ELSEWHERE IN OREGON.

Twenty-seven Norwegian immigrants arrived in Dallas, last week, from Minnesota, and are looking around with a view of locating permanently.

Oil excitement in Washington county does not diminish, although there has been nothing found to indicate the presence of oil in paying quantities.

C. L. Hawley of Perrydale reports the first sheep shearing of the season, being six head of his Lincoln sheep, the weight per fleece being 16 pounds.

The Independence creamery is now making some 150 pounds of butter per day. When the creamery started it was only making some 16 or 20 pounds daily.

The number of towns and cities in Oregon in which the merchants pay cash for eggs is rapidly increasing. This is a material help to the development of the poultry industry.

From present indications Oregon will become famous next fall from her immense prune crop.
The driers will not, as heretofore be seeking prunes, but the growers will be hunting for a drier to cure their crop.

At the late Portland dog show a number of Albany dogs carried off prizes. Would it not, however, afford better reasons for congratula-tion if Albany had devoted the capital and labor required to raise dogs to the betterment of the sheep interests?

A wood trust was organized in Salem a few days ago, its object being to make the state institutions in particular and all others in general pay a double price for wood. But the Corvallis & Eastern shipped in a trainload of wood, and the trust collapsed.

The Oregon Hopgrowers Association have received an offer of 12 cents for 30,000 bales of the forthcoming hop crop. A number of growers are contracting at these figures, although it is generally believed that when the hop crop is ready for market it will command a still higher price.

Having been over the greater part of the country near Perrydale quite recently, a Polk county man feels justified in making the assertion that there will be a 90 per cent crop of all kinds of winter grain. Owing to the late cold rains and a few hot days, the winter wheat has turned slightly red in the low or wet spots, consequently the yield will be slightly diminished.

The parties who have been bonding land in the Polk county hills west of Salem, for the purpose of boring for oil, have not given up the scheme, and they will not give it up unless they are obliged to do so on account of the refusal of two or three farmers to sign contracts allowing them to proceed. They have now contracts for about 25,000 acres. It is said it would cost $15-$20,000 to bore two or three wells and make a thorough test of the district.

The Independent Home Makers' Company, a corporation formed by residents of northern Nebraska for the purpose of securing a tract of land in Oregon upon which to found a colony, has written to County Clerk Hall of Salem, for information as to desirable localities. The letter also requests that any persons having suitable land for sale send information regarding it to the company at Lincoln, Nebraska. The company will send one of their number to Oregon in a few weeks to select a place where they will locate.

dreds of men are at work there.

Mrs. Edson and Miss Bell Belcher not sent back here, much to the disappointment of the church, as well as others. He was stationed at Dallas. He is a good man and a great preacher, with a bright future. We thought they had drawn hard enough on Lafayette to build up Dallas, but it seems not so. Must draw one more. What is to be our loss will be great gain for Dallas. So mote it be. Rev. Hard of Portland is stationed here. He is married.

DIED.

REDMOND—Mrs. Elsie Redmond, wife of John Redmond, at their residence in illness of only a few days. She was a Sept. 29th 1865, and came with her parents to Oregon in 1872. On Nov. 12, 1884, she was married to the husband who survives her. Six children were born to her, three of whom have preceded her to the other shore. She leaves two boys and one girl, besides her parents, sister Jennie and brother William Minty of this city, and her brother James of Tacoma, and John of Silverton.

The funeral was held at the Cumberland Presbyterian church, of which she was a devoted member, on Tuesday, conducted by Rev. Fender. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the bereaved husband and children, and to the other relatives in their sad affliction.

The mock trial which was held under ciety was a thorough success. We are glad to know that our children are that this form of work will be continued.

departure Carlton loses a good citizen and his many friends will be sorry to see him leave.

Moving seems to be all the rage this week. Dr. Coffeen is moving into the Steward property recently vacated by Rev. Matlock and Rev. Day is taking possession of the premises recently purchased by Mrs. Swanson. This is one of the finest pieces of property in Carl-ton and will make an ideal parsonage.

Cook School Notes.

The boys are practicing to play baseball with the high school boys.

Eddie Sutherland has dropped his studies in the 8th grade, as he is going away.

It don't agree with some of the teachers to go fishing, and especially when their luck is "no good."

Miss Hope Sully has dropped her studies in the 8th grade as she is not able to attend on account of illness.

It will soon be time to make our second visit to the college observatory, as Jupiter will soon be here.

Work is so pressing that the Ben Franklin society has decided not to hold any more meetings until next year.

In the fall the pupils in Miss Williams' room gathered some chrysalides and now the butterflies are coming out, to the joy of the children.

Columbus School Notes.

The high school base ball nine played their first game this year, April 20th, against the college. The superior weight and strength of the college team gave them a decided advantage but the high school team played fast ball. Harry Woodrum, Clyde Akin, Guy Bradley and Hardy Ballinger did good work with the bat, but the college team did good fielding and held the score down to 9 to 5 in favor of the college.

School will soon be out, but while it lasts, make the best of it.

Don't forget the debate this (Friday) afternoon. Some say "there's going to be a hot time," so come and see.

It is said that Bob Bardette, the Burlington Hawkeye man, will address the coming meeting of the Chautauqua assembly at Oregon City.
