Bad Feelings in Spring - "In the spring I was feeling very badly. My blood was very poor. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. It did me much good. I think it is a wonderful spring medicine and recommend it to all sick and suffering." ETHEL L. BEAN, Eaton Center, N. H.

CATARRH CANNOT BE CURED

With local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Caterrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Ca-tarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Ca-tarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, com-bined with the best blood purifiers, acting di-rectly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect game and the two ingredients is what pro-duces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. End for testimonials, free. F. CHENEY & CO., Proprs., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, price 75c. DEATHBED OF A BUDDHIST. Weird Ceremonies Observed at the Passing of a Priest. It is an exceedingly rare thing for a foreigner to be permitted to witness twelve years in China that the opportunity came to me.

Old Ting Ho-Sheng, head priest of Don't put it off till your health the "Temple of the Spirit of Light," gold, but few new recenter. I had known by sight for several years, and had a more intimate acquaintance with him the summer he died, but I did not expect to be a witness of his death nor to see him die sitting up. Not only did "Old Ting" die sitting up, but he was put into his coffin and buried that way.

Disease and native treatment had already placed the seal of death upon the old man, so that at my second visit I could only tell the attendants that his hours were few. Returning to the old priest's room a little later, I found him sitting on a board stool facing the outer door, clad in his fine priestly robes of yellow silk. Being long past consciousness, he was supported by his attendents in this position, with his legs crossed, each foot resting upon the opposite thigh, sole directed upward -an exceedingly difficult, and, in fact, almost impossible position to assume in life. The hands were placed, palms together, up before his face, the whole attitude being that which represents Buddha in the state of Nirvana-and the old man was very near that state. The great anxiety of those in attendance was that he should not be placed in his coffin until he was really dead. Although I could not bring him back to life, they were willing that I should judge when he was dead. Holding a small mirror in front of his face. I waited until there was no moisture deposited upon it. In the meantime preparations were continually going on around me for further ceremonies. A large pile of paper "cash" had been placed outside the door, on top of which was a document I was not allowed to see, but, from what I could learn, was his history as related to his accession to the priesthood and life in it.

Upon being pronounced dead a flaming torch was applied to the "cash" by a young priest, former disciple and now successor to the lands and buildings of the old man sitting before him. No sooner was the paper well ablaze than the young man prostrated himself before it, bumping his head on the ground the requisite number of times, for every movement in every ceremony of the Chinese is regulated by rites as inflexible as law.

The next step in this strange death scene was the placing of the body in its upright coffin. The front and top were removed and yellow silk cush- strength of my right arm. Victim Lost the Sight of One Eye and Was Unable to Walk-Vision Restored and the Use of Limbs Regained

-A Sworn Statement. A recent cure that seems almost a miracle was that of Samuel Curnock, of 62 Twenty-second avenue, Melrose Park, Ill. The story is best told in his own words. He says: "Early in 1898 I began to experience a worn-out feeling and noticed tion. that I became tired after very slight exertion. I continued at my work in the machine shop until July 2, 1898, when I suffered from a fall, and after that time grew rapidly worse. A physician was called and proncunced my trouble locomotor ataxia. He treated me for four months and there was no improvement in my condition. I was tald that my case was incurable, and that I would continue to grow worse until death relieved me. I was not confined to my bed, although I spent much of my time lying down, and was entirely unable to work. I could hardly stand; it seemed as if my legs would give out from under me, and my movements were like those of a drunken man. A cold numbness came in my right side, and I lost the nothing distinctly, and in a short KEEP YOUR BLOOD CLEAN eves began to blur so that I could see time I became totally blind in my

Forgetfulness Turned to Profit. "The closing of three banks in Baltimare and the consequent unseemly rush of the depositors on others to get their money out reminds me of a queer experience," said a young lawyer.

"It was back in the days of the failure of the Nicholsons' private bank on Baltimore street, near Sharp. I was a mere youngster, but I was frequently sent by mother to the bank. One day I came home from school and was told by my mother to go down and deposit a check for $100, which she had just received. I had a previous engagement to play baseball that afternoon, and I went to the bank errand with such a rush that I forgot whether my mother had told me to draw or deposit. I drew, and when I returned home with the money there was trouble. Besides corporal punishment I got the greatest lecture you ever heard. Something prevented my returning the money next day, and when I took it down the second day the bank was closed. My forgetfulness had turned to profit."
