WORSE FATE THAN DREYFUS.

General Hernandez, of Venezuela, is Being Tortured in Confinement.

New York, Sept. 25.—According to the story told here by a Venezuelan who reached New York a few days ago, General Jose Manuel Hernandez, the head of the Conservative party in Venezuela, and who is a political prisoner, is undergoing treatment even worse than that of Dreyfus on Devil's Island. His political and military strength was recently shown, says the Tribune, in the organization of a revolutionary movement on the frontier, under the leadership of General Garbrane. This uprising which President Castro called a Colombian invasion, was, in reality a Hernandez movement, it is said.

"Immediately following this," said one of Hernandez's former fellow-prisoners now here, "began the systematic attacks on General Hernandez, which his friends fear will end the veteran's career. The first move was to transfer him to the darkest dungeon in the foul-smelling old fort. A huge ball was fastened to his ankle. He is not permitted to see anyone, nor is he permitted to communicate with the outside world. He is even denied the usual exercise about the prison yard. His keepers take a fiendish delight in throwing live rats, spiders and other vermin into his dungeon, particularly when he sleeps. The rations allowed General Hernandez are only half those required by a man of his physical condition."

GHASTLY SCENES AT WRECK.

Persons Injured in Hungarian Collision Were Burned Alive.

Bucharest, Sept. 25.—The collision yesterday at Palota, between the Vienna express and the petroleum train, appears in the light of latest events, to have been a most terrible affair. In a few seconds the whole arena of the collision became a huge lake of burning petroleum. Trees and everything inflammable within an area of a quarter of a mile were destroyed.

There were some ghastly scenes. A girl was burned to death in sight of both her parents, who escaped. M. Dinu, a Roumanian millionaire, got his foot jammed in the wreckage and begged one of the train guards to sever the foot with an ax, promising him a large reward if he would do so. Before the guard could help him he sank into the flames and was burned to death. Schwartz, the conductor, who was similarly jammed, clung so desperately to the man who tried to extricate him that his would-be rescuer had to be dragged away just as Schwartz perished in the flames. Most of the 22 who were killed were burned to death.

Comment of German Press.

London, Sept. 25.—The Berlin correspondent of the Times says: "The news of the British reverses in South Africa is discussed on the whole with much moderation in the more serious organs of the German press. The less responsible papers make no effort to conceal their exultation. The consensus of opinion is that the chief importance of the recent Boer successes is in the encouragement they will afford to the burghers and their effect upon the Cape Colony loyalists. The paper regards the new activity and firing of the Boers as a crushing reply to Lord Kitchener's latest proclamation."

Ten Killed in Collision.

Warren, Mass., Sept. 25.—Ten were killed and 21 injured in a collision on the Boston & Albany railroad today, between a switching freight and a gravel train. All the killed and injured were gravel train employees, who were in the caboose eating dinner when the collision occurred. The caboose was telescoped by a gravel car.

Big Insane Asylum Fire.

Norfolk, Neb., Sept. 25.—The asylum for the insane in this city was almost completely destroyed by fire today. It is believed that three inmates were burned to death. The fire originated from some unknown cause in the west wing of the institution. Loss on buildings and contents will probably reach $300,000. Owing to the early hour and the unpreparedness of the fire department but little could be done in the effort to save the institution. There was 600 inmates in the main building and the efforts to rescue them were difficult in the extreme.

Coming to His Father's Side.

Silverton, Or., Sept. 25.—T. W. Davenport, who was injured a few days ago by falling in the running gear of his wagon, breaking his lower jaw and receiving other injuries, is reported better today. He started for Oregon last Saturday, and will come directly to Silverton.

RUSHED BY BOERS.

Commander of Lovatt's Scouts Killed on the Orange River.

London, Sept. 24.—The war office has received the following dispatch from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, September 22:

"Kritzinger, while endeavoring to force a passage of the Orange river, near Herschel, at 1 o'clock Friday morning, rushed the camp of a party of Lovatt's scouts. He failed to cross the river, but the scouts lost heavily. Lieutenant Colonel Murray and Captain Murray, his adjutant, were killed. Deep regret at the loss of Colonel Murray, who throughout the war led Lovatt's Scouts with great gallantry. Under cover of darkness, the Boers managed to carry a gun. They were promptly followed and the gun was recovered in a smart engagement in which Kritzinger lost two killed and 20 taken prisoners."

