Good Cough Medicine for Children. "I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's cough remedy," says F. P. Moran, a well known and popular baker, of Petersburg, Va. "We have given it to our children when troubled with bad coughs, also whooping cough, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug." Sold by Howorth.

Clearance Sale of Shoes. Now is the time to get some genuine bargains in ladies' and men's shoes as we need room for spring stock. There is no place like the Racket Store for real values.

Tourist Cars. The tourist cars, like a newspaper in a country town, certainly will "fill a long felt want." A cool, clean, well ventilated sleeping and observation car, equally free from the discomforts of the old fashioned passenger coach and the stuffy heat of the over-luxuriously upholstered drawing room and sleeping cars, and at a moderate extra fee, has solved the problem of providing attractive accommodations for general public. The O. R. & N. Co. runs three of these cars daily between Portland and the east. A porter is in charge of each car to look after the wants and comforts of the passengers. For rates and particulars write to A. L. CRAIG, General Passenger Agent O. R. & N. Co., Portland, Ore.

For Sale. Small fruit farm, 28 acres; 20 acres in cultivation, 3 in prunes, 2 in other fruit, good house and barn, near North Yamhill. Address box 85, North Yamhill.

Card of Thanks. Thanks to the kind friends and neighbors for the service they rendered during the sickness and death of our beloved mother. HERBERT, CORA AND HOWARD KAUFFMAN.

E. F. Baird, city passenger agent of the Burlington at Portland, was in the city in the interest of his road yesterday. The state weather bureau has received reports from a number of different localities in Oregon, which show a promising outlook at this time for bountiful crops this year.

LOCAL NEWS.

G. S. Wright, dentist. Wanted—Wool and mohair. 11m2 CHRISTENSON & HOUCK. Robert Venson left this week for Seattle.

Cut rates on wall paper for the next month at Wm. Scott's. N. E. Kegg is paying $4.00 to $4.50 per dozen for good chickens.

The Reporter and Weekly Oregonian one year for $2, strictly in advance. Mrs. J. W. Cows is visiting her sister, Mrs. Helen Burgess, at Rosalia, Washington.

Wall paper at cut prices. Must be sold. Call and see Hodson. Miss Valeria Patty has gone to Snohomish, Wash., to manage a millinery store for Sanford & Edwards.

We are paying this week 35 to 40 cts per roll for good butter and 10 cts for fresh eggs. WALLACE & WALKER. Mrs. L. W. Sitton was elected to the Portland school board on Monday by 103 votes over R. K. Warren.

At the old stand, the St. Charles store is still doing business, dealing out a fine quality of groceries and paying the highest price for farm produce.

W. C. Arthur has decided not to go to Portland for the summer, and says he has all the work he can do at home.

We extend a special invitation to the Racket store in our new quarters on south side Third street.

C. F. MILLS & Co. Lowest rates to all points east, best and quickest service. The Burlington route. Write for particulars and advertising matter, R. W. Foster, Ticket Agent, Portland, Or.

Mark Sisters have a full line of spring street hats. Opening of trimmed hats Saturday, March 23d.

We have opened up for business on C street, and handle all kinds of produce, flour, feed and poultry supplies. Call and see us. J. A. DERBY & SON.

D. C. Derby suffered his third stroke of paralysis on Tuesday morning, though not so severe as the stroke that came on him last summer. He has not lost consciousness, and his friends are hopeful that he will pass the ordeal.

Services will be conducted as usual next Sunday at the M. E. church, morning and evening. Preaching by Henry F. Atkinson, the pastor. In the evening the subject of the sermon will be "The Importance of the Unseen." The usual cordial invitation is extended to all friends of this church to attend.

"My work takes me among the Indians of the Klamath reservation. The agent over there has prohibited waltzes among the Indians, as he does not regard the practice as conducive to civilization. I thought when among those college students at Corvallis Friday night and the din of their yells was ringing in my ears, that a war dance was quite respectable."—Spoken by one who was there.

Rev. F. C. Stannard, who has had charge of the college boarding hall this year, has resigned his position to accept the pastorate of the Baptist church at Newberg. He moved with his family to that city on Wednesday. Another steward will be obtained soon. Mr. G. G. Barnum goes back to his old position of janitor. Rev. Stannard is well liked at Newberg and has one of the best Baptist churches in the valley.

