The decree has been pronounced and the mosquito must go. A village improvement society in Connecticut has held a special meeting to devise ways and means to kill off this year's crop of the tuncful insect that carries a hypodermic apparatus for spreading disease.

Among the diversions at a picnic recently given by New York anarchists was a squad of riflemen who blazed away at wooden dummies representing kings. To make the scene more realistic they should have had hangsmen and headsmen executing dummy king-killers. The occupation of an anarchist cannot be a very pleasant one.

Some one has started the story that the railroad interests of the country are to be consolidated into one solid corporation and sold to the government for ten billion dollars. Those people who have been advocating government ownership of railroads will, if they take this proposed financial deal seriously, be gratified at the prospect of government ownership, but they will be apt to object to the price asked for the property.

Geo. E. Chamberlain, conceded to be the speediest war-horse in the democratic corral, is being groomed for governor next year. But a nomination ten months hence might mean two different results. If the democrats are really in earnest in seeking Mr. Chamberlain's nomination for the campaign they will choose the path of wisdom and not push his candidacy too soon. Inman "has slain his thousands" of republicans, "and Chamberlain his tens of thousands."

The question of ensilage follows in the train of the newly awakened interest in dairying in this county, and the rains falling at the time of clover harvest have acted with emphasis upon the admonition to the farmers to build silos so that their crops could be taken care of without danger of loss by reason of unseasonable rains. With silos, the hay can be stored direct from the mower, and while the clouds are weeping the modern clover grower need not be longing for sunshine.

Chicago has now produced the nickle-in-the-slot photo. You walk up to a little machine about six feet high and four feet wide and drop a nickle into a slot. A shutter opens and your picture is taken on a small sheet of tin which falls into a chemical solution, causing the picture to be developed; then it drops into a pan of clear water which washes the plate, and it falls on an apparatus which forces it into a little brass frame. A bell rings and you pull out your picture all complete, the whole operation having taken not more than twenty seconds. This is said to be the only automatic photographing machine in the world, and Chicago is the city of its production.

Harry Gilmore, son of a colonel in the regular army, and a candidate for admission to the United States military academy at West Point, has challenged his tutor, the Rev. William Tatlock of the Presbyterian church at Saranac Lake, N. Y., to fight a duel, because of differences leading out of an argument upon a question in mathematics. The problem presented was "How much greater than three-fourths is four-fourths?" Young Gilmore, after deliberating over the problem for some time, gave the answer as one-third. His tutor disagreed with him, holding that four-fourths must naturally be one-fourth greater than three-fourths, whereupon an exciting discussion ensued, and the challenge to deadly combat resulted. All Saranac Lake is so much interested in the affair that the problem in mathematics has been completely lost to view. Yet they may entertain a human longing after all to see a question of fractions definitely settled, and to see it settled with pistols, swords, or axes.

Senator Simon has at last consented to do something remarkable. He will climb Mount Hood next month, this feat being one of the preliminary requirements to membership in the society of the Mazamas.

Under a new law passed by the last Florida legislature, insanity was made a ground for divorce. Henry M. Flagler, the standard oil magnate, at whose dictation the bill was framed, has recently applied for a divorce from his wife, who is incurably insane. Flagler is the richest man in Florida. He married his wife in 1883 before he had amassed millions. She was poor. When wealth came, the Flaglers had a mansion on Fifth avenue, a home in Mamaroneck, Florida, another in St. Augustine, owned half the famous hotels in Florida, and cruised in a magnificent yacht. Now it is said that Flagler spends $1000 a month to keep his wife in the luxury in which she lives at a private sanitarium. The story goes that every night the demented wife adorns herself, expecting a visit from her husband; eagerly waiting for a coming step, sure of a return to her home; but again groping in the blackness of mental eclipse. But he, dreaming of happiness in another marriage, while the unfortunate wife is dragging out the slow years in the sanitarium, has laws passed empowering him to withdraw gracefully from the marriage contract, forgetting the loyalty that pledges itself for "better or for worse," and dishonoring it by a statutory provision to make a misfortune, over which the victim had no control, a just cause for striking out the pledge "in sickness and in health," and placing marriage itself upon a single business basis.

