

A Business Proposition to Everybody.

Having the most complete and best selected stock of goods on the west side, outside of Portland, as conceded by all commercial men, and my facilities for buying being equal to or better than any house here, I am prepared to furnish you with Dry Goods, Clothing, Gents' Furnishing Goods, Boots and Shoes, Groceries, Glassware and Crockery, at prices as low or lower than any house outside of Portland, and if you buy upon same terms as you do when you go to Portland, buy in quantities paying cash, I engage to compete with the retail houses of Portland on the same class of goods, save and except Sugar, Salt and such goods as freight figures up on so that it cannot be done. This does not apply to some cheney houses who would bait you by selling some special article at a sacrifice, and making it up on some other articles. IT SHALL BE STRAIGHT BUSINESS. I especially invite purchasers, to call and make an inspection of the goods and price, before buying elsewhere. All goods marked down during clearance sale will be sold at clearance sale prices. Prices of all goods will be plainly marked on them, and no clerk is authorized to make any cut or deviation on them, and will be discharged for doing so before he has authority. SMALL PROFITS AND QUICK RETURNS IS THE MOTTO. CASH IN HAND OR SHORT CREDITS MUST BE THE RULE. A. J. APPERSON.

A Bargain.

The Exchange hotel of North Yamhill, containing twenty-two rooms in all, two stories high, is offered for sale for cash, or exchange for real estate. The house is well known to the traveling public, and doing a good business. The present proprietor's reason for selling is that he is too far advanced in age to attend to it, and is determined to sell if an opportunity is offered, even at a sacrifice. In fact he is bound to sell it if a customer comes. North Yamhill is as rapidly improving town as any on the west side, is the center of a large trade, the starting point for Tillamook bay, the resort for hunters and sportsmen in the summer season, and this is the best chance for a good man in the whole state. For further particulars address this office, or apply to J. Delap, North Yamhill, Oregon.

Important Stock Sale.

Posters are out for an auction sale of fat and thoroughbred stock by Mills & Howe at their Mount Stewart farm near North Yamhill on Saturday Nov. 13th. The sale includes sixty head of all ages including fifteen head suitable for the butcher. Terms cash, or approved notes at 10 per cent.

Butter, butter, nice and fair;
How I wonder what you are;
Are you really what you seem?
Were you made of grease or cream?
Exchange your scrubs for thoroughbred or high-grade farm stock.

Deep tillage means enlarged resources when practiced in heavy lands. A week of exposure to the weather will injure the horse rake, mower and reaper more than a whole season's use. It is a good plan to have two sets of roosting poles for the hens and change them each week, setting them outside when not in use.

A mixture of several kinds of grain for feeding stock is always better than one kind alone. Variety in grain is as important as variety in a bulky food. Select one tree in your orchard and give it an ample dressing of manure and wood ashes. Then compare its growth and productiveness with others not thus fertilized.

Why will not the owners of worthless orchards destroy them and remove a nuisance? Such old orchards breed destructive insects, which scatter in all directions.

When an outlay of a dollar in fitting land for seed will return two dollars, it will be folly to refuse the expenditure, but that is what many farmers do when they sow on land imperfectly fitted. Dead limbs on fruit trees should be promptly removed. The cutting should be below any diseased part, or it will spread the infection. The saw and other tools used should not be applied to healthy trees unless first washed with carbolic acid and water.
