Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all dry, irritating, fumy, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

M. LaFollet at Wheatland, who will call and get them free of charge. All exhibits must be in by today or Saturday.

News was brought to town on Wednesday by N. A. Harris of the death of Mrs. Barbara Hoffman, wife of Samuel Hoffman of Weibost. She was found dead in bed at 5 a. m. by her husband, as he awoke. The lady had been subject to paralysis in the lower limbs, and death was probably due to a paralytic stroke. Deceased was about 51 years old. Coroner Chapman visited the home on Wednesday.

Strayed or Stolen.

From Thos. H. Tongue's place near Hillsboro, two standard bred mares, one bay, 4 years old, star in forehead, one white hind foot. The other solid brown, about 6 or 7 years old, weight about 1050. Both were raised in Polk county and are probably traveling in that direction. Suitable reward to finder. Notify T. H. Tongue, Hillsboro, or J. N. Hart, Dallas.

Interesting Church Services.

On Sunday next, at 3:30 p. m. Rev. M. J. Hickey, pastor of the St. James Catholic church will lecture on the "Vesper service on the Presidential post-urtem, and the crudities of our modern high civilization." Admittance free, and all cordially invited. High mass at 10:30 a. m. and Sunday school at 2:30 o'clock. Father Hickey is making very much needed church improvements, to defray the expenses of which, the lady members of the congregation will have refreshment booths, during the McMinnville carnival and thus help to make as big a stir as possible, and contribute to the general merriment of our flourishing town.

 Our sincerest sympathy goes out to John Farmer of Bellevue in the tragic death of his son, Hugh, on Monday. The boy was driving a load of wheat to Sheridan. One sack started to slip off, and in attempting to catch and hold it, he was dragged off the wagon and under the wheels, where his skull was crushed. Death came in a few minutes.
 Henry Eccleston says he will have hard scraping to get together two-thirds the amount of hops he harvested last year, and says this condition is general over Yamhill county. He predicted it early in the season when everybody else was boasting that their crop would be bigger than ever. He wonders why they do it, as it certainly can do them no good.

Owing to the death of the president and the memorial services occupying so much of the attention of the people, the executive committee has decided to allow new candidates for queen of the carnival to be voted for, and to postpone the closing of the polls until Monday evening, September 23d, at nine o'clock. They do this at the request and suggestion of several parties, and it is a wise move.
 Beautiful and deeply spiritual memorial services were held Sunday evening at the Methodist church. Pastor Atkinson took for his theme "The Dead President," and spoke eloquently and grandly. The attendance was large, and all listened with absorbed attention. The church was nicely decorated and special music by the choir has called forth much favorable comment.

S. Howorth, the druggist, assayed to take a buggy ride on Sunday, and had driven up to his residence for Mrs. Howorth. The horse he was driving was hard-mouthed, the bride broke and set the animal to kicking and running. Mr. Howorth stayed with the beast as far as Johnson & Neal's blacksmith shop, where he was thrown out, receiving severe bruises upon the head and back, and remaining in a condition of unconsciousness for some time.
 Hon. W. L. Adams of Hood River sends us a long communication setting forth his views of the assassination, which unfortunately is too long for the space we have at hand. His patriotic soul revolts in strong language, as we knew it would, at the dastardly crime, and while he laments sincerely the loss to the country, he is philosopher enough to see that the ultimate result will be to throw the vipers of anarchy from the bosom of the nation, and bring forth the dawning of a new era of peace, prosperity and national happiness. Truly, all great reforms seem to have their birth in blood and sacrifice.

Dr. T. G. Brownson, president of Oakland, Calif., Baptist college, and ex-president of McMinnville college, has been in the city the past week, and occupied the Baptist pulpit Sunday evening. Now, as always, he preaches forceful and strongly intellectual sermons. His subject Sunday evening was, "A servant of Jesus Christ," from Paul's opening remark in the first chapter of Romans. He drew from the assassination of President McKinley the analogy between the disposition of foreigners to construe liberty into license and disobey the laws to which they swear allegiance, and the easy tendency of christians to disobey, neglect and overlook their solemn vows. Dr. Brownson preaches the gospel in its purity, and many friends were pleased to again hear and meet him.

 Nels Christenson of Newberg informed us Saturday that his new grist mill had been put to the test for daily capacity and had come right up to the designed notch of one hundred barrels per day.
 Our neighboring town of Newberg looks very proud decked out with new arc lights. Her business men report the best times right now that they have seen for years, and all are making some money.
 S. F. Yocom holds an auction sale today, at his farm near Bellevue. The property to be sold consists of cattle, hogs, horses and farm implements. Mr. Yocom will devote his whole energy to the meat market at Sheridan.