G. A. Molden and H. H. Smith of Salem, representing the New York Life Insurance Co., have been reaching out for policy holders in McMinnville this week. This seems to be a fruitful field for agents of this kind. This office has been visited by a half dozen within the past three months. They all wear fine clothes, tell smooth stories, and every fellow's company is the best. With the numerous chances for life insurance in one form and another, it's a man's own fault if he isn't prepared to die.

Elwood Minchin, the young orator of Pacific college, though possessing a gold medal, occupies a very unenviable position. It has been ascertained that his oration, which captured the judges at Corvallis, is a general paraphrase of Carlos Martin's life of Phillips, some two hundred words being taken bodily from that work. This is no idle dream. The comparison has been made. There is a natural and unwritten law governing such contests which stamps plagiarism as an unpardonable offense. There is much speculation as to what the result of this discovery will be. The opinion is general that it should bar Minchin from the interstate contest, if indeed it does not place Pacific College beyond the pale of future participation in inter-collegiate contests. The amende honorable for that institution would seem to be that they gracefully "acknowledge the corn," and resign the honors. It may be said for Mr. Minchin that with a personal subject such as he chose, the temptation is very strong to use language other than his own, but yielding is sin. Writers and speakers generally get their ideas handed down, but most of them display the ability to clothe them in their own verbiage. The power to express comes from possession of a knowledge of the subject matter treated. The knowledge acquired, the student should be able to frame his own thoughts concerning it, and not expect to fly with another's wings.

G. S. Wright, dentist. Seed oats for sale. 10-4 Wm. EBORALL, Bellevue, Or. St Charles store sells fresh eggs at 10c a dozen. McMinnville has a new station agent, Mr. Pence, by name. Have you seen that new granite ware at Hodson's. Guaranteed the best. Recorder Hoskins is again able to be at his office. Farm for rent—130 acres, near Monmouth. Enquire at this office. 13tf Bring your best butter and fresh eggs to Wallace & Walker and get their worth in cash or mdse. The wood air tight heater will save the price of a stove in one year. Hodson sells them. Remember the reception tonight to Rev. R. W. King. Give him a hearty goodby.

Why do you sell your eggs for 10c per dozen when you can get 11c at M. E. Hendrick's? Another sign of spring: Job's comforters have been afflicting Bob Ungerman and Ben Sparks. I am paying today 11c a dozen for eggs and from 6c to 15c a pound for live chickens. H. A. Palmer. Full line of field and garden seeds at the produce market of C. F. Daniels, sold as cheap as they can be purchased anywhere in the valley.

The St. Charles store for a full line of crockery and chinaware of the latest designs. For sale—6 1/2 acre orchard, 1/2 mile from Dayton. Young trees, barn, well, large house, everything in good shape. Apply on premises. H. F. CORNER. Peery Drug Co. carry a complete line of drugs and sundries. Everything up to date. Purest prescription drugs only dispensed. Come in and see our line of fine perfumes.

Revival services will begin at the Cumberland Presbyterian church next Sunday. The Rev. J. J. Dalton of Portland will arrive Monday and conduct services each evening of next week. All are invited to attend these services. An error was made last week in reporting S. G. Dorris as succeeding Alex Westerfield on the Grass Valley Journal. The paper should have read the Arlington Record. W. I. Westerfield continues to run the Journal.

Dr. Smith, of the Oregon Infirmary of Osteopathy of Portland, has decided to establish a branch office in this city, and will occupy the rooms vacated by Dr. Michaux. He is a graduate of the American school of osteopathy at Kirksville, Mo.

In the spring the young lady's fancy turns to thoughts of a new organ or piano. Wm. Scott is supplying the demand all up and down the valley. Prices the lowest and payments easy. See him. Mr. and Mrs. Granville Baker of New Whatcom are visiting in the city this week. Mr. Baker speaks very highly of his home town. When they move for any new enterprise, and they often do, they all work together and put up money, if necessary, and they get it. Rents are good and stores are busy.

Rev. D. T. Summerville, presiding elder of Methodist churches for the Astland district, visited in McMinnville over Sunday and occupied Rev. Atkinson's pulpit both morning and evening. The work of a presiding elder is among the most arduous that falls to preachers, but for this very reason Rev. Summerville enjoys it.

The latest deviltry, apparently committed by the same fiends who are responsible for all the devastation up in Peavine neighborhood, was the killing on Tuesday of two good horses belonging to H. C. Burns, in charge of J. H. Eisele. The horses were both shot. In addition to this, a short time ago, a fine saddle belonging to Ed Casey was cut to pieces, and one of his horses terribly slashed across the rump with a knife. The people out that way say that if ever there is an arrest under suspicion, the sheriff will never reach the county jail with his prisoner. Their indignation runs to the highest notch.

