D. C. IRELAND & CO. PUBLISHERS,
McMinnville, Or. - Oct. 26, 1886

Doc Crissman has gone to Trask for suckers.

Coon are plentiful. Billy Martin took one last night.

Will Logan has been duly installed as deputy in the post office.

Mrs. Dr. Saylor of Eugene city is a guest of Mrs. A. C. Chandler.

Wanted, to rent a small dwelling in McMinnville. Inquire at this office.

Paper ink stands, the thing for the boys at school; only ten cents, at Geo. W. Burt's.

Will H. Warren has returned to the steamer and is now making regular trips to Dayton.

Mrs. Francis, of Sandy, who has been visiting Mrs. Allie Houck, has returned to her home.

Hon. J. R. Sanders is reported very dangerously ill, from his old malady, at his home near amity.

Mrs. F. W. Redmond, Miss Lillie Ireland and others returned home to stay till spring, last Saturday.

J. B. Fletcher met with a very painful accident on Sunday, by being thrown from a bucking horse.

Mr. Nibbs, of N. & Bergevin, was in the city yesterday. He is employed at present upon a job in Portland.

All the news; at your door; six times a week; only ten cents; everybody reads it. The Daily Reporter.

Memorial services in memory of Bouty Sanders were largely attended at the Baptist church Sunday morning.

Mr. Stouffer, one of the thrifty farmers of Polk county, was in our city last week with a superb new carriage.

Candy pulling social at Grange hall Wednesday evening. You are specially invited by ladies of St. James guild.

Our city can now boast of as fine post office interior as any in the state, and boxes are only 25 cents per quarter.

A fine fat cow from Willamina was cut up at the Eurisko yesterday. She dressed 560 lbs., and they have five more like her.

Baxter & Martin are selling a full 5-lb. can of Java coffee for $1.00; and throw in a fine China hand-painted cup and saucer.

The pleasant and hospitable home of our fellow citizen Dr. Tucker again asserts its supremacy. Mrs. Tucker and the children returned on Saturday.

Thursday of this week being St. Simon and St. Jude day, service will be said at St. James church at 10 a. m. John C. Fair, rector.

Will a few friends of the Reporter who do not file the weekly edition, send us a few copies of the date of October 14th, 1886.

Dr. W. D. Baker, of Astoria, is up on a visit to his parents in this city. Dec is looking fine, but the silver threads are fast pre-empting the top of his cranium.

That Indian who was handcuffed at the depot and taken to Portland last Saturday, is supposed to know something about that "mysterious disappearance" at Grand Ronde in Sept. 1883.

Isadore Ertle has been granted a saloon license.

Advertisements and business intended for THE WEEKLY REPORTER should be handed in to-day.

An open temperance society was organized last evening at Grange hall. An anti-Saloon ticket for the city election was suggested, but nothing definitely accomplished.

W. V. Price is now president of the fire department, T. H. Rogers vice president; G. F. Tucker secretary; and C. W. Talmage treasurer. The meeting was held last evening.

Our Business college opens this week under favorable circumstances. Prof. Higgins will be found to be in every way equal to all emergencies. Give him from hearty support.

Hon. J. E. Magers returned from southern Oregon nearly closely shaven. When twitted for the loss of his chin whiskers he responded by saying that he was thankful to get back with any hair at all.

John Kirkwood has moved into the city and taken the house lately vacated by John Wortman. He comes to the city to avail himself of the superior advantages here offered for schooling his children.

While the Omaha Herald and others are still "worked up" over Gen. Miles, they shouldn't lose sight of the all-important fact in relation to Geronimo, that he is put where he can do no more harm.

Smokers are invited to call at Colard's Shooting Gallery and try his new five and ten cent cigars. He has the best brands in the market, including Ben. Fostner's Seed and Hull; Key West; Sterling; Natural leaf, etc.

It is reported around town that there is to be a city election in this municipality next week. Official information is needed to confirm the report. In view of the fact why wouldn't it be the caper for a few people to assemble at Fireman's hall, say to-morrow evening, and talk the matter over.

Several of the good ladies, of the city, with escorts, surprised another good citizen last evening, by calling for a social time at his residence. It was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Grissen and all present equal to the social of Saturday night tendered to Father White.

Mrs. Fellows, Father White and Mrs. Effie Braly acted as a committee at the rhetorical contest at the public school last Friday. Following was the report, with their per cent., of each competitor: Daisy Young, 95; Ralph Brown, 90; Jessie Young, 90; Raymond Satchwell, 80; Mary Clemmenson, 100; Cora Baker, 100; Ralph Storey, 85.

We are informed that the concert for the benefit of the Presbyterian church Sunday school was a superb and most successful affair. Each one did well, nobly acting their parts, but the effort of little Miss Calbreath, in a recitation of the railway train, is considered to have lead them all. The church was filled to overflowing, many going away who were unable to find seats.

Geo. C. Robison reached Camp Polk OK. He drove through about four or five inches of snow for about five miles on the summit. Away up there in the Great Inland Empire of Oregon far removed from the bustle and strife of active business, he found that the UPRCo have been grading and hauling in iron to secure the right of way to Minto pass. Workmen have since come down into the valley, for fear of getting snow bound.

It will not cause much astonishment to learn that one of the witnesses on whose new testimony the Chicago anarchists expected to procure a rehearing has confessed himself a perjurer. From top to bottom, the cause he was trying to serve is rotten. The idea of abolishing all government could find no lodgment in the mind of men who had not something to fear at the hands of organized justice. Association with theorists of this sort, particularly after they have exchanged theorizing for action and become outlaws, is bound to be contaminating

A mass meeting of the different Chautauqua circles of Portland was held last week. It was a pleasant and enjoyable occasion, and revived in the mind of Rev. Mr. Taylor a very agreeable reminiscence of the past. He was probably the only person in the audience that had a close, intimate, and personal acquaintance with Rev. Dr. Vincent, the originator of the Chautauqua, which is now said to number 100,000 pupils, or students, scattered all over this country and Europe as well. It is claimed that 500 persons graduate every year, that is, go through the course of reading laid out by the officers at head quarters.

The holiday number of The West Shore, in addition to containing numerous fine colored engravings, will be accompanied by a magnificent picture of Mt. Hood, printed in eight colors. It is something everyone who has seen the noble Monarch of the Cascades will desire to possess, and it can only be had by subscribing for the magazine, as the supplement will be sent to yearly subscribers only. The publisher announces that this picture and the October, November and December numbers of this year will be sent free to all who subscribe now for 1887. The West Shore is now in its thirteenth successful year of publication, ranks with the first-class magazines of the union, and is the only one on the Pacific coast publishing original illustrations. The subscription price is $2.00 per year. L. Samuel, publisher, Portland, Oregon.

Challenge.

Editor Reporter:
Please oblige me by publishing this challenge. I will run Wm. Martin, of McMinnville, a 75 yard or 100 yard race for $500 a side, on any track in Oregon, within three weeks after the race is made. EDWARD REA.
