KATIE CASEY, Teacher.

A Portland hunter afflicted with an impediment in his speech, took dinner at a Hillsboro hotel and calling to a waiter, addressed him thus: "We-w-waiter, gi-give me s-s-some r-r-roast b-b-beef." The waiter stammered out in reply; "We-w-we a-ain't g-got any." At which the gentleman, highly enraged, supposing the servant was mocking him, sprang from his seat, and was proceeding to knock him down, when Uncle Dick Wiley arrested his arm, and cried to him not to strike, saying: "He st-st-stutters s-s-same as w-w-e d-d-do."

Our opinion of J. M. Garrison, of Moscow, Idaho, is the same as that we have of any other man who does not pay for the paper he takes; it is that he is a contemptible, rectangular specimen of impecuniosity, and if we owned a hen house anywhere in this neighborhood we should see that it was kept securely locked. All this is based on the fact that he repudiates paying for the Reporter which he has received from us for fifteen months.

Received at the bakery from San Francisco via Yaquina:
4 bags C. R. coffee No. 1 sells 6 1/4 lbs. for $1.
4 " Rio " " 6 do. " 1.
2 chests Eng breakfast T in bulk sells at 50c.
2 " uncolored Japan " sells at 50c. lb
4 sacks Chili walnuts, new crop " 20c "
1 bbl Folgers' roast coffee, No. 1 " 25c "
2 chests " ground " papers " 20c "
These goods are all strictly choice, give them a trial. Remember at C. Grissen's.

The Eugene city Register says: Dr. J. W. Watts is prominently mentioned as the man to be elected president of the next senate. It will be a bitter pill for some of his enemies but they may have to swallow it.

Miss Belle Johnson, teacher of music in McMinnville and at McMinnville college, residence corner of Second and 2nd streets.

A Business Proposition to Everybody.

Having the most complete and best selected stock of goods on the west side, outside of Portland, as conceded by all commercial men, and my facilities for buying being equal to or better than any house here, I am prepared to furnish you with Dry Goods, Clothing, Gents' Furnishing Goods, Boots and Shoes, Groceries, Glassware and Crockery, at prices as low or lower than any house outside of Portland, and if you buy upon same terms as you do when you go to Portland, buy in quantities paying cash, I engage to compete with the retail houses of Portland on the same class of goods, save and except Sugar, Salt and such goods as freight figures up on so that it cannot be done. This does not apply to some cheney houses who would bait you by selling some special article at a sacrifice, and making it up on some other articles. IT SHALL BE STRAIGHT BUSINESS. I especially invite purchasers, to call and make an inspection of the goods and price, before buying elsewhere. All goods marked down during clearance sale will be sold at clearance sale prices. Prices of all goods will be plainly marked on them, and no clerk is authorized to make any cut or deviation on them, and will be discharged for doing so before he has authority. SMALL PROFITS AND QUICK RETURNS IS THE MOTTO. CASH IN HAND OR SHORT CREDITS MUST BE THE RULE. A. J. APPERSON.

All persons indebted to me to call and settle their account immediately. F. W. REDMOND.

Important Stock Sale.

Posters are out for an auction sale of fat and thoroughbred stock by Mills & Howe at their Mount Stewart farm near North Yamhill on Saturday Nov. 13th. The sale includes sixty head of all ages including fifteen head suitable for the butcher. Terms cash, or approved notes at 10 per cent.

A Bargain.

The Exchange hotel of North Yamhill, containing twenty-two rooms in all, two stories high, is offered for sale for cash, or exchange for real estate. The house is well known to the traveling public, and doing a good business. The present proprietor's reason for selling is that he is too far advanced in age to attend to it, and is determined to sell if an opportunity is offered, even at a sacrifice. In fact he is bound to sell it if a customer comes. North Yamhill is as rapidly improving town as any on the west side, is the center of a large trade, the starting point for Tillamook bay, the resort for hunters and sportsmen in the summer season, and this is the best chance for a good man in the whole state. For further particulars address this office, or apply to J. Delap, North Yamhill, Oregon.
