D. C. IRELAND & CO. PUBLISHERS,
McMinnville, Or. - Nov 1, 1886

City election day.
Vote for Wortman.
Mr. Galloway delines.
We do not need any cranks to run the McMinnville ship of state.
W. H. Bingham is now on the sick list, but is improving.
Vote for no man who is opposed to Aunt Polly and Uncle Ezra.
Do n't ask any questions. Read your ticket and vote as you please.
Voters; do your duty to-day. The eyes of all nations are turned upon McMinnville this morning. Behold the statue, while we take the LIBERTY of ENLIGHTENING THE WORLD that the place to get your printing is from

Do not neglect UNCLE EZRA to-day. Read what he has to say. Read it all. It will do you much good.

Two beautiful babes, sons of A. V. R. Snyder and Holt Turner, were baptised at St. James church, by Rev. Mr. Fair, Yesterday morning.

A. J. and J. W. Baker returned from Trask river on Saturday well paid for the trip. The crippled horse, left out there last summer, was returned all right.

Last Friday and Saturday nights forty-eight cars were loaded with wheat at McMinnville warehouses for Allen and Lewis. Some of it had been sold some time.

Rev. Mr. Fair held services at Sheridan yesterday afternoon. It was a pretty hard ride, so far, and return in half a day and evening, as he was compelled to, in consequence of illness of Mrs. Fair.

Protect the shade trees against ruin from cattle and horses. That one at the corner near the First National bank needs a box. In time, if protected, it will be more valuable than the buildings surrounding it.

The city was active last Saturday with people from all parts of the county. Stores did a good business, and thirty more persons took dinner at the St. Charles than upon any previous day last week. That's business.

Through business begins to-day on the narrow gauge. A steamer supplies the missing link below Elk rock. By the way: How much longer is this little railway enterprise to be bedeviled by the dog in the manger policy of Portland obstructionists, lead by the Oregonian, preventing this road from entering the metropolis? Can they not now see the wisdom of fools abandoning folly?

Collection day.
First of the month.
Tommy Kay, of Sheridan, was in the city yesterday.
Call at the Eurisko Market this a. m. Uncle Jephtha has something fine for you. And while there observe those magnificent new meat blocks, connected by a beautiful marble slab, adorned with choice cuts that are tempting to the palate of an epicurean. It is a general invitation to a feast.

If the west side engine used at the station in this city last Friday and Saturday evenings had as much as a ball of candle-wicking added to its escape leak pipe, to stop that whistling noise, people in that neighborhood would not have become so "tired" as they did listening to the never ending nuisance.

The robbers at Ashland, Wisconsin, reversed the matter. They locked the cashier in the vault, took his money, and went to Canada themselves.

Having recovered his health and returned to work, Secretary Manning now issues an order directing all employees of the treasury department who on account of illness, are represented by substitutes, to report in person or lose their entire pap during absence. His own long leave probably gave him an opportunity to study the evils of the present system.

Revolver Lost.

On the road between McMinnville and Sheridan, Monday night, October 25th, a Smith & Wesson 5-shooter revolver. The finder will be suitably rewarded on leaving the same at this office.

Citizen's Ticket.

Following is the ticket placed in nomination Saturday night at Firemens hall, by many citizens there assembled without respect to party:

For Mayor, Jacob Wortman.
For Recorder, J. J. Spencer.
For Marshal, Geo. W. Kauffman.
For Councilmen, William Campbell, C. D. Johnson, William Holl, Geo. W. Jones, Charles Palmer, D. C. Narver.

Anti-Saloon Ticket.

From the Daily, Oct. 30th.

At a called meeting of temperance citizens held at Grange hall last evening, the following ticket was placed in nomination for city officers:

For mayor, Hon. Wm. Galloway.
For Recorder, B. F. Fuller.
For marshal, J. O. Rogers.
For councilman, Rev. E. Russ, J. W. Gault, W. T. Baxter, W. D. Wright, L. Root and H. A. Tucker.

A Bargain.

The Exchange hotel of North Yamhill, containing twenty-two rooms in all, two stories high, is offered for sale for cash, or exchange for real estate. The house is well known to the traveling public, and doing a good business. The present proprietor's reason for selling is that he is too far advanced in age to attend to it, and is determined to sell if an opportunity is offered, even at a sacrifice. In fact he is bound to sell it if a customer comes. North Yamhill is as rapidly improving town as any on the west side, is the center of a large trade, the starting point for Tillamook bay, the resort for hunters and sportsmen in the summer season, and this is the best chance for a good man in the whole state. For further particulars address this office, or apply to J. Delap, North Yamhill, Oregon.

Hear Our Gentle Voice.

To bust the town.
Oppose improvements.
Mistrust its public men.
Run it down to strangers.
Lengthen your face when a stranger talks of locating in it.

If a man wants to buy your property charge him two prices.

If he wants to buy anybody else, interfere and discourage him.

Refuse to see any merit in the scheme that does not directly benefit you.

If you can't hog everything, judge everybody by yourself, and accuse them of doing it.

Do not support the Reporter. Explain to the editor how much better and cheaper the New York Herald or World is.

But if you really have the interest of your home in view, and want the place to grow and prosper, take our advice and

Don't fret.

Talk about it.

Write about it.

Beautify the streets.

Patronize the merchants.

Be friendly to everybody.

Advertise in The Reporter.

Elect good men to all the offices.

Don't grumble about hard times.

Keep your sidewalks in good repair.

Avoid gossip about your neighbors.

Do your trading with your home merchants.

Sell all you can and buy all you can at home.

If you are rich, invest something; employ somebody, be a "rustler."

If you don't think of any good word don't say anything about anybody.

Remember that every dollar invested in permanent improvement is that much on interest.

Be courteous to strangers that come among you, so that they may go away with good impressions.

Always cheer on the men who go in for improvements, your portion of the cost will be nothing only what is just.

Don't kick at any proposed necessary improvement because it is not at your door or for fear that your taxes will be raised fifty cents.

Don't use rubber stamps on your letter heads, that is a dead give away on your business, on the town and the live newspaper published in it. Get your letter heads, envelopes, business cards, etc., printed at the Reporter office.

Never condemn the Reporter unless it has fairly misused you. If it has dealt with you unjustly write to us, or come to the office and tell the editor about your case, if he is wrong he will lose no time in telling the public about it.

Remember that no man does as much for your town as the editor. Every paper sent out is an advertisement of the business, the resources and enterprise of the place; and people abroad get a better idea of it from the Reporter than from any other source.

Ever since we came here we have begged the farmers to write for the Reporter. A county paper to be complete should have news for all interested, and pray who in this county are more interested for what is enlightening to them in their calling than the farmers?

Every lady not in health should consult Dr. Turner, International hotel, Portland.

Advertisers can take their choice, either daily or weekly, at the same old rate. No advance in the price. We've come to stay, if you say so.

Pears are splendid, and apples very cheap, but potatoes are a little scarce.
