Beware of a Cough.

A cough is not a disease but a symptom. Consumption and bronchitis, which are the most dangerous and fatal diseases, have for their first indication a persistent cough, and if properly treated as soon as this cough appears are easily cured. Chamberlain's cough remedy has proven wonderfully successful, and gained its wide reputation and extensive sale by its success in curing the diseases which cause coughing. If it is not beneficial it will not cost you a cent. For sale by Howorth & Co.

George Cramer stopped in McMinnville Monday for a visit of one day with his many friends here. He was on his way from Hubbard, where he had temporarily filled the place of station agent, to Monmouth, where he will visit with and look after the needs of his aged mother, who is in feeble health. George is well pleased with southern Oregon and would be greatly pleased to be returned by the Southern Pacific company to Ashland.

On Thursday of last week, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Maris, there was a little family reunion to commemorate the 60th anniversary of Mr. Maris' birth, and although feeble old age is yet some distance from the oldest member of the party, there were four generations represented. These were Mr. Maris senior, who lately came out from Iowa with his wife and two daughters, Mr. Maris, his daughter, Mrs. Wm. Poole, and her little son.

On the return from Kansas the writer met three former Yamhill county citizens. At Concordia, Kansas, Orm C. Emery, a former editor at Newberg, and ex-county representative, elected in 1896, is located and is managing editor of the Empire. During the hour we had to spend with him, he looked the picture of contentment and seemed not to regret that he left this fair state, though some of Oregon's good things remained as lasting impressions with him. He is making an A I newspaper. Sam Soper, whom many will remember as a farmer in Gopher valley, and whose two brothers still reside on the old Warren farm, nine miles west, went down one station from his home at Riverton, Neb., in order to ride back with us and have a chat. He is conducting a general merchandise store as well as his large farm, and making a success of both. At The Dalles Sandusky Wilson, ex-city-councilman, was on the train as a traveling man for the McCormick Harvester Co., his territory being eastern Oregon and Washington. He declared that "farming is too hard work, John, and I got tired of it." He is doing a good business, and said he might stray down the Willamette valley before the summer is over. Robert Henderson, an older brother of our Watt Henderson, was visited at his home in Downs, Kansas. He looks so much like his brother that he would be recognized on sight as bearing that relationship. They have not seen each other, except one brief visit, since 1864. After two pleasant visits with him we know him to be a good man, and he always sends word to Watt that he ought to join the church, which is another proof of it. Kansas and Nebraska are veritable garden spots. Wheat was as high as the table and headed out. The state of Kansas alone will harvest a million and a half bushels of wheat, which M. B. Hendrick says is about one-fifth of the world's supply. Farmers who have been industrious are getting rich. "The cattle on a thousand hills are His," says the psalmist, but a visit to Kansas rather impresses one with the idea that there are a thousand cattle on every hill, as well as the fact that the Lord has loaned them for the time being to the farmers. These same people, many of whom voted the populist ticket in 1896, are keeping mighty still on politics, and really think a good deal of McKinley. It all goes to illustrate the fact that where there is prosperity there is contentment, and if things are coming your particular way, the government is all right.

Samuel Maris, late of Iowa, father of S. H. Maris, the gardener, has bought the block of land on B street, which has been owned and occupied by Harvey Walker the past six years. The price paid was $2000. Mr. Maris already occupies the property, and Mr. Walker has returned to his farm near McCoy, the place which has always seemed most like home to him, and whose boundaries he has recently enlarged by purchasing an adjoining farm of his son.

Truss

Satisfaction.

The important thing in buying a truss is that it shall fit. If it does not fit it is worse than none—it works harm. A low priced truss that suits the case is worth a dozen costly ones that do not. The truss bought of a dealer who knows how to fit you is a bargain, no matter what it costs.
 We have a large line of trusses and we know how to fit them. Our skill in fitting costs you nothing extra. We have never heard of our prices being beaten.

A dispatch from Forest Grove to the Oregonian yesterday stated that there were fifteen cases of smallpox in McMinnville. Indeed, one must go away from home to learn the news. The physicians of this city, who would naturally be called upon in case of sickness, report the health of McMinnville "distressing, ly good," and if there is a single case of smallpox in the city none of them has been able to find it.

Miss Josephine Barrett of Kirkwood, Ill., arrived in McMinnville last Friday, and is at present stopping with Mrs. Chas. Lewis. Miss Barrett was a former schoolmate with Sam Hibbs of this city. Her impressions of Oregon are favorable, and she may decide to call this her permanent home.

The D. of H. social Saturday evening was a very enjoyable occasion. The McMinnville orchestra rendered a number of selections during the evening. Miss Snyder, Miss Moran and Miss Mollie Patty each sang a solo, and the literary features consisted of a recitation by Mrs. Vinton and Mr. Jacobs. Refreshments were served in the hall, after which a social hour was spent by the guests. The lodge netted somewhere near $40 from admissions.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Harding and Miss Nellie Gardner intend to start next Monday for Buffalo, to attend the national editorial association and the exposition. Miss Gardner goes as a guest of the association and represents a newspaper. All will be absent until about August 1st, taking the opportunity during the trip to visit relatives in different parts of the country. They go via the Northern Pacific and C. M. & St. P. Here's bon voyage and a safe journey to you.