Lord Kitchener also reports that the ambush near Scheepers Nek, September 17, have been released, and that the British casualties in the recent Vlakfontein engagement, when the Boers captured a company of mounted infantry and two guns, were one officer and five men killed, 23 men wounded and six officers and 109 men taken prisoners. He announced that these prisoners had since been released. He further reports the capture of two commandoes—one consisting of 55 men, under Commandant Kochs, who were taken with their entire transport, west of Adeborg, and the other, consisting of 54 men, including J. P. Botha, who were taken with 48 wagons, and their belongings, 45 miles southeast of Carolina.

Lord Kitchener's latest dispatches, although they contain good news as well as bad, have contained little to reassure the people concerning the state of affairs. The loss of Lieutenant Colonel Murray, a brother of Lord Mansfield, is keenly felt. There is little doubt that further details will show it was a serious affair.

Remarkable Discovery in Alaska.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 24.—The Dawson News prints a remarkable story about the prospecting tour just completed of H. W. Bracken, who has returned to Dawson after six months in Northern Alaska. According to Bracken's narrative, while in the Romanoff mountains, about 1,000 miles from Dawson, he and his servants ascended a mountain glacier. At a height of 8,000 feet they found herds of mountain sheep frozen in the ice. The theory is that some extreme mid-winter blizzard had caught them while stampeding over the dome. Then the sheep huddled together and perished, snow gradually forming an icy covering. Whatever portions of the bodies of the sheep were above the ice were devoured by arctic bears and wolves. Bracken is said to be a scientific miner of 25 years' experience, having resided three years on the Yukon.

Thousands of these men have been specially engaged for this purpose by the Canadian Pacific railway. Each guard will remain in sight of his neighbor on either side. The royal train will be preceded all along the route by one or more pilot engines, which will keep a short distance ahead. A special army of private detectives is on the watch all over Canada for suspicious characters, with orders to arrest any such and keep them in jail until the royal party has left Canada. The thousands of switches all along the line of the transcontinental railroad will be specially guarded and locked. All traffic will give way before the royal train, not a wheel being allowed to turn within a distance of 200 miles of the duke's train.

HE IS UNCONCERNED

Czolgosz, the Assassin of President McKinley, on Trial.

ONE'S PLEA OF GUILTY IS REVERSED

Court Ordered the Plea to Be Recorded "Not Guilty"—Physicians Gave Important Expert Testimony.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 24.—Leon F. Czolgosz was placed on trial yesterday charged with the murder of President William McKinley. He entered a plea of guilty, which was subsequently changed to "not guilty," by direction of the court. All the events of the day indicated that the trial will be short. Court convened at 10 o'clock and within two hours eight jurors had been secured. Technicalities were not raised by the examining counsel, but it was significant that every man who said he had formed an opinion on the case was excused by the District Attorney. Those who acknowledged they had formed an opinion or stated they were prejudiced, but admitted their opinion could be changed by evidence were accepted by both sides. Justice Truman C. White, one of the oldest and most experienced of the Supreme Court Judges, was on the bench. Immediately after the opening of the court, and after the prisoner had pleaded, Justice Lorn L. Lewis, senior counsel for the defendant, announced that, together with his colleagues, ex-Justice Robert C. Titus and Carlton E. Ladd, they were ready to act in behalf of the prisoner.

"I thought it best," he said, "for my colleagues and myself, that I should say something regarding our presence here as attorneys for the defendant. At the time my name was suggested I was out of the city, and knew nothing of what was transpiring here with reference to the selection of counsel for the defendant. When the circumstances of my selection were told to me, I was extremely reluctant to accept. But the duty has been imposed, and I considered it my duty, in the light of all the circumstances, to defend this man. I ask that no evidence be presented here—that the court will not permit the acceptance of any evidence—unless it would be accepted at the trial of the most meager criminal in the land."

"I am familiar with these circumstances," said Justice White, in reply, "and I wish to say, I will give you every assurance that the prisoner will have a fair and impartial trial. During the progress of the trial he will receive such treatment as the law demands in any criminal case."

The work of securing the jurors was then undertaken, with a celerity that was amazing. Before the day was over the entire panel had been sworn, the jurors had listened to a description of the Temple of Music, where the crime occurred; had seen photographs of the interior of the structure, and had been told by three surgeons what had caused the death of the President, and the effect of the assassin's shot on the various organs of the body. They had also learned why the fatal bullet had not been located.

The prisoner, Czolgosz, during the morning, evidenced no interest whatever in the proceedings, but as the testimony was introduced he paid more attention to what was being said, and looked at the various witnesses closely.