We are informed that Ivan Daniel will fit up his building in this place recently vacated by Edwards Bros., for a town hall and opera house. This is a good move, we believe, both for Mr. Daniel and our town people. A good public hall is badly needed and this building can easily be made to fully supply the requirement. We learn that Henry Merchant is again very sick at his home near town. A difficult surgical operation was performed upon him some time ago, and his late illness is said to be the result of beginning work before sufficiently recovered from the former trouble and the operation. It is to be sincerely hoped a way will be found to relieve him of his present illness and for his final recovery to perfect health. Died—At the family home near North Yamhill, March 13th, at 1 a. m. 1901, of a complication of diseases, after a lingering illness, Elsworth Stoddard, aged 11 years. Perhaps the most interesting trial ever held in the justice court of this district was the case held last Saturday, in which Fritz Berg and H. E. Bedward sued Jas. Jones and Claus Miller to recover damages for the loss of a number of sheep which they claim were killed by the latter's dogs. At 10 o'clock a jury was empaneled and the taking of evidence begun. Twenty different witnesses were examined. The taking of evidence continued till about 4:30, when the argument of counsel was heard, and the case submitted to the jury about 5:30, when they retired for deliberation. At 12 o'clock that night the jury, being unable to return a verdict, were discharged. A new hearing will be had to determine the case on April 11.—North Yamhill Record.

DIED.

Mary A. Kauffman was born in Pennsylvania Nov. 7, 1836, and died near McMinnville, Or., March 11, 1901, leaving two sons and a daughter to mourn her loss. Her health has been failing since the death of her lamented husband, May 29, 1899, a blow from which she never recovered. Stricken for the last time on Saturday morning by paralysis, she passed away on the following Monday at 5 p. m. Her ever charitable kindness to the sick of the neighborhood will be keenly missed but never forgotten. The funeral service was held at her residence at 1 p. m. Wednesday, conducted by Rev. R. W. King. The remains were interred in Masonic cemetery.

Good was her heart, in friendship sound, Patient in pain, beloved by all around, Her pains are o'er, her griefs forever done, A life of everlasting joy has now begun. Rest then, fond mother, beneath the green sod To thy spouse thou art joined thy soul is with God. From our midst thou art gone, but our hearts are with thee, We shall meet thee, we know, in eternity.

CHRISTENSON—At Amity, on Tuesday, March 12th, the eleven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Christenson.

A Marital Surprise. Thos. H. Rogers, city recorder, author and all-round good fellow, surprised his many friends on Monday, by taking unto himself a bride in the person of Miss Lenore Kirkwood, daughter of Joseph Kirkwood of Hopewell. The marriage occurred at the bride's home, Rev. D. H. Leech officiating. Miss Kirkwood is one of the late teachers at North Yamhill. One of the Toney residences near the court house was thoroughly furnished by Mr. Rogers in advance of the happy event. Here's the joys of life to you.

New Train to St. Louis. The popularity of the St. Louis gateway to the east is emphasized by the announcement on the part of the Burlington route that it will establish additional train service between Denver and St. Louis, May 5, 1901. The new train will leave Denver at 2:30 p. m., arriving at St. Louis at 6:00 the next day, duplicating the service now offered by the Burlington between Denver and Chicago.

Orders have been placed for new equipment, and the "St. Louis special," as it will be called, will have many attractive features, hitherto unknown to travelers between the Rocky mountains and the Mississippi valley.

For Sale. My stock of harness, goods and fixtures. If I do not sell before the 10th of April, entire stock will be sold at auction by the piece to the highest bidder. Auction will be held once or twice a week until entire stock is sold. Stock will be replenished when necessary to sell all. Reason for selling is ill health. Will go east. A. D. HOSKINS.

Send Us Your Name. If you are going east now, or contemplating a trip at any time in the future, send us your name, we will place same on our list and will keep you advised from time to time of any reduction in east-bound passenger rates and you will also receive advertising matter descriptive of the Burlington route service as fast as it is issued. We have the lowest rates, quickest time and best service. Address R. W. Foster, Ticket Agent Burlington Route, Cor. 3d and Stark Sts., Portland, Or.

Misses Georgia and Kate Jones visited with relatives in Portland during the week.
