There seems to be a disposition among hop growers to hold unto their product this year in the hope of realizing a better price as the season advances, as experienced hop men pronounce the quality of the crop to be the best ever obtained in Oregon. It is thought that when samples of this crop reach England, the price of the Oregon product will go skyward.

Rev. Sam Jones, who often mixes his religion with politics, relieves the northwest has also been remarkhimself thus: "I feel sorry for the democrats. The republicans have let them down in a well and pulled up the ladder. As long as the democratic party has leaders like Tillman and Altgeld they will have to take deck passage on the ship of state.
