

The Daily Reporter.

D. C. IRELAND & CO. PUBLISHERS,

McMinnville, Or. - Oct. 18, 1886

The party at Lafayette last Friday night was a decided success.

Desirable town property for sale cheap. Inquire of E. Russ.

The Brown Bear, the finest five cent cigar in the market, at J. Harv. Henderson's city grocery store.

Mrs. B. F. Fuller has the thanks of the editor for many special favors which we duly and truly appreciate.

The temperance meeting at the opera house last night was very largely attended, and developed much interest.

Sheriff Harris passed through before 6:30 a. m. to-day, en route to Sheridan, apparently upon urgent business.

Pomona Grange will meet at McMinnville on the 30th day of October, at 10 a. m. All patrons are cordially invited to be present.

Wm. Holl and family made a flying trip to Portland Saturday, took in the fair, laid over Sunday, and is home at business this forenoon.

W. H. Bingham and wife attended quarterly meeting at Lafayette yesterday. Bro. Hoberg had them home in time for business this a. m.

Hon. David Goodsell, of Portland, spent Sunday in this city, a guest of the Central. He is delighted with his trip into the heart of this famous valley.

Miss Rosa Hembree is expected home this week from her eastern trip. Her arrival will increase the happiness of that household, where she has been so greatly missed by all.

The singing at the quarterly meeting at Lafayette yesterday was splendid. Our informant, who is a judge of good music, expressed particular delight in the bass solos by Dr. Littlefield.

Wm. Roof sent to this office last Saturday a sample of potatoes raised on his farm east of this city. There were six potatoes in the lot, which weighed twenty-two pounds; pretty good for such a dry season.

We have positive evidence of the fact that Old Hard Times is moving out of the city. Last week E. B. Fellows sold a fine black walnut set for $60, and several patterns of the finest carpetings, including body brussels.

Messrs. Whale & Galliher, of Salem, dealers in pianos and organs paid the Reporter a social call on Saturday last. Mr. Galliher is an old time friend and partner of the junior member of this firm. They returned to Salem in the afternoon.

UNCLE EZRA'S letters are having wholesome effect. People who wanted wall paper lost money last week by trying Portland a whack against home dealers. We are glad of it. Those who like their county paper, and read it seldom get nipped in such manner.

Messrs. Galloway and Cook, whose business relations have been of the most pleasant nature, have had to dissolve their co-partnership in consequence of so many business engagements upon Mr. Cook, in his hotel and other enterprises. Both are men of the high stamp, and everybody will wish them prosperity in life, no matter what they engage in. Mr. Gallo-way will continue at the warehouse.

Subscribe for the Reporter, and pay for it when you subscribe, and we will pledge ourselves to give you more news, for less money, than any other paper in the Willamette valley. The Daily will help the weekly 100 per cent.

Following invoice of fresh groceries received at the bakery:

Steel cut oat meal.	New Cal. walnuts.
Steel cut corn meal.	Kerk's soap.
California comb honey	Sultana raisins.
Split peas.	Orange and lemon peel.
Pearl Barley	Vermicelli and macaroni.
Can peaches (new.)	Yeast gems. Triticum
Pearline wash powder
Codfish.

J. Todd and wife, and Mrs. C. A. Wallace and daughter, Miss Cora, left for Portland last Wednesday. They expect to return to-day. During the absence of his wife and daughter Mr. Wallace has completely renovated their home, and made it more attractive by adding a fine brussels carpet to one of the sitting rooms, and furniture to match in other parts of the house. There will be a "surprised party" there to-day for a certainty.

It is with many regrets that we note the departure from our midst of Prof. C. F. Houghton, of the McMinnville business college. A letter from his home in California informs him that his mother is in feeble health, and requires his presence. During the brief stay of the professor among us, he has made many friends who wish him God speed on his journey. Mr. G. R. Higgins, of North Yamhill, has purchased Mr. Houghton's interest in the Business college, and will take possession forthwith.

"Every paper," said the late Hon. David Davis in a letter to an eastern literary paper, "every local paper gives from $100 to $5,000 in free lines for the benefit of the vicinity in which it is located. No other agency will or can do this. The editor in proportion to his means, does more for his own town than any other men. and in all fairness, man with man, he ought to be supported, not because you happen to like him or admire his writing, but because a local paper is the best investment a community can make. It may not be brilliant or full of great thoughts but financially it is more of a benefit to a community than preacher or teacher. Understand me, now, I do not mean morally or intellectually but financially, and yet on the moral question you will find the majority of the local papers on the right side of the question. Today the editors of the local papers do the most work for the least money of any men on earth. Subscribe for and advertise in your local paper, not as a charity, but as an investment.

Republican clerks in the departments at Washington are represented as being somewhat agitated by the approach of the fall elections. The question is whether they shall go home to vote. The democratic officials disclaim any interference on their part with the free will of the clerks in this respect, but at the same time there are indirect methods which can be employed to advantage. It is not charged by republican office holders that any such methods have been put into practice, but still they feel that the conditions are not altogether favorable.