The probable duration of the trial, it is believed, can be placed at two full days. Judge Titus, for the defense, was non-committal, however, and merely said: "That depends upon the testimony." It is not probable that any defense will be put in owing to the character of the prisoner, and his refusal to help his attorneys in any way to procure evidence which they could use in his favor. The idea of an attempt to enter the question of his sanity is not thought of, in view of the reports of the two alienists who have recently examined him.

ANARCHISTS SET FREE

Chicago Authorities Decided There Was No Evidence Sufficient to Hold Them.

Chicago, Sept. 25.—The nine anarchists who have been under arrest here since the assassination of President McKinley were today given their freedom. Judge Chetlain so ordering after the prosecution had answered that there was no legal evidence against them. Emma Goldman was not a party to the proceedings. Her case is set for hearing tomorrow before Magistrate Prindle, where she, as well as the nine men freed today, are charged with conspiracy to murder President McKinley. The cases in the lower court with reference to the men is, of course, nullified by the action of Judge Chetlain today. Miss Goldman will also be set at liberty, as Justice Prindle has agreed to take such action in her case as the upper court took in the case of the men. Attorney Brown said he would try to have Miss Goldman freed today.

Several of the officers were detailed to guard the Cowles residence. The man is described as about 40 years old, speaks with a foreign accent, has a light moustache, dark clothes and had a box about eight inches long and about three and a half wide.

SCHLEY COURT OF INQUIRY.

Sessions Resumed at Washington—Many Important Witnesses Called.

Washington, Sept. 23.—The Schley court of inquiry reconvened Saturday, and before adjournment examined four witnesses.

The most important incident of the day was the decision of the court withdrawing a question put by the court itself, asking a witness to give his opinion concerning a point under controversy. The witness was Rear-Admiral Higginson, who participated in the Santiago campaign as captain of the battle-ship Massachusetts. This vessel was at one time a part of the flying squadron, commanded by Commodore Schley, and the court asked him to state whether all possible measures were taken to capture or destroy the Spanish vessel Christobal Colon as it lay in Santiago harbor from May 27 to June 1, 1898. Counsel for Admiral Schley objected to the question on the ground that a reply would involve an opinion and not a statement of facts. Judge-Advocate Lemly admitted that the precedents were against questions of this character, and the court withdrew this interrogatory.

It is generally admitted that this decision will have the effect of materially shortening the term of the court, as will also the court's intention to cut out irrelevant questions and all hearsay testimony. In several cases, the witnesses were admonished to relate only events coming within their own observation.

Admiral Dewey showed himself a prompt and methodical presiding officer. He called the court to order exactly at the designated hour, and adjourned it just as promptly at 4 o'clock. The witnesses today were Rear-Admiral Higginson, who commanded the battle-ship Massachusetts during the Spanish war; Captain C. M. Chester, who commanded the cruiser Cincinnati; Major Thomas N. Wood, of the marine corps, who commanded the marines on the Massachusetts, and Commander G. B. Harber, who was an executive officer of the Texas, the latter being on the stand when the court adjourned. The attendance of the public was small.

Rear-Admiral Ramsay occupied the seat which, on the first day of the session was filled by Rear-Admiral Rowson. All three members of the court were in service uniform, and the morning air was cold enough to make their closely-buttoned coats appear comfortable. Mrs. Dewey accompanied her husband and remained a short time. The general attendance was not large.

BOERS MAKE ANOTHER HAUL.

Captured a British Company and Two Guns, Killing An Officer.

London, Sept. 23.—Lord Kitchener reports that the Boers have captured a company of mounted infantry and two guns, at Vlakfontein. One officer was killed. The Boers, in superior forces, surrounded the British. Lord Kitchener is making a strict investigation, and has sent columns of troops in pursuit of the Boers.

The Gazette announces that on the disbandment of Lord Strathcona's Canadian corps, 29 officers have been granted honorary rank in the British army, corresponding with their present rank. The list commences with the name of Colonel Stole (the commander of Strathcona's horse in South Africa), who becomes an honorary lieutenant-colonel in the regular army.

London, Sept. 23.—The succession of "regrettable incidents" which Lord Kitchener has reported has evoked editorial counsels to the government to cease to endeavor to wage war by proclamation and to recognize the need of crushing the Boers by force of arms. No news has as yet been received that the Boers have liberated the prisoners recently captured, and, according to Boer circles in Brussels, Commandant-General Botha intends to hold the 150 British prisoners as hostages against the carrying out of the terms of Lord Kitchener's proclamation.

Several of the officers were detailed to guard the Cowles residence.
