vast multitude, who cheered frequently whenever he or his vice-presidential colleague was visible.

There has been better weather on inauguration days, and there has been much worse than that which attended today's ceremonies. The day in the early forenoon gave promise of being a golden spring day, but the weather was in a capricious mood, and by noon a slow drizzle had begun, which lasted with some intermissions and an occasional lively downpour until late in the afternoon. The worst of the wet weather, unfortunately, came just at the time that President McKinley was being inducted into office on the east front of the capitol, in the presence of a crowd estimated to number 40,000. But the air was mild and pleasant, and the day ended with dry weather.

Roosevelt Sworn In.

The brilliant and impressive scene in the senate, when the vice-president-elect was inducted into office, was reserved for a few hundred. The public had no part in it.

When the ceremony in the senate, a little tedious, despite its brilliancy, was over the floor and galleries emptied into the corridors through which the people jostled and squeezed into the rotunda, and out on to the platform erected from the east portico of the capitol building.

The President Inaugurated.

It was just 1 o'clock when the official party came through the main doorway of the capitol. A deep hush fell upon the assemblage as the president and the chief justice advanced to the center of the pavilion. The president removed his hat, and then raised his right hand. In the intense stillness faintly could be heard the solemn words of the chief justice and the measured response of the president taking the oath to maintain inviolate the constitution and laws of the United States. He spoke in a strong voice, easily heard by those near the front of the stand. His face looked very grave as the oath was pronounced.

"He that handleth a matter wisely shall find good; and who so trusteth in the Lord, happy is he. The wise in heart shall be called prudent; and the sweetness of the lips increaseth the learning."

Kissing these verses of the XVI Proverbs with bowed head, President McKinley, for the second time, passed completely into the full honors of the presidency of the United States. The book had been opened at random by Clerk McKinley, of the supreme court, who long has made it a point to note as a matter of curious knowledge the verse which chances to meet the lips of incoming presidents.

Veteran of Civil War Dead.

San Diego, Cal., March 6.—Major Francis S. Earle, a prominent Grand Army man, is dead. In 1860 he was a member of a famous regiment of New York militia, but the next year, when the war broke out, he had moved to Michigan, when he was appointed adjutant of the Fourth regiment, by Colonel Woodbury. He was advanced to assistant adjutant on the staff of General Fitzjohn Porter.

SALEM, March 6.—The state board of fish commissioners, consisting of the governor, secretary of state and treasurer, today held its first meeting, and appointed H. G. Van Dusen, of Astoria, master warden, and Lewis Bean, of Roseburg, deputy.

The appointments were made by the unanimous action of the members. The name of Representative Talbert, of Clackamas county, was mentioned, but the board decided that he is not eligible under that section of the constitution prohibiting members of the legislature from holding an office created by a legislature of which they are members. F. C. Reed and Lewis Bean were also candidates for the office of master warden.
