There is nothing like Asthmalene. It brings instant relief, even in the worst cases. It cures when all else fails.

The Rev. C. F. WELLS, of Villa Ridge, Ill., says: "Your trial bottle of Asthmalene received in good condition. I cannot tell you how thankful I feel for the good derived from it. I was a slave, chained with a painful sore throat and Asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, Asthma, and thought you had overruled your selfishness, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment, the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full-size bottle."

Rev. Dr. Morris Wechsler, Rabbi of the Cong. B'nai Israel, New York, Jan. 3, 1901.

Dr. Taft Bros. Medicine Co., Gentlemen: Your Asthmalene is an excellent remedy for Asthma and Hay Fever, and its composition alleviates all troubles which combine with Asthma. Its success is astonishing and wonderful.

A CHALLENGE.

"Yamhill Against The World."

Is a common expression, well known over the entire Pacific coast, and the directors for the McMinnville Street Fair and Carnival for October 3, 4 and 5 of the present year propose to make the claim good, and to put up money on the nine following propositions, against any county or district on earth of approximate area and population, covering five years' exhibits, beginning with present year 1901, and ending with the Lewis and Clark Exposition of 1905. This means business, and managers of exhibitions and fairs are invited to correspond to arrange terms and conditions:

1. Best and greatest variety of wild fruits and flowers.
 2. Best and greatest variety of cultivated fruits and flowers.
 3. Best and greatest variety of vegetable products and hops.
 4. Best and greatest variety of grains and grasses.
 5. Best and greatest variety of live stock and poultry.
 6. Most artistic display of products.
 7. Best and greatest variety of game fish, lumber and building material.
 8. Most healthful, equable and pleasant climate.
 9. One hundred of the most beautiful young women; beauty of complexion, face, form, deportment and physical excellence.
- United States army rules governing admission to the volunteer service to apply as far as may be to this competition.

On this last proposition the challenge is to the whole world and the world to come, not excepting Kentucky, and on any terms from mumble peg to gatling guns.

"YOU GIT UP!"

There's lots of folks that has good times,
There's lots that never does;
But the ones that don't like morning naps
Is the meanest ever was.

Than to go to Barnum's circus or
With pip for it's wind-up;
'Taint half so sweet's th' nap Pa spoils
When he yells, "You git up!"

I'd rather lay in bed and snooze
Jest one small minit more
In the morning when the sunshine
Comes a creeping o'er the floor,
To wake me with a switch,
Or to own a bulldog pup,
The meanest thing Pa ever said
Wuz, "Come now—you git up!"

I like to go in swimming,
And I like to play baseball;
I like to fight and fly a kite,
'N' I sometimes like to hawl;
But then there fore winks of sleep
Pa tries to interrupt
Is better 'n all. It breaks my heart
When Pa yells, "You git up!"

I'd stand the hurt and ache and pain
And all the smart and itch
Of having him turn the bed clothes down
To wake me with a switch,
Ef he'd only jest go 'way
And let me finish up
The nap I started jest before
He yelled out, "You git up!"

You bet when I git growed up big
'N' rich and old as Pa,
'N' never haf to go to school,
Nor work nor stand no jaw,
I'll sleep all day and all night, too,
And only jest git up
When I git 'nough sleep to suit me
Ef all the world yells, "You git up!"
—Joe Kerr, in New York Herald.

Carnival at Portland.

The business men of Portland have subscribed $15,000 to guarantee the expenses of a carnival to be held in the exposition building from Sept. 18 to Oct. 19.

A notable exhibit of all the industries of the Pacific northwest will be made in the big exposition building, and athletic exercises, a horse show and a military tournament will be held on Multnomah Field adjoining. Two full military bands have been engaged, and there will be many fine features in the amusement line.

The carnival is in charge of a committee comprising 28 representative business men, of which Gen. Owen Summers is president, I. N. Fleischer vice president, A. B. Steinbach treasurer, and J. D. Mann secretary.

With such men at the head of the affair the carnival is sure to be well worth visiting.

ELSEWHERE IN OREGON.

