D. C. IRELAND & CO. PUBLISHERS,

McMinnville, Or. - Oct. 14, 1886

Desirable town property for sale cheap. Inquire of E. Russ.

Hon. L. Loughary, of Lafayette, was in the city yesterday and made a social visit.

Friends of Mrs. C. W. Talmage will be gratified to learn that she is much improved to-day.

C. A. Wallace of this city has as fine stock now as any man in Oregon. Cattle and horses.

The Brown Bear, the finest five cent cigar in the market, at J. Harv. Henderson's city grocery store.

Dr. Multner of this city was reported in Portland on Tuesday. Fred. wears the honor with dignity.

Uncle Ezra, whose first letter appears this morning, has promised to be a regular contributor. He deals in solid facts.

Wm. Gunning and Miss Alice Green were married in Marion county by the Rev. T. H. Henderson on the 12th. They will reside in Bellevue precinct.

People of Portland are preparing for the reception of Michael Davitt, the great Irish editor and statesman, soon to arrive.

Wm. Fuqua, of Suver, will leave on the 15th for Kansas city, to be gone two months. He will secure a car load of fine cattle for his Polk county farm.

Prof. Houghton has been busy for the past week or ten days assisting Clyde Apperson in making out accounts, which means that the time for settlements at Apperson's is approaching.

Mrs. and Miss Mitchell, wife and daughter of Senator J. H. Mitchell, expected to sail for home on the 9th, after a sojourn of eighteen months in Paris. Mrs. Senator Dolph and daughter expected to sail from London for home on Saturday, also.

A postoffice key was stolen from Boyd, Wasco county, on the night of the 6th. The money drawer was forced open and over $100 in coin taken; also the postoffice mail key. This key will open any mail bag in the United States except those containing registered packages, and its loss is a serious matter. One is furnished to each postmaster. The postal authorities will, therefore, spare no pains to ferret out the guilty parties.

Mr. Villard was the best man for Oregon that ever took a hand in its affairs. And it warms up rebellious blood in us to read this sort of stuff in a webfoot paper: "Villard has got some more German suckers with coin at his back, and his health has fully restored. We hope Vill. will keep away from Oregon with booming schemes. Oregon has adopted the pace of a snail, which is slow but steady," and we may add: Always gets left.

John W. Mackey is a striking specimen of the millionaire who may confer great benefits upon his kind by an honorable public spirit. Without any need for gain to his fifty millions of capital, and perhaps without any desire to swell his coffers, he has inaugurated and is vigorously prosecuting in person a scheme to establish a competing line of telegraph that shall put within the easy reach of every one the news of the world. He has just left Portland for San Francisco.

The Welcome says Senator Mitchell has returned from Washington, after a hard sessions fight in the interest of Oregon. He received quite an ovation from his friends. Of his work in the senate the following is given by a Portland paper: He is a member of five committees, railroads, transportation routes to the seaboard, claims, mines and mining and library. He is also chairman of a sub-committee on transportation to the sea-board, whose duty it is to investigate and report on the best means of overcoming obstructions to navigation at The Dalles, of the Columbia, whether by canal and locks or ship railroad. His position as member on committees gives him superior advantages to serve the interests of his state and the entire coast.
