

Goods That Are Cheap Not Cheap Goods!

We want our goods to become your goods, and our store to become your store. When this is realized, we shall feel sure of seeing or hearing from you very often. Then you will bring your friends to our store, and all will be mutually profited.

A Cure For Lumbago.
W. C. Williamson, of Amherst, Va., says: "For more than a year I suffered from lumbago. I finally tried Chamberlain's pain balm and it gave me entire relief, which other remedies had failed to do." Sold by Howorth & Co.

J. C. Ikeman, state organizer for the Foresters, has been in the city the past week, and will organize a lodge of that order in this city.

January 1st was the 75th birthday anniversary of John Lynch of this city, and he very appropriately invited in a number of his friends to dinner. One of them who was present tells us that among many good things they enjoyed were such old-fashioned relishes as pickled pigs' feet and hominy. Mr. Lynch remains quite vigorous for a man of his age.

The untimely death of George Handley by drowning in Tillamook bay on the day following Christmas is sad news to his many relatives and friends in this county. He went down to Garibaldi in a sail boat to furnish music for a dance Christmas night, and just before noon of the next day started back over very rough water, but confident that he could make the trip, being an expert with that kind of a boat. Several days after, pieces of the boat were found on the sand spit, which confirmed the gravest apprehensions. He was the son of T. B. Handley, the Tillamook attorney, and nephew of John and Lizzie Handley of this city. He was born in McMinnville in 1874, and is remembered by the writer as a particularly bright graduate of the bright class of 1893 of McMinnville College, which was composed of the following students besides himself: Miss Della Garrison, Miss Marian Sully, Edward D. Graham, John W. Loder, Miss Jewell Mark, Miss Lena Pagenkopf, Miss Rebecca Smith, Miss Singne Swanson, Miss Edith E. Brown, Arthur McPhillips and Miss Mattie Walton. Mr. Handley was an attorney by profession, and leaves a widow and one child.

Odell & Kingery, real estate dealers, say that there are a great many people in the country now inquiring for and looking at land, but few are buying. This seems to be because they have not disposed of their eastern holdings, but are spying out the land preparatory to doing so. Real estate in the Mission valley states is in demand, and prices are advancing.

The joint installation of Workmen and Degree of Honor officers was largely attended Friday evening, and was a most enjoyable occasion. After installation, solos were given by Miss Fraker, Miss Patty and J. G. Eckman, and a sermon by Henry Fletcher. G. O. Wilkins, state organizer and promoter, was present, and officiated as installing officer. Miss Bessie Houck officiating for the Degree. A splendid supper followed, introducing a few toasts.

In his speech at the parlors of the Commercial Club Monday evening Chas. Grissen reviewed the different steps in progress that McMinnville has made by the cooperation and harmony of its inhabitants, and he urged a union of interests and an harmonious pulling together as necessary in order to gain the prestige that is so essential to our continued growth and commercial welfare. Mr. Grissen has traveled over western Oregon quite extensively during the past year, and has gathered a store of knowledge of what push, energy and united effort will do for a town.

A lady reader writes from California complaining that The Reporter doesn't say enough about the weather. The lady formerly lived in Oregon, and misses our charming rain on the roof. We would remark that there seems to have been no diminution in our usual rainfall. There has been no snow of consequence, and at the present time the river is swollen abnormally by the January rains to such an extent as to render the locks inoperative at Lafayette. Our winter has been mild. Indeed there are strong evidences of an early spring. The meadow larks are singing, the festive housefly still puts in his appearance as well as his bill, after the life is started, the air is balmy and the water dogs are beginning to croak. Even the unproductive hen is beginning to produce, and families that heretofore got but one egg a day are now getting three. Occasionally a hen shows strong desire to set.

OPERA HOUSE.

A Star Attraction Coming--The Carl Berch Co.

This company is now playing a week's engagement in Corvallis, and will be with us for 5 nights on Monday, January 13th. Their prices are 10, 20 and 30c, with a few choice seats at 50c, which can be secured at Rogers Bros.' drug-store. This company is spoken of as one of the very best of its kind now traveling. The Honolulu Republican speaks of Mr. Berch as a thoroughly trained actor, while Miss Wierne has a face and figure that must make her professional as well as lay sisters envious, though she shows no vanity. The home orchestra will assist in the music.

The Fairview Literary.