It is expected that a million pounds of prunes will be dried in the vicinity of Dallas this fall.

The poplar trees in The Dalles and Portland will be girdled because the roots are injuring the sewers.

Wadhams & Co., wholesale grocers of Portland, have presented the Hillsboro base ball team with new uniforms.

Lillian, eldest daughter of State Supt. Ackerman, was married on Monday to Edmund F. Carleton, principal of the schools of Joseph, Oregon.

Mrs. Kessler of Washington county, near Glencoe, filled the shoe on her left foot full of boiling hot water last week. Skin grafting will have to be resorted to.

More fruit dryers are being built in Benton county this year than during all the past. One of them is expected to require the services of 200 persons during the drying season.

Prof. E. D. Ressler, late superintendent of Eugene schools, has remembered the high school with a gift that will be valued highly by the students for years to come. It is a library of 1000 volumes, all books of exceptional value to students.

The city of Hillsboro under a provision of the franchise permitting construction of the waterworks, has made purchase of the plant after ten years of private ownership. The price paid was $24,500. This added to $10,000 bonded indebtedness makes her total debt $34,500.

W. A. Miller, of the Oregon mining exhibit, has been entertaining Thos. A. Edison, the great inventor. Mr. Edison has become greatly interested in Oregon's nickel mines. He has taken down every detail as to locality, extent of deposits, transportation facilities, topography of the country and geological age. He has inquired into timber and water supplies. Owners of the mines and their postoffice addresses have also been listed. Mr. Edison has sent one of his best men to talk with Mr. Miller, and Oregon nickel mines will soon receive some attention.

The new crop of potatoes is moving at an unusually lively rate for so early in the season. Many carload lots have been shipped to the upper country and Puget sound. Dealers are paying 90 cents per cental, or about $1.10 per sack and growers are hastening to get as many as possible off their hands at this rate, which is better than $1.25 in the spring, for it saves a lot of hauling and loss by shrinkage. California is also shipping large quantities of potatoes south to Texas and contiguous territory. Potato growers in this section say their potatoes will not be so large as usual on account of lack of rain, but the quality will be A 1.

McKinley Mitchell and wife of Gervais have just returned from an extended visit to points in the east. Mr. Mitchell made some inquiries in regard to the hop market, as a matter of course. He found that some of the dealers were bitten last year. They bought at good prices, expecting to make large profits, but did not realize their full expectations. They are not now disposed to make deals for the new crop. They want to see what the English growers turn off. The New York crop will be short, and if the English crop does not turn out well prices will be high. If it does turn out well prices will be fair anyway. Mr. Mitchell says there will be a good market for all of our fruit, potatoes and other produce this year.

John Hult, a Hood River bicycle repair man, has been granted a patent on a cushion handle bar invention. Mr. Hult has made application also for two other inventions—a cushion seat supporter, working on the same principle as the cushion handle bar, and a new sprocket coaster brake. This coaster brake is similar to those now in use, only that it is applied to the sprocket wheel and permits the revolving of the chain. Its construction is simple, containing but nine pieces, while the brake now used has 22. Being attached to the sprocket there is necessarily less friction and the brake will last the lifetime of the wheel. Mr. Hult has some good inventions and should be able to realize considerable money from the sale of the same.

U. S. Consul Geo. W. Colvig, of Grant's Pass, has arrived at Barranquilla, Colombia, South America, and writes to the Observer as follows: "We arrived here safe and well on July 5th and found the city to be a very nice one and one of the most healthy in South America. It is on sandy soil and there is no marsh land anywhere near it, as it is built on low rolling sand hills. It is a large place and is built of brick, stone and cement. Many of the buildings are three-story and the streets are clean and dry, except when it is raining, and then the sand is simply wet for a few hours. We are stopping at a first-class English hotel, and you will be surprised when I tell you that it only costs us six dollars per month each in U. S. gold, and that you have as good fare as you would get in any Oregon hotel outside of Portland. We are today fixing up sleeping and living rooms in the U. S. Consular building, and I think it is one of the coolest and most agreeable locations in the city."

