THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

In accordance with a custom established by our forefathers of setting apart one day in the year in remembrance of the blessings vouchsafed by the Divine Ruler and in conformity with the recommendation of the president of the United States, Governor Moody has fixed Thursday, Nov. 25th, 1886, as a day of praise and thanksgiving, and he recommends that upon that day the people of Oregon desist from their usual avocations, and repair to their respective places of worship, and give thanks to the Ruler of the Universe for the blessings of the past. He further recommends as a fitting observance of the day, that out of our abundance we remember the poor and destitute among us, and that by deeds of mercy and charity, we make it an occasion of comfort and happiness to them. So mote it be.

A STAUNCH REPUBLICAN.

An association press dispatch from Washington says that friends of Senator Mitchell of Oregon repudate the statement made in democratic newspapers and by democratic politicians that he can be counted upon in the event of a majority in the senate to cooperate with the democrats. They say that while he was elected in part by the democratic votes in the Oregon legislature, he is still a republican, through and through, and all who voted for him were aware of that fact. The Oregonian puts a head on the dispatch to the effect that Mr. Mitchell prefers to negotiate his own sales. Whereat the Evening Democrat, better authority to-day in its infancy than the Oregonian, says: "The fact is that Mitchell simply promised the democrats to sustain the administration in matters not strictly partisan, particularly in the confirmation of appointments."

There are plenty of farmers who will tell you that $3 per 100 bushels is pay enough for warehousemen; but the warehousemen, whose judgment is equally good upon this topic, emphatically say it is not enough. Thus irrepressible conflict arises, and good men are driven out of business by the cut. Without any intention to insinuate, we ask if the farmers themselves are for those reasons blamable for some of the losses incurred by the breaches of trust of irresponsible men handling their grain? We certainly think so. And we take the word of reliable men for it, when we say that the grinding down rate exacted for honest work at the warehouse leaves no profit, and the business is falling into hands, which to say the least, are not always desirable.

CORRESPONDENCE.

BELLEVUE.

Albert Hemstock is going back to Salem to school.

Minnie Bennet is able to be around. James Bewley's team got frightened and turned the buggy into a four feet ditch. Damages to buggy slight.

Nelson Chapen has gone to house-keeping.

We will have to get our wives and widow's lives insured if John Bennett takes them a buggy riding any more. He was taking Mrs. Geer and child to McMinnville when his grey colt kicked loose from the buggy, leaving him to carry the child three miles to town. A few days after he was taking Mrs. Cook and child to Amity. Crossing the Garrison ford one of the breast straps broke and his team crossed the Yamhill in about two jumps. No person drowned nor hurt.

Last Friday Miss Clara Skinner's school closed, the pupils very much improved.

Sometimes change of pasture makes fat horses. Old Nance's grey mare of the Grand Ronde, is making Uncle Billy Mason's her resorting place. I am going to investigate the matter.

Orin Skinner has so much improved in health he looks like the same jovial boy of yore.

Supervisor George Olds has been repairing the damaged bridges.

The neighborhood boys have been making it lively for the coon and foxes. SPOOPFNDYKE.

The Weekly Reporter, a faithful and complete compendium of the week's news, is furnished for 16½ cents a month.

The Washington territory council is democratic; the house is in doubt. If there is a majority of democrats on joint ballot it may hasten the admission of the territory.

Printed appeals of an excited style in favor of an American party, have been sent to New York from San Francisco for distribution at the ferries, Brooklyn bridge, in horse railroads and at places or public resort. A portion is as follows: "We demand the unconditional repeal of the naturalization laws, we demand that the soil of America shall belong to Americans, and that no aliens shall hold property in this country. Free common schools are the only bulwark of human liberty. Churches must not be higher than the state. Seventy-five per cent. of the discharged European convicts come to America. We want no German-Americans, no Irish-Americans vote; no English dudes and no Indian-Americans." Perhaps it was intended as a stroke at the Henry George party which is largely made up of foreigners.