There will be three public performances on the street each day of the carnival, trapeze acrobats and jugglers. Ten-cent shows signed for and promised are Edison's projectoscope, menagerie cage of wild animals, Newman's minstrels, and a vaudeville show in the opera house. A balloon ascension and parachute jump are negotiating for.
 Miss Eva Martin is too busy turning out stylish trimmed hats to prepare for an opening, but has placed on display this week a fine assortment of pattern hats, and will bring out new ideas all through the season, so customers may be certain of finding the newest and best designs always in stock.
 The Queen of Hayti, the big musical comedy which opens at the Opera house, Monday, Sept. 23d, is vastly different from any similar style of attraction that will be seen here this season. It numbers 48 of the best colored entertainers in America, each of them popular in their respective lines. Unlike most farce comedies, the Queen of Hayti has a plot sufficiently intricate to admit of many surprises. A number of high-class vaudeville specialties are introduced and worked in so nicely that you think they are a part of the real plot. The action of the comedy takes place on the isles of Hayti, during the war with the French in 1804, and the eccentric types of character found there are pictured. The action is quick, the dialogue and situations amusing throughout, and the construction is excellent. The company presenting the play is one of the strongest colored organizations traveling. Remember the date, Monday evening.

PRESCRIPTION VALUE.

A prescription that lacks in the least essential is worse than worthless. It may be positively dangerous—a peril to the life of patient. It may defeat the doctor's efforts, and it may even retard the recuperative forces of nature. To have any value whatever, a prescription must be compounded from drugs that are absolutely pure and of standard potency. It must be exactly what the doctor intended it should be. If it is this, it is certainly worth the price we will charge you. Our prescription service is right, both in quality and cost.

 Mr. and Mrs. John Williamson have removed to Portland, in order to be with their daughter. We regret to lose these fine elderly people as citizens. George Murton came up to assist the moving on Wednesday.

McMinnville people: Do you know that this city is going to have one of the biggest crowds that ever assembled on her streets at the coming carnival? Nothing but bad weather can prevent it. They are coming from all over the county and from outside. Many people prefer coming to the county seat and meeting their friends to going to Portland, and its cheaper, too. It behooves the city to look well to the preparation for entertaining the people.

Good Entertainment.

The entertainment given by Leonard Bros. in their tent on the Fogg lot was as good an acrobatic exhibition as was ever given in the town. The whole entertainment was largely in the way of tumbling, trapeze work, contortion and work of a similar kind. The performers were quick, able, skillful and excellent, each one of them being a star in his line. Their trapeze work was good, their pyramid work good as ever shown here, and their contortion work was of the cleverest character. The Leonard Bros. were exceptionally good, while the strong man of the company, who held up several others in various attitudes, was very fine. We can say to all exchanges these gentlemen give a clean, clever and meritorious performance that is well worth the price of admittance—Oroville Register. This troupe will give a performance in McMinnville Saturday evening, the 21st.

Do you know that the question of fuel—coal or oil—is the most important problem to be solved in connection with the future growth of Oregon? Do you know that this question of fuel is one of great importance to all of the transcontinental railroads entering Portland; that the chamber of commerce and the board of trade of Portland are giving more attention to this question than any other in their efforts to place Portland in the front rank as a commercial and manufacturing city? Do you know that to date the only prospective coal field in Oregon developed sufficiently to attract attention will require expenditure of millions of dollars in construction of transportation facilities to bring their product to market?

You do know that right here in Yamhill county we have every prospect of uncovering a true and valuable coal and iron field. Do you know that the question of transportation from the properties of this company involves an expenditure of less than $25,000 compared to that of $1,000,000 to $2,000,000 from the fields referred to?

If we of Yamhill county get a move on and open up our development work, the very fact of our close proximity to the commercial center and the unobstructed access will place us, first and next, to Oregon's growth. Just think over this proposition a little, consider what it will do for you; the land owner, the business man the laborer, then give a thought or two as to the possible profits in the investment of this stock. Think of the value of our 2500 acres with only a capital of $50,000, and stock selling at only 50 cents per share of $1 par value, paid up and non assessable.

Suppose you eliminate all features of profit and gains, is it not a sensible proposition for you to place a few dollars in this fund and determine by drilling just what the actual condition are? All our surface indications and down to a depth of 90 feet are true indications. Is it not worth even $10 or $20 to you to know what will follow?