A very enjoyable time was had at the Fairview school house on the Dayton road last Saturday evening by the members of the Fairview literary society. A very interesting program was rendered, after which a bounteous lunch was served. The program was as follows: Male quartet, "We all Have a Very Bad Cold," Messrs. Kauffman, Myers and Allison; Recitation, Lee Fletcher; Dialogue, "Wanted a Divorce," members of society; recitation, Miss Danna Potter; duet, Misses Hazel Stevens and Clara Cone; recitation, Miss Mabel Myers; solo, Miss Cora Kauffman; recitation, Miss Blanche Derr; farce, "An Eligible Situation," members of society; recitation, Miss Pauline Mitchell; recitation, Miss Louise Allison; recitation, Miss Annie Sims; solo, Howard Kauffman; dialogue, "The Widow's Mite," members of society; recitation, Pleasant Allen; society paper, Miss Cora Kauffman. The male quartet, consisting of Profs. Krelschmar, Petrich, Debaugh and Sossentino, who had just arrived from Chicago, rendered a fine selection, and the way they rendered their parts was simply fine.

COLUMBUS SCHOOL NOTES.

We are having a considerable number of tardy marks. This should not be. It is just as easy to get to school by nine o'clock as two or three minutes later.

All the pupils are striving very hard since the holidays and some good results are expected.

The 10th grade are practicing on their recitations. This is supplementary work, preparatory to the drilling on their orations.

Our debating society did not meet last Friday as mentioned, but meets today. The debaters were not ready to cross swords as they had not yet had time to make thorough preparations.

When Coughs Cling.

Heed the cough that exceeds the limits of a simple cold. If loss of flesh goes with it, you surely need Dr. Lowe's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphates. It builds faster than disease can tear down, makes blood, gives strength and cures stubborn throat and lung troubles. To do its best work the emulsion must be fresh. You are sure of freshness when you get Dr. Lowe's emulsion; made at frequent intervals—that's why physicians prefer it. Price 75 cents. (Prescriptions have been our specialty for 20 years.)

ROGERS BROS.' PHARMACY,
McMinnville, Oregon.
The drug center of Yamhill Co.

A Good Recommendation.

"I have noticed that the sale on Chamberlain's stomach and liver tablets is almost invariably to those who have once used them," says Mr. J. H. Weber, a prominent druggist of Cascade, Iowa. What better recommendation could any medicine have than for people to call for it when again in need of such a remedy? Try them when you feel dull after eating, when you have a bad taste in your mouth, feel bilious, have no appetite or when troubled with constipation, and you are sure to be delighted with the prompt relief which they afford. For sale by Howorth & Co.

We Do the Business.

Careful compounding physicians' prescriptions from best, purest, highest standard of drugs has gained us the confidence of our many customers all over the county. We appreciate your patronage and will strive to merit your good will and trade. Our store is jammed full of new goods to meet our increasing demand, and you who have not bought your drugs of us come in and look at our store; not a fly speck or old, shelf-worn bottle in stock. Compare this with others and you will be our customer when you have a prescription to fill. Our prices mean to live and let live. PERRY DRUG CO.

We are asked, "What about your coal prospect?" Our reply is, "Our coal prospect is all right." Primarily we are after oil; incidentally we will develop coal. Geological and expert knowledge, after examinations of the strata of shale, limestone and sandstone on our properties, would declare the probability of the existence of a true coal measure. With a possibility of possessing a coal measure, we have no desire to spend our money in tunnel prospecting, for this reason: A coal measure consists of a thick strata of limestone, shale and sandstone. In Nova Scotia they are 13,000 feet; in South Wales 12,000 feet; Pennsylvania 4,000 feet; West Virginia 4,500 feet. In addition to these strata of stone there are interstratified thin seams of coal, and in the richest coal measures known, the proportion of coal to rock is not more than 1 to 50. From the nature and origin of coal it follows that the coal seams of considerable depth are the most valuable; in fact, the thickest and purest are usually near the middle of the series. Nova Scotia has 81 coal seams; South Wales over 100; Lancashire 75, and so on. Now then, instead of prospecting our coal croppings by tunneling, we propose first, to ascertain by the use of our drill as to the existence of other coal seams deeper down. If our drill finds them, then it only requires the service of a practical coal miner to put us in the market. We are killing two birds with one stone. We are neglecting neither coal nor oil. We promise a full development of each, and we trust a profitable conclusion of our work. To-day we have over 300 shareholders, so you see they are coming right along, but we know of a great many people who should, but have not. Our drill will arrive before long, and then down goes the hole, and if we keep right at it, more people must subscribe. We believe that our efforts will meet with success, but we promise nothing but a square management and a strict accounting. Every dollar goes to development; no shareholder need assume a burden. Subscribe to any amount you wish, and have an interest in our work.

Change in Business—Pay Up.