MARRIED.

At the residence of the bride's parents, Mabel, youngest daughter of Thomas and Amy J. Brown of North Yamhill, Yamhill county, Oregon, and Charles A. Elliott of Kilchis, Tillamook county, Oregon, Rev. D. H. Leach officiating. The ceremony was the occasion of a family gathering of the bride's family, of whom there were present Mr. and Mrs. Brown, Messrs. Henry C. Brown, Charles H. Brown, James E. Brown, Thomas D. Brown, Misses Lillian C. Brown and Edith E. Brown, of North Yamhill; T. B. Handley, Mrs. Iola Handley, T. B. Handley, Jr., C. A. E. Handley, Mrs. Belle Handley and G. D. Handley, of Tillamook; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Robison, Rev. R. Robison, George C. Robison, John H. Robison, City Robison, Misses Pearl Robison, Mary Robison and Helen Robison, of North Yamhill; Mr. and Mrs. Hart S. Robison, Miss E. Robison and Ruth Robison, of Amity, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Handley, Bird D. Handley, Ernest J. Handley and Lizzie C. Handley of McMinnville; Mrs. Walter J. Spencer and Miss Jessie C. Spencer, of Lopez Island, Wash.; Mrs. Dollie Williams of North Yamhill, and Miss Belle Burton of Tillamook. The friends of the family present were Misses Mary and Della Stout, Misses Ida and Lena Fegenkopf, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McKern, Dr. and Mrs. Kuykendall, Misses Lizzie Glandon, May Stoddard, Elsie Perkins, Otis Perkins, Esto VanOrsdal and Augusta Burg.

The guests were all assembled on the shady lawn, when promptly at noon, to the strains of Mendelssohn, came the clergyman, followed by the bride and groom, supported by the bride's twin brother, Mr. Thomas D. Brown, and her cousin, Miss Belle Burton, the bride in one of those appropriate costumes white and shimmery, and to the excited masculine mind an indescribable dream of beauty. They moved in solemn procession to a natural bower, where the impressive ceremony of the M. E. church was performed with due solemnity. After a short season of congratulations and hilarity and a dinner, the bride and groom were escorted to the railway station by half a dozen carriage-loads of their relatives and friends, and in a mimic snow storm of rose leaves, took their first start in the journey of married life under all sorts of favorable portents, and followed by every kind wish that heart could desire.

Married—June 26th at the residence of the bride's parents in Happy valley, Mr. W. J. Leever of Linn county and Miss Lota A. Edmiston, Rev. Geo. W. Fender officiating. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hibbs and daughter, Miss Jessal Reid, Miss Laura Powell of Scio, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Scott, Misses May Lambert and Lena Stilwell of Dayton, and Misses Maudie Hopfield and Jennie Draper. A number of handsome presents were bestowed by friends. The dinner was sumptuous, all the ladies of the Edmiston household being excellent cooks. The bride and groom drove to Salem Wednesday afternoon, and took the train for their home near Scio, where the groom is a prosperous farmer. The best wishes of many friends go with them.

Prof. S. S. Duncan has purchased the Louie Gronstrom residence—one of the rare bargains lying around loose in McMinnville. $600 was the price paid. He will move up from Dayton just after the Fourth.

A pleasant and profitable meeting was held on Wednesday afternoon at the Baptist church. Mrs. Hopkins, a returned missionary from India, who with her family is visiting Miss Skinner, gave a very interesting talk on the women of India and the mission work among them. Several curios were exhibited and numerous questions answered.

LOCAL NEWS.

See our Fourth of July page.

Dayton is planning for a very interesting celebration on the Fourth.

Geo. A. Prentiss, formerly county superintendent, has removed to Portland from Salem.

Miss Valeria Patty of Snohomish, Wash., will visit her home in this city during July.

I. C. Rood arrived home Saturday from a visit to his son at Watsonville, California.

Graham and Martin, the McMinnville base ball battery, are playing ball in eastern Oregon for a few weeks.

Miss Rose Trumbull will visit her home in Astoria, leaving this week. Her health is considerably improved.

