Our Farmers Club.

Butter, butter, nice and fair;
How I wonder what you are;
Are you really what you seem?
Were you made of grease or cream?

Exchange your scrubs for thoroughbred or high grade farm stock.

Deep tillage means enlarged resources when practiced in heavy lands. Fine fresh cranberries at the bakery this morning.

Best job printing in the county at the lowest prices.

Wm. Chapman of Sheridn, passed through yesterday homeward.

That ham has mysteriously disappeared from Hodson's store front.

Miss Nora Hendrick and Miss Sarah Osborn of Wheatland, are visiting in the city.

Mrs. Mulkey of Puget sound is visiting her father and mother in college addition.

W. H. Bingham yesterday received eleven cases of fine furniture and coffins from the east.

Baxter & Martin have the finest line of tea and coffee in the city. Call and sample the lot.

J. R. Whalen of Portland, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hembree of this city last Sunday.

The Guild of St. James (Episcopal) church will hold a fair on Thursday evening, December 1st.

Call and see those new walnut bedsteads at W. H. Bingham's furniture store, direct from Chicago.

We regret to hear that Blackburn & Peckham of Carlton are shut up by Portland creditors. Liabilities, $8,000.

The Weekly Reporter, a faithful and complete compendium of the week's news, is furnished for 16 1/2 cents a month.

The Albany Herald is now taking dispatches daily. Thus it is the country press keeps ahead of The Times in Oregon.

Marple waived examination and was remanded to the custody of the sheriff yesterday, to await the action of the grand jury.

A special meeting of the ladies St. James (Episcopal) church will be held this Friday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at Mrs. Detmering's.

Bynum, Nash and one other came in yesterday with lumber from the mountains. They report considerable rain but little snow.

Hon. A. Hinmam, of Forest Grove, paid our city a hasty visit yesterday. He is looking remarkably fine, holding his age splendidly.

Remember that Miss Hembree will meet all who desire instructions in art painting at Mrs. Carlins to-day. See notice elsewhere for terms.

Miss Belle Johnson, teacher of music in McMinnville and at McMinnville college. Residence corner of Second and C Streets.

Floor managers have been selected for the Firemen's ball who are of themselves a guarantee that perfect satisfaction may be assured to all participants.

Public school exercises to-day. Word was received yesterday that Job Connor suicided night before last at his home on Salt creek, cutting his own throat with a knife. It is said that his trouble grew out of domestic difficulties.

Uncle Richard Cook yesterday brought to our office a head of Hendersons early summer cabbage, which grew from seed planted one year ago last spring. When he transplanted from the seed bed in the spring of 1885 he left this one standing with others. It wintered out unprotected last winter, and last spring he transplanted it, and here it is a fine compact head weighing at least six pounds.

Our cotemporaries are discussing, wisely and otherwise, the tax law to be enacted at the approaching assembly. We have seen nor read anything touching upon this topic more to the point than the letters of Judge Hurley. We hope his arguments may be brought before the solons at Salem assembled in January.

It is a wonder that the papers did not report that man who blew out the gas at the Gilman as being from Yamhill. Guess it was because Ed. Post is proprietor of that caravansary. Upon being questioned, the man, who is about 35 years of age, a resident of Butteville, acknowledged that he had never slept in a gas-light room before.

CORRESPONDENCE.

IN MEMORIAM.

At the last stated communication of Amity Lodge No. 20, A. F. and A. M., the following resolutions on the death of D. I. Corker were adopted, and ordered published in the Reporter:

WHEREAS, Bro. D. I. Corker, a member of Amity Lodge No. 20 A. F. and A. M. met with an untimely and tragic death at the hands of a cold blooded and brutal assassin while peacefully sleeping at his home in Lafayette, Yamhill county Oregon, on the night of November 1st, 1886, and

WHEREAS, By the tragic death of Bro. Corker Amity Lodge has lost one of its most useful and esteemed members, who by his consistent and upright walk in life had won for himself the respect and confidence of his fellowmen; therefore, be it resolved:

1. That while we bow in humble submission to the inevitable, by the removal of our deceased brother from his labors here below, that the lodge deplore the loss of our brother, and while his place in our lodge will always remain vacant, yet we trust he has gained a seat in that Celestial Grand Lodge above, where the Grand Master of the Universe rules supreme.

2. That in appreciation of his services as an esteemed man and Mason, that our Lodge room be draped in mourning, and the brethren wear the usual badge of mourning for the period of thirty days, and that a page of the Lodge Records be set apart and observed sacred to his memory.

That a copy of these resolutions be published in the Oregon Register and Yamhill Reporter, and that a copy under seal of the Lodge be forwarded to Mt. Zion Lodge No. 114 of California, of which lodge our deceased brother was formerly a member.

4. That the thanks of Amity Lodge be, and are, hereby extended to Lafayette lodge No. 3, and brethren of sister lodges who so kindly took charge of and buried the remains of our beloved brother, in the absence of family and friends.

T. J. GRAY, ISA B. TOWSEND, C. E. MAGERS, Committee.

A Business Proposition to Everybody.

Having the most complete and best selected stock of goods on the west side, outside of Portland, as conceded by all commercial men, and my facilities for buying being equal to or better than any house here, I am prepared to furnish you with Dry Goods, Clothing, Gents' Furnishing Goods, Boots and Shoes, Groceries, Glassware and Crockery, at prices as low or lower than any house outside of Portland, and if you buy upon same terms as you do when you go to Portland, buy in quantities paying cash, I engage to compete with the retail houses of Portland on the same class of goods, save and except Sugar, Salt and such goods as freight figures up on so that it cannot be done. This does not apply to some cheney houses who would bait you by selling some special article at a sacrifice, and making it up on some other articles. IT SHALL BE STRAIGHT BUSINESS. I especially invite purchasers, to call and make an inspection of the goods and price, before buying elsewhere. All goods marked down during clearance sale will be sold at clearance sale prices. Prices of all goods will be plainly marked on them, and no clerk is authorized to make any cut or deviation on them, and will be discharged for doing so before he has authority. SMALL PROFITS AND QUICK RETURNS IS THE MOTTO. CASH IN HAND OR SHORT CREDITS MUST BE THE RULE.

A. J. APPERSON.

A Bargain.

The Exchange hotel of North Yamhill, containing twenty-two rooms in all, two stories high, is offered for sale for cash, or exchange for real estate. The house is well known to the traveling public, and doing a good business. The present proprietor's reason for selling is that he is too far advanced in age to attend to it, and is determined to sell if an opportunity is offered, even at a sacrifice. In fact he is bound to sell it if a customer comes. North Yamhill is as rapidly improving town as any on the west side, is the center of a large trade, the starting point for Tillamook bay, the resort for hunters and sportsmen in the summer season, and this is the best chance for a good man in the whole state. For further particulars address this office, or apply to J. Delap, North Yamhill, Oregon.

Important Stock Sale.

Posters are out for an auction sale of fat and thoroughbred stock by Mills & Howe at their Mount Stewart farm near North Yamhill on Saturday Nov. 13th. The sale includes sixty head of all ages including fifteen head suitable for the butcher. Terms cash, or approved notes at 10 per cent.
