

DAILY REPORTER.

VOL. I. NO. 8.

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1886.

PRICE TWO CENTS.

The Daily Reporter.

Entered in the Postoffice at McMinnville for Transmission Through the Mails as Second Class Matter.

A New Daily.

D. C. Ireland & Co., of the McMinnville Reporter, have just commenced the publication of a daily. Volume 1, No. 1, of the Daily Reporter, bearing date of Wednesday, September 1st. It is a spruce-looking twelve-column sheet, and presents a very neat typographical appearance. Telegram.

It is a neatly printed 12-column folio, and will doubtless grow with the town. Albany Herald.

It is a neat, newsy and well gotten up, and we wish them the best of success. Yaquina Post.

D. C. Ireland & Co. are responsible for its issue. It is a "bijou" sheet. Vidette.

It is small but bright, and may grow to full size by age. We wish it success. Portland World.

It is a neat, newsy and well gotten up little sheet, and we wish them unbounded success. Albany Bulletin.

It is the spicy little adjunct to the Yamhill Reporter, and is chock full of news. Corvallis Gazette.

It is a bright, newsy little sheet and deserves a liberal support from the citizens of McMinnville. West Side.

The daily Reporter will be the means of improving the weekly Reporter fully half. Make a note of this.

Subscribe for the Reporter, and pay for it when you subscribe, and we will pledge ourselves to give you more news, for less money, than any other paper in the Willamette valley. The Daily will help the weekly 100 per cent. See if it don't.

If this paper suits you for a bit a week we shall appreciate the favor of your subscription; we have no money to lose in the venture; if it pays its way another column will be added, and another; if not perhaps not. The quality is surely as fair as the rate.

The job of work done on the metal cornices to Cook's hotel is upon a machine invented by A. H. Hodson. It makes perfect work, and as we jocosely remarked to the bystanders Saturday, if the balance of the job corresponds there isn't a particle of doubt but that the committee will accept the building.
