If we have accused any man of entertaining public spirited notions in this city, who does not, we apologise to the community.

We are plesed to know that there is a wholesome feeling in this city favorable to the progressive idea of pure water, clean streets and decent drainage.

Mrs. Robert Gray of Corvallis, mother of Mrs. M. Shadden of this city, has returned to her home after a very pleasant visit with her daughter in McMinnville.

Through the efforts of a couple of the most enterprising persons whose innate modesty prevents us giving full and proper credit, the Baptist college is in receipt of a goodly supply of apparatus for chemical and physical instruction.

Frank Spencer went to Portland Saturday to see his little boy, who is under treatment by Dr. Jones for an affection of the leg, below the knee. It is said the little fellow will have to submit to a very painful operation, and a portion of the bone will have to be removed.

There was a good turn out of the P. of H. Saturday at a meeting of McMinnville grange. The weather was finer for getting together and talking over matters than it was for deep plowing, as the ground was not any too wet for the latter, and the warm sun lured people out en masse all over the county for social chats.

The little daughter of Mr. Cone reported so badly burned last week while playing with fire as to call for Dr. Goucher's attendance, died Saturday afternoon and was buried on the day following. The little sufferer was throwing bits of paper into a fire place to see them ascend the chimney, when its clothes took fire. The body was fearfully burned before assistance could reach her.

It is a matter to feel proud of that the McMinnville public school has secured the Centennial Charts to aid the proper instruction of physiology and hygiene. In no manner without them the effects of alcohol upon the human system be explained, and this one fact alone justifies the purchase. We are informed that our schools are the only ones outside of Portland and Salem fortunate enough to secure these charts in Oregon.

Will W. Brooks is making a capital paper of the West Side.

The Lacamas paper mill was destroyed by fire Saturday. Loss $95,000; insurance $45,000.

B. W. McPhilips has purchased Sand cape, which is to become a sea coast resort. The nearest postoffice is Woods, Tillamook county.

John Hulery remained at Joseph until his son returned, then had a good visit, and reached home Saturday. He has fallen in love with the Willowa valley.

The mid-day storm yesterday was cold and damp, as if it started a snow then tried to turn to a rain and finally fizzled altogether. The sun was shining again in ten minutes.

A murder about as bad as that of D. I. Corker was committed last Friday night in the basement of the Villard at Portland. The murdered man was from the NPR front. No clue.

Miss Cora Bogue has returned from teaching the pioneer school at Woods. Mr. Malaney settled in there alone eleven years ago; now they have two schools, and Union cast one hundred votes at the last election.

Jones & Co's. mill dam will be 26 feet high and 60 feet across, supported by timbers 12x12. It will be a reservoir for logs. When this is finished and the sheds up for fine lumber, the mill will again start up for the winter.

J. W. Angell, who skipped from Walla Walla with Jackson and wife, leaving his own family penniless, is said to be a bad egg. He has deserted his family six times, always heretofore returning with professions of penitence and promises of reform. It is time Mrs. let him owt for good, and returned to her parents in Yamhill county.

Visitors to Newport last summer were regaled with visits to the attractive school house as a significant sign of the progress of the place. It turns out to be a reservoir and a smoke house combined. The News speaks of it thus: "Above and around all the windows on the sides exposed to the storm, the water came through and run down in streams; and down the chimneys, also, the rain descended in sufficient quantities to extinguish the fire and to fill the room densely with smoke. We understand that those chimneys have chronic tendency to act in this way; that every time the wind blows they are prone to draw at the wrong end."

Our information is to the effect that the coroners jury did not complete its work yesterday. Opinion strengthened by circumstances indicates that Marple is the man.

Important Stock Sale.

Posters are out for an auction sale of fat and thoroughbred stock by Mills & Howe at their Mount Stewart farm near North Yamhill on Saturday Nov. 13th. The sale includes sixty head of all ages including fifteen head suitable for the butcher. Terms cash, or approved notes at 10 per cent.

A Bargain.

The Exchange hotel of North Yamhill, containing twenty-two rooms in all, two stories high, is offered for sale for cash, or exchange for real estate. The house is well known to the traveling public, and doing a good business. The present proprietor's reason for selling is that he is too far advanced in age to attend to it, and is determined to sell if an opportunity is offered, even at a sacrifice. In fact he is bound to sell if a customer comes. North Yamhill is as rapidly improving town as any on the west side, is the center of a large trade, the starting point for Tillamook bay, the resort for hunters and sportsmen in the summer season, and this is the best chance for a good man in the whole state. For further particulars address this office, or apply to J. Delap, North Yamhill, Oregon.

Watch This Art Gallery.

This is the time of year when Merchants all begin to show low prices. We realize that permanent trade cannot be made unless one has the correct styles and correct prices. We are selling goods at astonishingly low prices on the merits of our wares. We know that there are no better styles of Clothing, no better fitting, no better made than ours, and we believe that no one in McMinnville is selling Clothing as cheaply as we are.

We only ask an inspection of our goods and a comparison of prices.