Hop News.

Talking about hops, it has been reported that the Horst yards will not yield a half crop, because of the high trellis work. But the men in charge here deny the report. They say there will be a large crop in the Beak yard, which has the high trellises. The Dove yards will not have a full crop, but it is on account of the weather and soil conditions, and not due to the high wiring. The theory of the high wiring is to let in the sunlight and thus mature a good quality. Some of the growers think that neither the wires nor the poles should be too high. They say it does not give the vines sufficient opportunity to form hops because too much strength is required in climbing. But the managers of the Horst yards still think the high trellises are the thing, and while they may not prove especially advantageous this year, they will be just the thing in wet seasons. —Statesman.

The Two-Minute Trotter.

Recently at Columbus, Ohio, the famous stallion Ceresus trotted a mile in 2.02 1/4. He trotted the first half in 59 1/4 seconds or less than a minute. The feat, after a gradual lowering of the trotting record for 95 years, makes it certain that the horse will yet be born that will trot a mile in two minutes, a fact that horsemen a generation or two ago refused to believe. The only question in the matter is as to when the event will happen, whether in a few or in a score of years. The following figures show the gradual development in the past century on the trotting track:

1806—Yankee	2 59
1810—Boston Horse	2 48 1/2
1834—Edwin Forrest	2 31 1/2
1845—Lady Suffolk	2 29 1/2
1859—Flora Temple	2 19 1/2
1867—Dexter	2 17 1/2
1879—St. Julian	2 12 1/2
1885—Maud S	2 08 1/2
1894—Alix	2 03 1/2
1900—The Abbot	2 03 1/2
1901—Ceresus	2 02 1/4

AMITY.

J. W. Briedwell, Jr., has sold a half interest in his elevator at this place to E. W. Rea.

Enough threshing has been done in this vicinity to show that the yield of wheat will be fully up to the average, some fields have averaged over thirty bushels to the acre, and those were not among the best.

Friday evening Elder Cane, pastor of the Christian church at this place, lost the little finger of his right hand by getting it caught in the elevator of a sacker at Roth's threshing machine, while trying to put on a belt. He was brought to town and the member was taken off close to the hand.

C. E. Stone sustained a broken ankle which will lay him up for some time. Saturday morning while working with a hay baler, he slipped and let a bale of hay fall on his right leg, which broke the ankle joint. He was brought to town and the fracture was reduced, and it is thought he will get along all right, yet the fracture is a bad one.

Two Far-Reaching Effects of Strike.

The big strike in San Francisco has had its effect on the lumbering industry in Astoria and the surrounding country. While the effect in the city has been beneficial, in the logging districts it has been detrimental.

The strike has caused one peculiar state of affairs, in that it is possible for some of the San Francisco fruit canneries to receive boxes from Astoria mills, while they are unable to get supplies from San Francisco box factories, located, in some instances, not more than 100 yards away from the cannery. This is due to the fact that there are no rail connections between the San Francisco canneries and factories, while all the canneries have sidetracks from the Southern Pacific railroads, over which boxes from outside points are hauled. The Clatsop mill company has a big force of men at work manufacturing boxes, and the daily output is about 4000. All boxes not required for the local demand are shipped south to the bay city.

As a result of the condition of the San Francisco lumber market, all the logging camps in Pacific county, Wash., with four exceptions, have been closed down, and one of the four is expected to suspend operations within thirty days. Another cause for the close-down is that A. M. Simpson, the millionaire lumber dealer, is building a new sawmill, and there will be lighter demand for logs until this mill is finished. The closing down of the Washington camps will throw out of employment for a time a large number of men.

It is thought that the lumber industry will be much more active in Clatsop and Tillamook counties when the Nehalem river is improved. The settlers have remonstrated against the leasing of the river to the Wheeler lumber company, but President Vosberg and Attorney Magers will personally call on the farmers and endeavor to show them that the improvement proposed by the company will be a good thing for everybody concerned. The extension of the Northern into that country is now regarded as a matter of much uncertainty.
