FRIDAY, OCT. 18, 1901.

Every once in a while a bunch of pesky Filipinos turns up who haven't learned that the war is over.

Tom, Tom, old Lipton's son, built a yacht and the way it run. The yacht was beat by a yacht more fleet, and Tom's mighty shy on self-conceit.

If Czolgosz has ordinary human feeling the present month ought to be one of unspeakable horror to him. Certainly nobody envies him his thoughts.

A package of $31,000 in bills stopped a bullet fired at a Philadelphia man and saved his life. Never venture out without $31,000 in your left breast pocket.

The correspondent who quoted Mr. Hanna as saying that he would never talk for publication again, is not so reckless as to attribute any such statement to Mr. Bryan.

There are a few prejudiced persons who affect to believe that President Roosevelt will not do all that Mr. Bryan advises in regard to running the country.

General Grosvenor is writing a book on the life and public services of William McKinley, the author's share of the proceeds to be given as a contribution to a McKinley monument fund. Such a work will have a wide circulation.

Man wants but little here below, nor wants that little long—except the Oregon man, of course; his wants are always strong. His wants are strong and broad and deep, perpetually they spring; and if he can't get what he wants, he wants the next best thing.

Johann Most, the anarchist, was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary on Monday for publishing in his paper, The Freiheit, a seditious article on the day following the shooting of the late President McKinley. This looks like business. Let the good work go on.

If it is true that Secretary Hay is soon to resign, his retirement will be generally regretted. Mr. Hay has proven himself a most capable statesman and justly shares with President McKinley the fame earned for the diplomacy of the late administration.

The democrats of Massachusetts show the courage of their convictions. In their late convention they formulated a platform in which they express good words and commendation for President Roosevelt. Mr. McKinley's speech at Buffalo just before his assassination is endorsed, and the era of good feeling between opposite political bodies seems to be here for certain.

The Whiteson creamery has closed down. Sweet, the manager, is to go to California. The reason for closing is given as a disposition on the part of the manager to increase the price of his butter weekly, without a corresponding increase to the farmers for their product.

STREET FAIR AND CARNIVAL OF 1901.

Report of the Managers.

The people who contributed to the fund for the street fair and carnival held Oct. 3, 4, 5, have a right to a financial statement of the receipts and expenditures, which is submitted herewith.

The scope and magnitude of the fair was great, considering the amount of money expended, although the expenses were much greater than I expected, owing to the rush of work necessary the very few days of good weather preceding. One hundred and eighteen booths were built and one hundred and eleven were occupied.

I would like to mention by name those who worked for its success, and especially the ladies, who worked so faithfully and claimed nothing for their services. They are entitled to the sincere thanks of the citizens of the county, as well as that of the directors and myself. The flower display, fancy work, art work and culinary departments were good enough for a big fair in themselves. All these were in the hands of the ladies. The tent of Maccabees deserve kindly mention for the use of their robes and paraphernalia, for the coronation ceremonies. They were given without charge. I commenced work for the carnival on the 10th of July, acting as manager, secretary, treasurer, press reporter, financial agent, general pusher and "cussin' post." Have had the assistance and many other good people, but I'm glad it's over with. I have made some mistakes, but hope I will not make any more in this line.

Following is a financial statement of receipts and expenditures. The lists of women and incidental items were submitted to the board of directors, but are too long for publication. They will be submitted to any one for inspection on request.

We have carefully examined the accounts and vouchers of superintendent, and find them honestly and faithfully kept and the above report correct. Although the carnival was a great success, we find it necessary, in order to make both ends meet, to ask those who presented bills against the carnival fund to accept the published amounts, as many have cheerfully agreed to do. We thank the public for their confidence.

It Happened in a Drug Store.

"One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's cough remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not consider it worth the money, to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine, and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's cough remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy." It is for sale by Howorth & Co.

Hodson the hardware dealer has about completed the task of moving into his new building. His new plumber is Mr. E. W. Ireland, lately from Indiana.

Ladies of the C. P. church will hold a rummage sale in the old McMinnville hotel, beginning on Wednesday, Oct. 23. Useful articles of all descriptions will be offered for sale, and the entire stock will be disposed of. You'll have to hurry. Cake and coffee will be served at 10 cents.

County Treasurer Foster publishes a call today, for the redemption of some $16,000 of the $44,000 of outstanding county warrants. He will be able to make a further reduction in this indebtedness soon, as he sent the last remittance covering the amount of the state and scalp bounty tax yesterday.

TOO MUCH

Exercise is as bad as too little for the growing girl. It is very easy for her to overdo, and this is especially dangerous at that critical period of a young girl's life when she crosses the line of womanhood. It is not an uncommon thing to lay the foundation for years of after misery by neglect of necessary precautions at the first "change of life."

The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription not only establishes regularity, but it gives health to the entire womanly organism. It is the best medicine for diseases peculiar to women because it cures the causes of disease completely and permanently. "Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine nor any other narcotic. It cannot disagree with the most delicate constitution.

"For a number of months I suffered with female trouble," writes Miss Agnes McGowan, of 1212 Bank Street, Washington, D. C. "I tried various remedies, but none seemed to do me any permanent good. The doctors said it was the worst case of internal trouble they ever had. I decided to write to you for help. I received a very encouraging reply and commenced treatment at once. I had not used your 'Favorite Prescription' a week before I began to feel better, and, as I continued, my health gradually improved, and is improving every day."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Oregon Pan-American commissioners have decided to send most of the Oregon exhibits at Buffalo to the fair at Charleston, S. C. The state appropriated $20,000 for the Buffalo fair and $5000 for the Charleston fair. Until the bill of expense is received from Colonel Dosh, it cannot be ascertained how much of the $20,000 will be left for the Charleston fair. Just as soon as the bill of expenses is received the commissioners will hold another meeting and determine what proportion of the produce they can afford to send from Buffalo to Charleston; also the size of the delegation. Some of the delegation at Buffalo will have to come home, but as several want to return anyway there will be no trouble in making the choice. The fair closes at Buffalo November 1.
