FAREWELL TO JEANNIE.

A very pleasant name
Is Jeannie Winston.
To love and song and fame;
Our Jeannie Winston!
If, indeed, she now must go
Shall our hearts be lonely? No!
Still they follow, to and fro.
Dear Jeannie Winston!
—National Republican.

YAQUINA AFTERMATH.

It was summer. And Newport. He came there. We met.
He was handsome and hasty, and I a coquette.
He proposed. I refused him. I loved him. But then
I thought; don't you see; he would ask me again.
But he didn't

JONES'S RIVER

Air—"Suwanee River."

Way up upon de George Jones river,
Far, far away,
Dere's where de mud am running ever
Into de icy bay.

All de mouth am wide and muddy,
Eberywhere am stones;
Oh, darkies, how we smile at Schwatka
An' dat funny ribber Jones.

Way up upon de George Jones river,
Far in Alas-kay,
Dere's where de mugwumps ought to linger
An' de poor soreheads stay.

All de world am sad and dreary
Listenin' to dere groans.
Oh, muggies, wont you go to Alas-kay
And camp by de ribber Jones.

Seal skin caps for ladies, at Miss Russ' store.

This weather will probably continue till the 15th.

Price takes as fine pictures as any artist in Portland.

John Evenden was registered at the Gilman yesterday.

Mr. Evenden has purchased a home made road cart of S. C. Force.

The Presbyterian church is now safe from further lamp accidents.

The Eurisko market is putting in two fine blocks and a marble slab.

P. F. Morey has got his work in upon Portland at last. To light the city by electricity.

Some fine scraps for crazy patch work on the 10 cent counter at Miss F. E. Russ' store.

Mr. Fowler, an invalid from Wheatland is under treatment by Dr. Goucher at the St. Charles.

Many more students than usual are putting in an appearance at the college this fall from abroad.

A silver ledge discovered in 1866 across the Columbia from Astoria, is to be developed this year.

Capt. E. B. Fellows is in Portland this morning taking an inventory of a new stock soon to arrive.

An effort is being made to secure the grand camp of Indian war veterans at McMinnville next year.

Suiter & Daniels mill at Lafayette is turning a very satisfactory account on the chop and feed business this year.

Sheep Inspector Nelson informs us that if there is a diseased sheep in Yamhill county he does not know of it.

Time of meeting of Band of Hope, 3 p. m. to-morrow. One hour later.

To-morrow being the day of atonement, Bettman's store will be closed.

There is quite a rush of teams hauling lumber to the city yards now from Jones & Co.'s Nestucca mill.

A handsome young lady yesterday selected her bridal hat at Mrs. Stuart's. There is a fine lot from which to make the selection.

Wheat continues to tumble, and we are not offering advice as to when to sell. Sixty-five cents is an advance on Portland prices.

The new M. E. church near Mr. Millsaps, on the Hemstock farm, will be ready for dedication in time for the next quarterly meeting.

Work has begun upon the walk on B street. Let it continue, at least until this corner is reached from Third street, by permission of the property owners.

Boom? Boom?? Boom??? All things are booming???? G. W. Jones & Co., are doing a booming business. Call and see the finest lumber in the world, at their yard.

This is beautiful weather, but soon the patter of the rain on the roof will announce the coming of winter. Finish up your out door work this week, the rain cometh soon.

Capt. Lafollett's name has been mentioned as a possible speaker of the house; and Dr. Watts is wanted to preside over the destinies of the senate. Old Yamhill is proud of her material.

Beriah Brown completely confusticated and busted the so-called democratic convention at Seattle, and it adjourned without making any nominations. Mr. Brown acted as chairman of the convention.

Miss Nettie Henderson yesterday showed us a gloria mundi apple large enough to make two pies. It came from Miss Bangasser's orchard. Specimens from the same tree will be exhibited at the Mechanics fair.

The Daily Bulletin of Albany is at hand. O. T. Porter is at the helm, and he makes a fine paper, newsy and pledged to stand for the best interests of Albany, no matter whose toes it pinches. Those be our sentiments.

The Gipsies have come to town, and there is a sensation in fortune telling now from one dollar up to ten among the male members of society. Of course the female portion "never" have their fortunes told; at least hardly ever.

E. B. Fellows is prepared to give people the finest surprise in picture frames they ever had. Frames that formerly sold for $10.00 he sells for $2.75; and the $2, $3 and $5 frames sell for 50 cents, six bits and a dollar each. Call and see these fine frames.

Gen. Thos. J. Brady, of star-route fame, in his book soon to be issued, proposes to place several alleged statesmen and others, posing before the public as moral saints with a 'holier-than-thou' cast of countenance, upon the corroded points of their own corruption. He will embellish his book with fac-simile autograph letters and memoranda, which will speak for themselves. He says he has shielded a lot of hypocritical and moral cowards long enough, and there is nothing left for him to do but to publish the true inside history of the events.

Desirable town property for sale cheap. Inquire of E. Russ.

We will take your order for a Victor fire proof family safe. See advertisement in Weekly Reporter.

A carload of coal oil just received by Baxter & Martin. The best oil in the market, at a small margin of profit.

L. Bettman has just opened a fine line of new dress goods and gents furnishing goods. It will pay you to call and inspect this stock.

Advertisers can take their choice, either daily or weekly, at the same old rate. No advance in the price. We've come to stay, if you say so.

Bangasser market will be again opened to the public on Monday next. Thankful for past favors, a continuance of the patronage of years is respectfully solicited.

Does your neighbor read the Weekly Reporter? If not, tell him we will send it free of charge until January 1, 1887, to all who will send us their address on a postal card.

Thinking that perhaps some might be misled with regard to prices at his shop, S. C. Force invites any man to call and inspect his work and prices before letting out a job to any other man in Yamhill county.

Subscribe for the Reporter, and pay for it when you subscribe, and we will pledge ourselves to give you more news, for less money, than any other paper in the Willamette valley. The Daily will help the weekly 100 per cent.

"Acting secretary of War" Drum, a subordinate, is hatching a pretty kettle of fish out of the Geronimo-Miles matter. Gen. Miles had too much sense and sagacity to detail to Mr. Drum his secrets of war, and that is just what all this fuss is about. He probably cares but very little whether he is as popular "in government circles" as he was. Miles is no ass himself, whatever Drum may be.

Miss F. E. Russ will not have a regular opening this fall, but has opened a fine line of the latest fall and winter millinery direct from New York city and will have her place of business open to her many customers and friends from this date to enable all to visit the head quarters of millinery, Third street, McMinnville, inspect the quality of the goods and price the same. The beauty of the goods offered is such as to cause many pleasant surprises to the ladies of Yamhill county who may call upon Miss Russ, and all are cordially invited.

The New York World shows that twenty-five chairman of committees of the house had either been defeated for renomination or declined to stand for future honors. It adds that about the same percentage of the entire democratic representation, as is shown in the list of chairmen, have also suffered defeat at the hands of their constituents. This means that the fiftieth congress will have possibly less than one-half of the present democratic members, provided none are defeated at the polls. The reasons for this wholesale slaughter, the World learns, "reflect seriously upon the policy of the administration. This bears every semblance of truth, from the fact that those indicated above have been pronounced friends of the President, and indorsed his policy." What is his policy?
