THE TRULY WISE.

From store to store
We hurry o'er
The city's ample space,
And ever find
The merchant mind
Awake in every place,
The dull, slow creeping days are past,
And enterprise is crowned at last!

What ills betide
The men who hide
Their lights—if such men be!
Those poor, supine,
Who think a "sign"

The world will surely see!
Some will, of course, but many won't;
Don't trust a "sign," then, merchant, don't!

The truly wise—
Still advertise,
For that's a "sign" indeed,
Which in and out
Will go about,
Till tens of thousands read
Your name, your business, thus are known,
And enterprise exclaims: "My own!"

Miles Hendrick has at last settled down to business in Astoria.

J. L. Ladd of Amity was in the city yesterday enjoying the rain storm.

Ladies', mens', boys' and girls rubber boots and overshoes at G. E. Detmering's.

Henderson Bros. took in over 1,200 bushels of finest quality oats yesterday at 35 cents.

J. A. C. Freund took in North Yamhill yesterday with a buggy, and the rain took him in likewise.

James Harvey has had a very enjoyable visit in the city this week with old time friends, J. Harvey and Will Henderson.

Don't forget that it takes cash to run a newspaper, and that subscription accounts, though small, ought to be paid promptly.

Baxter & Martin are selling a full 5-lb. can of Java coffee for $1.00; and throw in a fine China hand-painted cup and saucer.

All members of the Band of Hope are requested to be on hand at the M. E. church, Saturday at 2 o'clock, to make arrangements for a concert.

Butter, 40 to 50 cts.; eggs, 25 to 30; hams, 14 to 15; shoulders, 8 to 9; sides, 10 to 11; potatoes, 50 to 60 cents per bushel; chickens, $2 to $2.70 per dozen; green apples, 25 to 50 cts. per box.

That was a welcome shower yesterday afternoon and evening. It was such a rain as makes a mans coat shrink upon him. The plows can all work in Yamhill county now.

The taffy social at Grange hall was not badly demoralized by the storm. Every one present enjoyed it. The ladies of St. James Episcopal church deserve all praise for their efforts to please, under all circumstances.

Smokers are invited to call at Colard's Shooting Gallery and try his new five and ten cent cigars. He has the best brands in the market, including Ben. Foster's Seed and Hull; Key West; Sterling; Natural leaf, etc.

And now comes the report from Albany that a sick salmon has been captured there. He had turned gray in spots in his pilgrimage up the river, his dorsal fin was missing, and he appeared generally rheumatic.

The Grange hall meeting Monday night adjourned to meet to-morrow night and place an anti-saloon ticket in the field.

Peter Grant won the Astoria foot race by four feet. Five thousand dollars changed hands on the result. His competitor was Geo. Noland.

All Indian war veterans are specially invited to be in Portland Nov. 3d, where arrangements have been made for them to attend the address of Hon. Elwood Evans.

There are now in all three hundred and sixty-one lock boxes in the McMinnville postoffice, and everybody can be accommodated with one at the astonishingly low rate of twenty-five cents per quarter.

Messrs. Colby and Crossett are the guests of B. F. Fuller while in the city. They go from here to Salem, and will be in attendance at the state convention of Spiritualists. Remember the lecture at the Opera house this evening. Seats free.

John Wortman visited Salem on Tuesday, in company with Supt. Freund. He reports the capitol city actively engaged in the work of emancipating itself from the innocuous insinuation so many years characteristic of its most able-bodied citizens.

Revolver Lost.

On the road between McMinnville and Sheridan, Monday night, October 25th, a Smith & Wesson 5-shooter revolver. The finder will be suitably rewarded on leaving the same at this office.

Challenge.

Editor Reporter:
Please oblige me by publishing this challenge. I will run Wm. Martin, of McMinnville, a 75 yard or 100 yard race for $500 a side, on any track in Oregon, within three weeks after the race is made. EDWARD REA.
Astoria, Oregon.

Gun Lost or Stolen.

October 25th, from my wagon between McMinnville and my shingle camp 17 miles northwest of town. A 45-70 Marlin rifle, new, boxed, with gun cover and two boxes of shells. It is supposed the gun was taken by a couple of tramps who begged a ride. A suitable reward will be paid for the recovery of the same, left at the gun shop of W. F. Collard, in McMinnville. Henry Dunzer.

A Bargain.

The Exchange hotel of North Yamhill, containing twenty-two rooms in all, two stories high, is offered for sale for cash, or exchange for real estate. The house is well known to the traveling public, and doing a good business. The present proprietor's reason for selling is that he is too far advanced in age to attend to it, and is determined to sell if an opportunity is offered, even at a sacrifice. In fact he is bound to sell if a customer comes. North Yamhill is as rapidly improving town as any on the west side, is the center of a large trade, the starting point for Tillamook bay, the resort for hunters and sportsmen in the summer season, and this is the best chance for a good man in the whole state. For further particulars address this office, or apply to J. Delap, North Yamhill, Oregon.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Watch This Art Gallery.

This is the time of year when Merchants all begin to show low prices. We realize that permanent trade cannot be made unless one has the correct styles and correct prices. We are selling goods at astonishingly low prices on the merits of our wares. We know that there are no better styles of Clothing, no better fitting, no better made than ours, and we believe that no one in McMinnville is selling Clothing as cheaply as we are.

We only ask an inspection of our goods and a comparison of prices.
