

The Daily Reporter.

D. C. IRELAND & CO. PUBLISHERS.

McMinnville, Or. - Sept. 17, 1886

Sidewalk lumber for sale at this office.

Well digging is now a very active pursuit in this locality.

Wm. A. Henderson is again able to be about, and attend to business.

Mr. Nicolls has returned from the coast surfeited with its splendors.

Choice uncolored and English breakfast tea 50 cents a lb. at the bakery.

Barnekoff & Co. chop grain for $2.50 per ton, at the warehouse in this city.

A great many immigrants are coming into the lower end of this county.

Bishop & Kay will place a few of their select goods on exhibition at Newberg.

Snow fell on the Canadian Pacific Sept. 4th. The snow sheds are not all done yet.

D. I. Corker has some plows, harrows, fan mills and other articles for sale at cost.

Mrs. Madden, of Portland, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Casey, in Happy valley.

D. I. Corker, wishing to close his business at Lafayette, will sell his goods at cost for cash.

Surveyor Fenton returned yesterday from a professional trip in vicinity of North Yamhill.

Clyde Apperson drove to Dayton this a. m. and connected with the City of Salem for New Era.

Dr. and Mrs. Howard, B. F. Fuller and wife, and David Wallace and wife, leave for the meeting at New Era today.

If you want a first class article of furniture made, Mr. Clark will produce it for you at E. B. Fellows' cabinet shop.

The Band of Hope will meet at the M. E. church this afternoon at a quarter past two. All little folk are invited.

The old and well established well corner of Third and C streets is being again put into good condition after many years.

Portland reporters are congratulating themselves that they can now eat oysters. Yes cool September has an r in it. So has frost, rheumatism and catarrh.

We would advise those in want of hardware to call at Corker's, Lafayette, before buying elsewhere. Remember he is selling goods at cost.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Tucker, who have spent a very pleasant summer in Oregon, expect to start eastward, for their home in Michigan, on Tuesday.

A fine lot of moulding for picture frames at E. B. Fellows'. Call and sample the lot. Any size pictures framed to order, neat, quick and cheap.

Prof. A. L. Francis, one of the best, most successful piano and organ tuners, is in the city, headquarters at the Central. He expects to remain until to-morrow p. m.

Miss Mollie Burk, formerly of this city, sister to Henry, was recently married in Arcada, California, to Walter Hopkins. Mrs. Hopkins' many friends here send greeting to her happiness.

Alice Clawson Gove has resigned, and the office been filled by her husband as school superintendent in Multnomah county. How does this suit the cranks, for a put up job.

A gentleman informed us we had mistaken the time of the Newberg fair, it began on the 24th. We were right, it begins on the 23d, but the shabby poster issued by the good folk at Newberg is a little misleading.

Fletcher Bros. will soon have a roller mill in operation on the farm of J. B. Fletcher near this city, for chopping feed. Farmers can call and have a feed chopped by the first of next month.

J. H. Stine's latest, the Brownville Informant, is at hand. We cannot tell just yet who will buy him out. The Informant is a neat looking sheet, and shows evidence that it is got up in a town full of enterprising people. Success attend it.

The finest, most comfortable fall or winter underskirt for a lady is the hand-knit Ormiston pattern for sale at Detmering's. It comes in all sizes for ladies and Misses. Ask D. C. to show it to you, and our word for it you'll buy it. The price is no object to be without one of them.

Alf. Wilson's barn on the highlands near the Willamina, was destroyed by fire Monday night. His loss is heavy, consisting of 600 bushels of oats, 300 bushels of wheat, 140 bushels of barley, and all his hay and feed. No stock lost. He is of the opinion that the barn was set on fire, as it broke out about 2 o'clock a. m.

Best cream cheese 15cts. per lb at Baxter & Martin's.

Judge Cowls' new house is to be occupied by John Wortman.

Geo. Terry of this city took first premium at Salem for edged tools.

The neatest and the cheapest job printing at the Reporter office.

The Waterway convention is to meet at Vancouver, Oct. 14th at 9 a. m.

Hon. Wm. Galloway has been chosen president of the Oregon State Agricultural Society.

Far West baking powder, best and cheapest, 35cts. per lb. Samples free at Baxter & Martin's.

Hon. J. S. Hibbs is down with an attack of billious fever. Sickness is not confined to the city.

C. W. Talmage is authorized to pay all premiums awarded at the county fair. Call upon him at his office.

The final count of the fair executive board leaves $357.00 to pro rate among subscribers. Nearly 70 per cent.

C. A. Wallace of this city was chosen one of the board of managers of the state fair. Hon. Wm. Galloway president of the society.

Ed. Noyes, G. W. Dillingham and Mr. Habersham, have just returned from Trask to Portland and Astoria. They prefer this region to any in which they ever fished or hunted.

Three prizes are to be shot for at Collard's gallery. One is a handsome Winchester rifle, 2d a box of cigars; 3d a silver dollar. Call and take a shot. Mr. Collard will give you all particulars.

Subscribe for the Reporter, and pay for it when you subscribe, and we will pledge ourselves to give you more news, for less money, than any other paper in the Willamette valley. The Daily will help the weekly 100 per cent. See if it don't.

If this paper suits you for a bit a week we shall appreciate the favor of your subscription; we have no money to lose in the venture; if it pays its way another column will be added, and another; if not perhaps not. The quality is surely as fair as the rate.

As much space in these columns as can be given consistently to such special purpose, will, in future, be devoted to the interests of religious and secular societies and associations, according as they in substantial ways reciprocate the interest taken in them by the Reporter.