COUNTY FAIR MATTERS.

At a meeting of the executive board of the Yamhill county fair association there were in attendance: Dr. Calbreath, presiding officer; C. A. Talmage secretary; Elsea Wright, Wm. Campbell, F. W. Redmond, C. Grissen, Dr. Goucher, A. J. Apperson and Hon. J. C. Braly.

The report of the committee, showing receipts and disbursements, premiums offered, etc., was received, and afterwards adopted as a whole. The report shows

Gate Receipts	$1,076 90
Entree Fees	277 60
Pools	36 70
Licenses	40 00
Subscriptions	512 00
Total	$1,943 20
Bills Payable	$641 40
Speed Purse	605 00
Premiums	195 00
Postage and Stationary	4 85
Total	$1,446 25

This would leave a balance of $496 95 on hand to return pro rata to subscribers, and perhaps a few dollars over, as the restaurant returns were not reported last evening.

The managers have had a very uneven pull in this matter, and were deserving of a better feeling from all sources than they have received. It is impossible to realize the difficulties in the way of pleasing everybody; but they have the consciousness of having tried to do so, and in our estimation have succeeded in pleasing all who could ever be pleased. Special credit is due to Drs. Goucher and Calbreath, F. W. Redmond and Hon. Wm. Gallo-way.

The premiums awarded are for nearly every article placed on exhibition, and will be paid in cash. The cattle, the horses; the roadsters; the racers; jacks and mules; sheep, swine, poultry; products of the farm; fruits, jellies, flowers, needlework, crochet, knitting, pen-work, painting, etc., down to relics and miscellaneous articles were carefully noted, and suitably awarded prizes. It is to be hoped that all who attended are satisfied, and that the next county fair will produce a larger crop of exhibitors and fewer croakers.

The authorized premium list, as it was awarded last evening, will be published in the Weekly Reporter, tomorrow, in full:

Capt. J. T. Apperson is having a pamphlet printed containing the pedigrees of his herd of thirty-five Jerseys. These cattle are all in the American herd book, and there is no doubt of the royal blueness of their blood. It is not probable that there is another Jersey herd equal to this in Oregon.

The bureau of printing and engraving has begun to prepare the plates for printing the oleomargarine internal revenue stamps. They are to be in form and design like the tobacco stamps. The stuff is to be put up in packages of from 10 to 60 pounds, and in winter in barrels of 300 hundred pounds. It is under consideration whether it can be put up in stone jars.

There are fifteen men in Portland who went there without a dollar, who are now worth a million or more each.

The National Republican at Washington published a senatorial edition recently containing on the first page a picture of the United States senators standing on the capitol steps, with the pages lined in front. The likenesses of Senators Mitchell and Dolph are above the average. Elsewhere in the same paper these gentlemen have single likenesses of themselves accompanied by brief sketches of their lives.

Spouter, the rising elocutionist, was telling the other day about the little esthetic receptions that Mrs. Marlborough Cræsus gave last winter and proposes to repeat the coming season. "You know," he said, "she invites a lot of people who do things, and every fellow is expected to do his part to amuse the company. No pay, you know, everybody is expected to do it for the advertisement. And that's all very well, but, bah! you have to listen to the others!"

MARRIED.

MORRISON-CONNOR—Sunday, Sept. 12, 1886, at the residence of Albert Baxter, by Rev. G. W. Bronson, Elijah Morrison to Miss Louisa Conner. All of Polk county, Oregon.
