D. C. IRELAND & CO. PUBLISHERS,
McMinnville, Or. - Oct. 13, 1886

Rain will be due here on Friday.
C. H. Cook and wife, of Hollister, have arrived here.

Mr. Washburn is putting a fine fence around his premises in this city.

James Johnson and Mrs. Dr. Littlefield, of Lafayette, go east on the 15th.

The mercury went down to 32 Saturday night. A close call for house plants.

Remember the temperance meeting Saturday 16th, from 3 to 4 o'clock at the M. E. Church. All are invited.

Dr. Turner, of Portland was in the city yesterday. He is one of the most successful practitioners in America.

Congressman Hermann has entered his protest against the removal of the Klamath garrison. Now, what's the secretary of war going to do about it?

Mr. Dolph had about as much to do with punching up the work at Cascades locks as Senator Jones of Florida, yet the Oregonian can give no credit to those who did all.

The first quarterly meeting for Lafayette circuit will be held at Lafayette on Saturday and Sunday.

Preaching both days at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. by Dr. Harrington and Prof. Starr, of Willamette University.

Judge Shattuck decided a few days ago that no one was qualified to sit on the jury if his name was not on the last preceding assessment roll. In this the judge but followed the plain letter of the statute, as found in article 921 of the civil code.

The chemical outfit for the college has been ordered from Ann Arbor, and the philosophical apparatus from Chicago. The names of Arthur McPhillips, Thad Simpson, J.F. Holman, Theodore Burns, William P. Holman, Owen Bogue and Ella Galentine have been added to the list of pupils the past month.

It cannot but be pleasing to all enterprising people to witness the push and energy which Oregon city is getting just now from the movement set on foot by Hon. W. Carey Johnson to awaken the old moss backs to a living sense of the surrounding situation.

Another week will see a fully organized board of trade in Oregon city and good work will be expected of it.

Hank Vaughn the hero of a thousand fights got pollywilsoned by a desperado whom he "compelled to dance" in a Umatilla saloon three months since. The desperado is in the penitentiary and Hank has just left St. Vincents hospital. There is not enough in either one of these men to justify the gush of certain classes of journalists as paint Hank "a generous hearted gentleman."

Residents along Snake and Columbia river bars are looking up mining laws, with the idea of taking up gravel claims. Heretofore the Chinese have monopolized mining on the river bars, but now it looks as if white men were about to step into the business.

It appears to us that steady men would be able to make wages, at least, besides be their own boss, and that is a good deal.

Leong Git, one of the leading Chinese manipulators at Portland was in the city yesterday looking for a sit. His address is 50 Salmon street and he is a good cook, willing to work in a Christian family for from $14 to $16 per month.

A newly married couple took the train at Amity for their wedding tour. Passing a farm where were some young calves the bride observed: "Oh, see those little cowlets." "You are mistaken," remarked the groom, "they are not cowlets, but bullets."

The National Woman's Temperance Union have designated Sunday Oct. 17, as a national temperance Sabbath; responding to this call the W. C. T. U. of McMinnville have arranged for a union temperance meeting to be held at Garrison Opera house Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. Addresses will be given by the pastors of several churches, also by the Rev. E. G. Wheeler of Portland. Music will be furnished by a select choir. Every one invited.

Down, down, down, drops wheat. It finally touched 70 cents in Chicago on Monday, as some of the more rampant bears claimed it would. No doubt there is great rejoicing over this, as it come sooner than looked for. Wheat there at 70 cents is cheap and one might look over prices for many years and find it no lower, certainly not for more than a day or two. Foreign advices come through the turn weaker, and the English farmer is delivering a quantity almost equal to what he did last year this time when harvest was earlier. Appearances certainly favor the idea that free selling for a time is to rule. Such a course cannot but weaken the markets. In Portland shippers were buying but little and would not pay over $1.15 for Walla Walla. Valley may be said to be in no particular business, although receipts were large yesterday.

We will take your order for a Victor fire proof family safe. See advertisement in Weekly Reporter.
