

NEWS AND NOTES.

It is said that when Gen. Spinner was treasurer of the United States he used to honor some of the prettiest young lady clerks in his office by having their features given to some of the goddesses that graced the currency.

Prince Louis Napoleon, who is expected to visit Washington will make his home while he is there with Jerome Bonaparte. He cannot be entertained by the representatives of his own country in Washington because he is a scion of the former royal family of France, though himself but twice removed from being the claimant to the throne.

Miss Helen Dauvray, the actress, made a fortune by investing in mining stocks the savings from her salary as a "child star" in California. She then studied dramatic art in France for five years. She speaks French like a Parisian, and Mr. Bronson Howard is delighted with the way in which she sets his play, "One of Our Girls," on the stage and impersonates its heroine.

The New York Tribune pronounces the hanging of R. E. Sproule of Victoria a judicial murder. The whole circumstances are so extraordinary and so suggestive of everything but justice that it is in order to inquire whether a man would have been thus shamefully put to death where there is so much reason to believe he did not merit it had it not been a citizen of the United States.

A great many suppose that the Marine band of Washington is one of the Presidents perques. This is a mistake. The band enjoy all perquisites, and they are very insignificant. Gen. Grant is the only president that ever favored this band. The leader gets $1,600 per year and he works like a blacksmith to earn that. It is not a sinecure. Considering that this band and the West Point band are the only two bands, as such, that the government supports, we think it ought to be better supported. That it is not makes it hard work to fill a vacancy when one occurs with a first class man.

A Monument is to be erected to Schuyler Colfax in Indianapolis by Odd Fellows. Mr. Colfax was the founder of the degree of Rebekah, and it is proposed to make this monument commemorative of that fact. The design is a bronze statue set on a pedestal of granite. The latter will be triangular in shape, symbolizing the fundamental principles of the order. A bronze medallion of Rebekah at the well will be placed in the die, the whole to be completed by the 10th of May. The accidents and incidents of politics have nearly erased the name of Schuyler Colfax from the political records of the country, and it seems likely that he will be longer remembered in connection with this degree in Odd Fellowship than through any other act with which he was identified.
