A DISTINCTION, BUT?

You go upon the board of trade,
Where margin merchants meet,
And take some little options,
On January wheat.
You watch the little ticker,
'Till the hands swing round the ring,
Then you find your little boodle
Has gone a-glimmering,
That's business.

You go into the frro bank
And buy a stack of chips,
And watch the cards come from the box,
Which the dealer deftly flips,
When your head is dull and aching,
At the breaking of the day,
You see the fickle fortune
Has gone the other way.
That's gambling.

New cheese, 15 cents a pound, at C. Grissen's.

Call at the St. Charles for the best two-bit meal in Oregon.

Jackson Munroe, of the Willamina mills, went to Portland yesterday.

Wanted, to rent a small dwelling in McMinnville. Inquire at this office.

Double XX strong hoarhound candy, best thing for a cold, at C. Grissen's.

If you want a man to work Multner always has one in mind at the St. Charles.

Jas. Tate is local agent for the People's Mutual Accident association of Pittsburg, Pa.

A. J. Baker and J. W. Baker leave for a hunting and fishing expedition to Tillamook to-day.

James McCain and L. H. Cook were in the raffle, at least they appeared on the streets yesterday in new suits.

Hon. Lee Laughlin was in the city and called yesterday. He will begin his closing out sale at auction next Saturday. See advertisement.

Hon. J. E. Magers has returned from his official legal trip to Ashland, more impressed than ever that old Yamhill is the best county in America.

John Wortman and D. C. Ireland have a shooting contest to-day at 11:30, the bank against The Reporter office, even up. Yesterday they were a tie.

Geo. W. Jones & Co. have started another paper in the city, The Alabastine Age. Subscribers get a cook stove and wash basin as a premium. The Age now has a circulation of 2,000,000 which is largely increased daily.

It is reported that Doc Chrisman was going to bring a colored domestic home with him from Missouri; but, as an old domestic told us, when upon a similar mission in Washington in 1881, "niggers fur servants aint so plentiful as dey wunst was, massa. Dey is too fly in dese here moddern days."

A large number of sympathising friends followed the remains of Boughton Everett Sanders to the depot yesterday, when they were conveyed to Amity for burial. A delegation of Odd Fellows, and firemen, and Custer Post band, were present. Appropriate music added to the touch of tenderness apparent. The Odd Fellows attended the mourning friends, Hon. J. R. Sanders and wife, father of deceased, brothers, and others, to Amity, where short services were conducted by Rev. G. J. Burchett, and the body was consigned to the tomb in the family burial lot. Rest in peace, generous, noble-hearted friend.

Subscribe for the Reporter, and pay for it when you subscribe, and we will pledge ourselves to give you more news, for less money, than any other paper in the Willamette valley. The Daily will help the weekly 100 per cent.

An ve salmon, nearly alive at least, was caught near the Salem mills at the capital on Monday. The poor thing was swimming around in the water below the mills, trying to get up into the flume, and one of the workmen mercifully killed it. The salmon appeared to be a veteran, for he had evidently been through the war. He was all scarred up; his scales were gone, one eye was weak, he had lost one of his ears, and the dorsal fin was missing. It is thought that the salmon was brought to this dilapidated condition by walking up the fish ladder at the falls. The rungs of the ladder are evidently too far apart, and the next assembly ought to be petitioned to remedy this defect.

As usual this fall Chas. H. Dodd & Co., are the first in the field. We should have referred to their ad. last week. This firm stands now as one of the established institutions of our metropolis. Mr. Dodd is a leading man at the board of trade, is the head of our state board of immigration, is one of the school directors of Portland, and with all his own immense business in hand finds time to assist public measures. It is needless to say that he is constantly increasing and building up the business of handling the very best of agricultural machinery and hardware. The rate their business grows is a fair index of the growth of Portland and the Pacific northwest. There is no man more popular in trade in the Oregon metropolis than Tom Scott, chief salesman with C. H. Dodd & Co. He has as many friends as he has acquaintances, for all are his friends. The firm handles general hardware, tools, farming implements and machinery, and wagons, and just now are selling thousands of those Moline and John Deere's plows of all sizes. Blackburn & Peckham are agents at Carlton.

MARRIED.

In this city, by Rev. J. S. White, of St. James (Catholic) church, Oct. 21, 1886, Prof. C. J. Payne and Miss M. M. Raymond, all of Bellevue.

Bud's friends, and they are legions wherever he is known, will extend congratulations on this happy event. The wedding was celebrated in the church after which a marriage dinner was served at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Bergevin. The list of presents were numerous and fine. The following friends contributing with best wishes: Mr. and Mrs. A. Fortier, cake stand and set of China; Mrs. Fortain (the bride's mother) and Mrs. Provost, China tea set; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Warren, glass fruit dish and cake stand, silver knives, forks and spoons; Mrs. Butler (mother of the groom), silver pickel dish and table linen; Mrs. H. Burns, paragon silver castor; H. Burns, set glass dishes; Mr. and Mrs. Galloway, silver napkin rings. The dinner was enlivened by the presence of Father White.
