Hear Our Gentle Voice.

To bust the town.

Oppose improvements.

Mistrust its public men.

Run it down to strangers.

Lengthen your face when a stranger talks of locating in it.

If a man wants to buy your property charge him two prices.

If he wants to buy anybody else, interfere and discourage him.

Refuse to see any merit in the scheme that does not directly benefit you.

If you can't hog everything, judge everybody by yourself, and accuse them of doing it.

Do not support the Reporter. Explain to the editor how much better and cheaper the New York Herald or World is.

But if you really have the interest of your home in view, and want the place to grow and prosper, take our advice and

Don't fret.

Talk about it.

Write about it.

Beautify the streets.

Patronize the merchants.

Be friendly to everybody.

Advertise in The Reporter.

Elect good men to all the offices.

Don't grumble about hard times.

Keep your sidewalks in good repair.

Avoid gossip about your neighbors.

Do your trading with your home merchants.

Sell all you can and buy all you can at home.

If you are rich, invest something; employ somebody, be a "rustler."

If you don't think of any good word don't say anything about anybody.

Remember that every dollar invested in permanent improvement is that much on interest.

Be courteous to strangers that come among you, so that they may go away with good impressions.

Always cheer on the men who go in for improvements, your portion of the cost will be nothing only what is just.

Don't kick at any proposed necessary improvement because it is not at your door or for fear that your taxes will be raised fifty cents.

Don't use rubber stamps on your letter heads, that is a dead give away on your business, on the town and the live newspaper published in it. Get your letter heads, envelopes, business cards, etc., printed at the Reporter office.

Never condemn the Reporter unless it has fairly misused you. If it has dealt with you unjustly write to us, or come to the office and tell the editor about your case, if he is wrong he will lose no time in telling the public about it.

Remember that no man does as much for your town as the editor. Every paper sent out is an advertisement of the business, the resources and enterprise of the place; and people abroad get a better idea of it from the Reporter than from any other source.

THE ART OF ADVERTISING.

Here is a little catechism from a paper devoted to advertisers, and it contains the sum and total of the art:

What is advertising? The art of exciting curiosity.

What is curiosity? A feeling of inquisitiveness, which nothing short of an investigation will satisfy.

What is the result of creating this feeling? Prosperity and riches to the advertiser.

Who are the most inquisitive people in the world? Americans. Therefore, if you would succeed in advertising, excite curiosity, and you will hit the mark every time.
