NEWS AND NOTES.

Maj. Jones has ordered the government snag puller to begin work above Oregon city and come as far up as possible, dredging and pulling snags, as the present stage of water will admit.

Citizens of Olympia are preparing to improve their harbor by dredging a deep channel three-fourths of a mile long. The channel, it has been found will run through a bed of clams that will assay 40,000 bushels to the mile.

John Campbell came out to view Oregon, got logged in southern Oregon; pulled out via Yaquina, reached home by way of Mexico, and writes back that he sold 65 acres of his farm in Illinois for $5,100, and has gone to locate finally in south western Missouri where land is cheap.

Pixley, of the Argonaut, the smartest and most foolish newspaper man on the Pacific coast, is still pitching into the Irish. This year he is also making life a burden for the republican candidate for governor of California, because Mr. Swift refused to run and Pixley's know nothing ticket.

The town of Sabine pass, La., was wholly destroyed by the flood last Sunday and Monday. Over sixty persons perished. New Orleans suffered badly, and altogether millions worth of property was destroyed.

The Arizona pioneers say they do not thirst for Geronimo's blood. All they want is his permanent absence. They praise Miles' policy, oblivious of the fate that awaits an unprotected savage turned loose among a band of Florida real estate agents.

Plans for a sixty-stall round house and other buildings to be erected in Albany on the grounds just purchased by the citizens for the OPR, are being prepared, and Mr. Hoag states that it is the intention of the company to build the round house of solid stone masonry. The road has been receiving many new cars and locomotives recently, and now have a large amount of rolling stock, which will require buildings to be erected to house the same during the winter.

Labouchere is getting a bit sarcastic on the eastern question. Hear him: "Whether Bulgaria will be Austrian, Russian, Turkish or Bulgarian is a matter that no more concerns us than whether Sitting Bull or Swimming Frog is chief of some tribe of red Indians in the Rocky mountain region. We fail to realize this because of the craze which leads us to imagine that our mission is to keep an eye upon Russia. We may keep an eye upon her, but can fortunately do no more."
