THE VILLAGE BLACKSMITH.

For the man who makes the anvil ring,
And shoes the restive gelding,
I fain would many praises sing,
While he sweats o'er his welding.

He may be large or he may be small, Dutch, Greaser, or Kinnaka, If you've got any coin you may stack it all That he's free with his tobacco.

—Geo. W. Jones.

Read Redmond's new ad. to-day.
Desirable town property for sale cheap. Inquire of E. Russ.

The Daily Bulletin will hatch out in Albany to-day. Here's to you, old man.

We will take your order for a Victor fire proof family safe. See advertisement in Weekly Reporter.

Thistle down is blowing on the breeze in every direction, insuring a fine crop for next season.

The cash system of doing business is the correct way, and people are realizing that fact more and more.

The NGR folk have begun their regular semi annual suit against the ORN for rent of the narrow gauge lines.

Doc. Sitton has sold Noisy Billy to Lane county. So the last jackass leaves the west side tier of counties except one.

L. Bettman has just opened a fine line of new dress goods and gents furnishing goods. It will pay you to call and inspect this stock.

Advertisers can take their choice, either daily or weekly, at the same old rate. No advance in the price. We've come to stay, if you say so.

Hon. T. H. Tongue, of Hillsboro, has sent Fred Hambleton, Von Tromp, and Laura D., to Walla Walla to take part in the races at that place.

Frank C. Baker, state printer elect, is fitting up in fine style in the capitol.
He will not do a general jobbing business outside of his official work.

Show the Weekly Reporter to your neighbor and ask him to become a subscriber. Two copies, to separate addresses if desired, one year $3.00.

Hon. E. B. McElroy is working in the interest of eastern Oregon schools at the present. Prineville is reported to be without any kind of school organization.

Wm. Loyd has purchased a part of the Blackburn place near Carlton, and returned to old Yamhill. He was first employed here in 1852, by the late Geo. Bangasser.

If Fort Klamath is abandoned, the Indians will again take possession of south eastern Oregon. The Indian agent and officers of the land office will resign and come out.

Brother Halloran, of the Astorian is a grave joker. Just hear him: "To those know a hawk from a handsaw it begins to look as though Minne wasn't going to sing in Astoria this trip."

"D—the nails." Drive down the nails in your sidewalks. There is nothing more liable to make a man forget his religion than to spoil a fine boot or shoe on a nail that you should have kept in its proper position.

If you want a good overcoat go to C. Symons.

Jas. McCain was in the city on legal business Saturday.

Black frock and sacque suits just received by C. Symons.

Vestry meeting this evening at 8 o'clock at Dr. Johnson's office.

Boys' double breasted Chinchilla coats and vests $9.00 at C. Symons'.

Jas. Houck and wife will spend part of the fall and winter at Newport.

Feed chopped every Friday at the Barnekoff & Co. warehouse in Mc-Minnville.

Circuit court adjourned, all finished up, in time for Judge Boise to reach home Saturday.

Luther Shobe sends regards to all the boys. He has located at Wellington, Kansas.

Mr. Toney lost a cow by a collision with the up mail train Saturday. No further damage.

Jones & Co., are turning out as fine wood work and lumber as can be put into a building.

Blue vitriol is to be had at Baxter & Martin's cheaper than at any other place. Call and see.

Councilmen T. A. Turner and Doc.
Wm. M. C. Crisman leave to-morrow for a two months eastern trip.

Frank Sully has bought a farm of the Perry Bros. on the Dayton road, and moved back into old Yamhill.

A carload of coal oil just received by Baxter & Martin. The best oil in the market, at a small margin of profit.

Cris. Wortman came up on Saturday last to visit his father and brother, Messrs. Jacob and John Wortman of the First National bank.

We are to have another centennial celebration Sept. 17, 1887. The centennial anniversary of the promulgation of the United States.

A cow on the narrow gauge bucked a train off the track below Dallas, last week because the engine left its cow catcher in the shop. A general smashup, but nobody hurt.

Prof. Price informs us that the well at the school house has been thoroughly cleaned, and the directors of the district are active in behalf of the interests of the school.

The sick folk in McMinnville have not been improving from Friday last.
Mrs. W. W. Wright, and Mrs. J.
Harv. Henderson were much worse Saturday, but are better this morning.
Bouty Sanders is slowly recovering.

Tax-payers in Multnomah county are to organize for mutual benefit.
The association will have representatives to investigate "affairs" most fully and completely, and in every way protect the interests of citizens against unnecessary and too liberal use of the public monies.

The funeral of Geo. Bangasser Sr., took place at St. James Catholic church yesterday afternoon, Rev.
Father White officiating. There were many more present than the church would seat, and over sixty vehicles followed the remains to the grave.
The remarks of Father White were introductory to prayers for repose of the soul, and were very appropriate to the occasion. Rest in peace kind neighbor. Our deepest sympathies go out to the afflicted ones left to mourn the dead.