The ladies of the Woodmen Circle have changed their time of meeting from the second and fourth Mondays of the month to the first and third Fridays.

Eli Wanzaman will return next week to Mr. Cormick, Wash., having about recovered from the injury received by a heavy timber falling upon him.

Scott Wright is constructing a new stable adjoining his soda works, to be 24 x 40 feet, with 10 foot shed addition. Marion Rowland and J. A. Frisbie are doing the work.

Isadore Ertle, who years ago operated the brewery at this place, and later has lived on a mountain ranch, is very ill at the residence of Mr. Barnum, of bowel trouble.

The Oregon editors now in the east, when at New York City, had 15 hours on the Atlantic. What do you think of that? Some of them have never seen the Pacific, living within 50 miles of it.

The Whiteson creamery was started Tuesday upon a supply of 240 pounds of cream, and is making butter every day. R. O. Jones is a partner in the creamery. He is milking at present 25 cows, and is building a large silo to provide suitable feed for his dairy herd. S. E. Howard, his neighbor, is also erecting a silo on his farm.

The old soldiers who attended the encampment at Forest Grove report a good time. They elected Capt. Sladen of Portland, state commander, and Mrs. Emma Galloway was chosen president of the Relief Corps. This is regarded as a specially strong team of officers. Next year's encampment was captured by Astoria. There were 144 soldier votes present.

The Reporter is in receipt of a handsomely illustrated booklet entitled, "Health and Pleasure Along the Line of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company." The book contains a number of views of picturesque mountain, river and ocean scenery, and it is all described in an accurate and pleasing style. Persons contemplating an outing this summer should have a copy of this souvenir, as it will enable you to decide where to spend your summer vacation. The book may be procured free from any agent of the O. R. & N. Co., or on receipt of a two cent postage stamp, from A. L. Craig, General Passenger Agent, Portland, Oregon.

At the Macalee picnic at Amity on Wednesday, the crowd was very small, compared with former picnics at that place. The parade was given in the morning, but there were not many Macalees in line. The Salem military band furnished good music, Rev. J. F. Day of Carlton made an address, and the Hobbs-Pattay quartet and Annie and Alvena Querner gave vocal selections. There were a few foot races, and the boy who climbed the greased pole gave it a shake and brought down his prize. There were three stands on the ground. Eighteen prizes were offered on the events, all given by business men of McMinnville, very few of which will be demanded, as the events were not "pulled off." A ball in the evening closed the program.

NEWBERG.

Frank Morris of Kalama Sundayed in town.

A. L. Stephens is in Washington looking after business interests.

Mrs. W. W. Nelson is at home after two weeks' visit in Portland.

Roy H. Hurley wheeled up from Portland and remained a day or so in town.

Miss Margaret Ingles has gone to Butte, Montana, for a summer vacation.

R. B. Linville and family are in Forest Grove, attending the G. A. R. encampment.

Miss Martin of Tacoma is the guest of her friend, Mrs. J. C. Porter, for the summer months.

Mrs. Wm. Clemens visited with her son Henry and family last week. She returned to Salem on Saturday.

Miss Aggie G. Gould is in Dallas to attend the banquet given by the Shakespear club, of which she is a member.

Mrs. Geo. Metcalf of Salem, returned to her home on Monday, after a visit with relatives and friends in Newberg.

The past few days, Dr. G. W. McConnell of Baker City, has been greeting old friends and looking after his property.

The Masons and Eastern Star gave a very pleasant social on Saturday last. Music, a farce, ice cream and cake were the main features of the evening's entertainment.

Dr. Horace J. Littlefield left here on Tuesday for a six-weeks trip to Alaska. His practice will be attended here by Drs. Cook & Cable of McMinnville, one of whom will stay in Newberg.

How many mothers realize that when the baby's advent is expected they need strength for two instead of one. Women, weak, nervous, "just able to drag around," find themselves confronted with coming maternity. They have not strength enough for themselves, how can they have strength to give a child? We don't look for the birth of strong ideas from a weak mind. Why should we expect the birth of strong children from weak mothers?

