Seasonable Suggestions.

The maples bursting into flame set all the hills afire,
And summer, from her evergreens, sees Paradise draw nigher;
A thousand sunsets all at once distill like Hermon's dew.
And linger on the waiting woods, stain them through and through,
As if all the earth had blossomed out, one grand Corinthian flower,
To crown Time's graceful capital for just one gorgeous hour!

The coroner's inquest will be resumed at Lafayette on Monday.

Ed Willis has returned to Yamhill, bringing with him some relatives from Canada.

James, Homer and Tom Kirkwood have returned from their hunt a few miles beyond Scio. They killed six deer.

At the open Temperance meeting Monday evening, at Grange hall, officers will be chosen for the ensuing term.

Advertisers can take their choice, either daily or weekly, at the same old rate. No advance in the price. We've come to stay, if you say so.

Dr. Goucher was called yesterday to attend James Cone's little daughter seven years old near this city, who was badly burned while playing with fire.

Andy Shuck is a little late in launching his boat for Salt river, but the craft is ready for the voyage to-day. It is now on inspection at Keller's market.

Marion county will probably have a bad murder case on her hands if reports from Gervais are true. It is said that the man reported kicked to death by a horse was brutally murdered.

Firemen's hall is draped in mourning for thirty days, and resolutions of condolence passed, in memory of B. E. Sanders deceased, president of Eclipse engine and Star hose companies.

It is said that Marple, one of the men suspected in the Corker murder, has been arrested on a charge foreign to this, which will detain him until further investigation settles some points still in doubt as to his guilt.

Joseph Watt, of Arpity, sold his apples on the trees, and that when they were accounted for, it was found that the orchard paid him over a $100 per acre. No wonder he was hunting a nurseryman at the mechanics' fair to buy 10,000 fruit trees.

Yesterday a pair of kingfishers flew through town with the swiftness of an arrow. They parted company at the intersection of Third and C streets, when one of them darted against the window of H. H. Welch's place and fell to the ground. It was picked up and caged.

David Irwin Corker.

A friend of the murdered man, and an old partner in business with him, John W. Baker of this city, inform us that Mr. Corker was born in Albany New York, in 1829, went to California in 1849, landing at San Francisco the same year. Assisted in surveying R. R. route across the isthmus of Panama, also worked at his trade for a short time in Chile. Came to Oregon first in 1863. Mined in California and Idaho considerably, went from this county to Washington territory in 1869. Returned to this county in 1874, and remained here since. He lived at the Dalles for some time, was well known there, was a carpenter by trade.

Important Stock Sale.

Posters are out for an auction sale of fat and thoroughbred stock by Mills & Howe at their Mount Stewart farm near North Yamhill on Saturday Nov. 13th. The sale includes sixty head of all ages including fifteen head suitable for the butcher. Terms cash, or approved notes at 10 per cent.

A Bargain.

The Exchange hotel of North Yamhill, containing twenty-two rooms in all, two stories high, is offered for sale for cash, or exchange for real estate. The house is well known to the traveling public, and doing a good business. The present proprietor's reason for selling is that he is too far advanced in age to attend to it, and is determined to sell if an opportunity is offered, even at a sacrifice. In fact he is bound to sell it if a customer comes. North Yamhill is as rapidly improving town as any on the west side, is the center of a large trade, the starting point for Tillamook bay, the resort for hunters and sportsmen in the summer season, and this is the best chance for a good man in the whole state. For further particulars address this office, or apply to J. Delap, North Yamhill, Oregon.

Watch This Art Gallery.

This is the time of year when Merchants all begin to show low prices. We realize that permanent trade cannot be made unless one has the correct styles and correct prices. We are selling goods at astonishingly low prices on the merits of our wares. We know that there are no better styles of Clothing, no better fitting, no better made than ours, and we believe that no one in McMinnville is selling Clothing as cheaply as we are.

We only ask an inspection of our goods and a comparison of prices.
