NEWS AND NOTES.

One of Hank Vaughn's old friends robbed him of $600 while he was asleep in his room at Walla Walla. McIntyre, the thief, had been befriended by Hank that night. He was caught, but had spent $150 of the boodle.

Col. Frank Parker of the Statesman, will most likely be appointed register of the land office at Walla Walla. Senator Dolph has strongly endorsed him. The office is worth $3,000, a little billet not to be sneezed at these piping times of low salaries.

Work has been suspended at the mills of Jones & Co. up in the mountains for the winter, and Messrs. Flett and family, Beecher Walker and wife, and all the hands are now in the city. Mr. and Mrs. Flett will not remain in the valley.

There are no facts or conditions which justify republican support of protection democrats for congress. A protection democrat is an anachronism, the appellation is a misnomer. The man who opposes the great central tenet of his party's creed should get out and unite with those with whom his views accord.

Now that Geronimo has decided to take up his residence in Florida, we venture to hope that the democrats of that state will no longer be inconsolable for the absence of their distinguished senior senator, the Hon. Charles W. Jones. Time, at last, makes all things even.

The K. of L. made a mistake in not letting the fate of the condemned anarchists severely alone. They had no occasion for any reference to men with whom they have nothing in common. The resolution that they adopted will be a powerful weapon in the hands of their enemies.

A Portland paper says that the success which attends Dr. Turner is something wonderful. During the week he has straightened quite a number of patients who have been crosseyed from birth. His process is painless, and the patient runs no risk of injury to the eyes. Those afflicted in this manner should not fail to see this eminent physician while he is in Portland.

There is to be a band tournament at Pendleton, June 23, 24 and 25, 1887, open to all amateur bands in Oregon, Washington territory and Idaho. There will be $1,200 given in premiums as follows: First premium, $400; second, $200; third, $200, and $200 first premiums, $150 second, and $50 third for boy bands. The entrance fee will be $1.50 for each member of bands wishing to compete. If our band gets in it can waltz away with the first prize in good shape. This city always did possess the "boss" band of the state, and it should enter the contest and not lose its reputation. We will assist a move in that direction.