The way to ensure health and strength to mother and child is to use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription as a preparative for motherhood. It brings the mother's strength up to the requirements of nature, so that she has strength to give her child. It nourishes the nerves and so quiets them. It encourages a natural appetite and induces refreshing sleep. "Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong and sick women well. There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription" and it is free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

"I wish to let you know the great benefit my wife derived through taking your 'Favorite Prescription,'" writes Mr. Robert Hardin, of Brandon, Manitoba, Box 235. "It was when her baby came. We had heard so much of your medicine that my wife decided to try it. I may say my wife's age was thirty-three and this was her first child. She commenced taking 'Favorite Prescription' five months before her child was born. We have a fine healthy girl, and we believe that this was mainly owing to the 'Favorite Prescription,' taken faithfully according to directions. We shall certainly recommend it wherever we can."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A Pretty June Wedding.

A very pretty June wedding occurred yesterday at high noon when Miss Edith Miriam, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Belt of Dallas, Or., was married to Mr. William Harrison Ormsby, of Fort Worth, Texas, in the presence of about 50 relatives and invited guests from Salem, Albany and Dallas. The marriage took place at the residence of Judge and Mrs. Geo. H. Burnett in this city. Promptly on the stroke of noon, Mrs. Burnett, the bride's aunt, began playing the sweet strains of Mendelssohn's weddingmarch and the bridal pair descended the broad, open stairway, at the foot of which they were met by the Judge himself, who performed the ceremony in a very impressive manner. The hall where the marriage took place was handsomely decorated with crimson rambler roses, the mantels being fairly banked with them, while here and there hung suspended from the grill work Indian baskets filled with heliotrope and pinks. In the dining room long garlands of white carnations hung from the chandelier to the corners of the table on which was a large bouquet of pink carnations. The bride was attractively gowned in white organdie, trimmed in valenciennes lace. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and maiden hair fern. The groom was dressed in the conventional black. Immediately after the ceremony and the congratulations, Mrs. Burnett served an elaborate wedding lunch. The bride's bouquet was caught by Miss Lora White. Mr. and Mrs. Ormsby left by the afternoon train for Fort Worth, Texas, their future home, where he holds a responsible position in the freight department with the Chicago, Rock Island & Texas Railway Co. En route they will visit relatives and friends in Salt Lake City and Colorado Springs, and will be at home to their friends after July 1st.—Statesman, June 20.

Crop notes—A. M. Waddell, a conservative judge, thinks the wheat prospect fairly good, and greatly improved in the last three weeks. David Stout, of the Star mills, says spring grain promises fine, but he is not so hopeful of the fall wheat. He says the spring crop is about one third of the acreage, and generally spring wheat makes the best flour. He pronounces the acreage of oats large, and looking exceedingly fine.

SORES AND ULCERS.

Sores and Ulcers never become chronic unless the blood is in poor condition—it is sluggish, weak and unable to throw off the poisons that accumulate in it. The system must be relieved of the unhealthy matter through the sore, and great danger to life would follow should it heal before the blood has been made pure and healthy and all impurities eliminated from the system. S. S. S. begins the cure by first cleansing and invigorating the blood, building up the general health and removing from the system a constant drain upon the system.

When this has been accomplished the discharge gradually ceases, and the sore or ulcer heals. It is the tendency of these old indolent sores to grow worse and worse, and eventually to destroy the bones. Local applications, while soothing and to some extent alleviate pain, cannot reach the seat of the trouble. S. S. S. does, and no matter how apparently hopeless your condition, even though your constitution has broken down, it will bring relief when nothing else can. It supplies the rich, pure blood necessary to heal the sore and nourish the debilitated, diseased body.

Mr. J. B. Talbert, Lock Box 245, Winona, Miss., says: "Six years ago my leg from the knee to the foot was one solid sore. Several physicians treated me and I made two trips to Hot Springs, but found no relief. I was induced to try S. S. S., and it made a complete cure. I have been perfectly well ever since."

S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known—contains no poisonous minerals to ruin the digestion and add to, rather than relieve your sufferings. If your flesh does not heal readily when scratched, bruised, or cut, your blood is in bad condition, and any ordinary sort is apt to become chronic.