C. F. Mills was lately the recipient of a copy of a Manila newspaper, the New American, sent by his friend Robt. B. Mitchell, who is a lieutenant in the 4th regiment U. S. Volunteers. Among the items of the campaign in the Philippines the paper states that there were 1036 natives at Santo Thomas who took the oath of allegiance on a certain day, and that the surrender of impliments of war are frequent. This confirms the press reports as regards the cessation of hostilities in our new territory.

CHICAGO STORE

We haven't time to talk to you very much this week; we're kept on the jump every moment. The Chicago Store has always been noted for its successful sales, but this without doubt is the Banner Sale Of the Year.

Those of you who thus far have been unable to be waited on will kindly be patient; we have done our very best. We knew the prices which we made throughout the house would keep us busy, but we did not expect the immense throng from every part of the country that has packed our store from morning until night ever since the sale started.

We're adding new lines daily at Clearance Sale prices; better join the crowd at the

CHICAGO STORE.

Columbus School Notes.
 School closes today.
 The 10th grade have been making great preparation on their orations and if you want to hear something good you had better come out tonight and hear them orate.
 Last Tuesday afternoon was display day. The work of the eighth month and other maps, etc. were on display and looked quite well.
 Well, the time ends that I will bother people with my little contributions known as "Columbus School Notes." I have given items which I thought were of interest to the general public concerning school matters. This being the last time I will write, perhaps a general summary of our year's work would be somewhat acceptable. For nine months we, as teachers and pupils, have labored together and for the most part the year has been a profitable one. Miss Hembree has managed her little ones so well that if it were not for us seeing them upon the grounds we would scarcely have known that there was a primary room in our building. Miss Green has had the 3d and 4th grades and has done fine work. Miss Moran has had the 5th and 6th grades and great credit should be given her for managing her scholars so well. Miss Bird, who has had a part of the 4th and 5th grades a part of the year and the 10th grade in two very difficult studies, rhetoric and English literature, for about five months, deserves great credit. The 10th grade feel very grateful to her for the work she has done for them. Miss Akin has had the entire 7th grade and has done efficient work in the school room and has helped Prof. Whensley ever it was necessary. Prof. Bristow has had the 6th and 7th in all except two studies and has had general supervision of the schools. The principalship is a hard place to fill because nearly all grievances must be settled by him. The 10th grade are through, or will be after tonight. The future 10th grade have another year and perhaps a harder one than the one just closing, but with the new course of study and a—different teacher they will be able to graduate all right in 1902.

Reduced Rates to the East.
 Account Buffalo exposition, the Burlington route is naming a low rate of fare which enables passengers to visit the exposition and other eastern points at greatly reduced rates. Before making other arrangements call at our office or write for full particulars. R. W. Foster, Ticket Agent, Burlington Route, Corner Third and Stark Streets, Portland, Oregon.

"It is with a good deal of pleasure and satisfaction that I recommend Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy," says Druggist A. W. Sawtelle, of Hartford, Conn. "A lady customer, seeing the remedy exposed for sale on my show case, said to me: 'I really believe that medicine saved my life the past summer while at the shore,' and she became so enthusiastic over its merits that I at once made up my mind to recommend it in the future. Recently a gentleman came into my store so overcome with colic pains that he sank at once to the floor. I gave him a dose of this remedy which helped him. I repeated the dose and in fifteen minutes he left my store smilingly informing me that he felt as well as ever." Sold by Howorth & Co.

Settlements Being Made.

The commissioners have been in session this week for final settlement with officers on the report of the experts. Ex-Sheriff Henderson, after deducting all offsets, paid into the county treasury $946.72, and took a receipt in full. Ex-Sheriff Henry's accounts are being canvassed, and some deductions and concessions are to be made, and settlement of balance will probably follow. It seems to be conceded that Ex-Sheriff Warren is out on the statute of limitations, and that Treasurer Rhude's accounts will be protected.

Wednesday afternoon was the event of a social gathering at the home of Mrs. J. H. Cook, of the members of the Baptist Sunday school home department in honor of Mrs. R. W. King, who soon goes to her new home in Pendleton. After an interesting program the superintendent, Mrs. Cook, in behalf of the department, presented Mrs. King with a silver bread plate as a token of the high esteem which they hold for her. The affair was a surprise, and in response Mrs. King spoke touchingly of the pleasant associations in the work. They regret deeply to lose her, and feel that their loss will be the gain of those she goes among.

Lester Daniels has gone from The Dalles to Pendleton, where he will be employed at barbering.

Hon. Thos. H. Tongue will address the graduates of the high school at the opera house tonight. There are eleven graduates, viz. Floyd B. Patten, Millicent Reynolds, Alfred Stephens, Christine Settlers, Stella Webster, Mabel Reynolds, Lenore Settlers, Lola Kuns, Vernon Derby, Myrtle Stewartson and Marie Gilbert.
