

The Daily Reporter.

THE WEEKLY REPORTER.

Without any brag or bluster THE WEEKLY REPORTER reached its patrons October 21st enlarged in size and otherways improved. If all who are indebted will pay up, by New Years day we will give further evidences of what is in store for our readers. Ask your neighbor to subscribe. We are sending the paper from this date until January 1st, 1888 (fifteen months nearly), to YOU and TO YOUR NEIGHBOR, two copies for $1.50 each, when cash accompanies the order, provided you are not in arrears for papers already furnished you. Call and see us always when in the city.

Show the Weekly Reporter to your neighbor and ask him to become a subscriber. Two copies, to separate addresses if desired, one year $3.00.

NEWS AND NOTES.

Feed chopped every Friday at the Barnekoff & Co warehouse in McMinnville.

Every lady not in health should consult Dr. Turner, International hotel, Portland.

We will take your order for a Victor fire proof family safe. See advertisement in Weekly Reporter.

Dr. Turner is performing remarkable operations and cures at the International hotel, Portland.

Don't forget that it takes cash to run a newspaper, and that subscription accounts, though small, ought to be paid promptly.

Butter, 40 to 50 cts.; eggs, 25 to 30; hams, 12 to 13; shoulders, 8 to 10, sides 10 to 11; potatoes, 50 to 60 cents per bushel; chickens, $2 to $2.75 per dozen; green apples, 20 to 25 cts. per box.

Subscribe for the Reporter, and pay for it when you subscribe, and we will pledge ourselves to give you more news, for less money, than any other paper in the Willamette valley. The Daily will help the weekly 100 per cent.

The newspaper of the day, the successful journal of the future is the journal that trusts to the intelligence of its readers; that avoids foolish controversy; that gives all the news in the freshest and most reliable shapes; that stamps integrity in every column of its pages, and that advances with the matchless progress of the best civilization and the best government of the earth; and right here you have it for only ten cents a week, daily; five cents weekly.

Announcements of births, marriages and deaths are always published, when furnished, without charge, but they must be handed in in writing. This is the invariable rule in all newspaper offices and from it there is no deviation. Other items of information a reporter will run after from one end of town to the other, but yell, bell and knell notices have to be furnished. So the next time you get married or are born, don't get mad if there is no notice. You have no one to blame but yourself.
