

Little Carl Tucker is coming through his injuries manfully.

Miss Hembree's art class will meet this afternoon at Mrs. Carlin's.

A most enjoyable whist party was given at the residence of Ed W. Fuller Friday evening.

Spectators will be admitted to the gallery at the firemen's ball thanksgiving evening.

The Sax mill will be a first class roller mill when completed in time for spring milling.

Baxter & Martin have the finest line of tea and coffee in the city. Call and sample the lot.

The Guild of St. James (Episcopal) church will hold a fair on Wednesday evening, December 1st.

The summer has passed away and the autumn is fast drifting into winter, and several delinquents not reported.

Mrs. Joel Martin is having a serious and painful illness, an affection of the thumb which is now a fully developed felon.

In consequence of the lateness of the season it has been found necessary to get the timber for Sax's mill in Portland.

Mr. Foster of Sheridan, was in the city Saturday on business. He informs us that Capt. Lafollett is still in Salem, but is gradually recovering.

Mrs. James Turner is slowly recovering from the accident which befel her last week at her home. The left arm is painfully injured, and has to be carried in a sling.

O. O. Hodson reached Muncie, Indiana, on the 4th. On the 6th he awoke to witness six inches of snow covering all out-doors, an incident which will perhaps curtail his visit.

Senator Carson, of Multnomah, informs us that he is not a candidate for the presidency of the senate, preferring younger members for the place. He is grateful however, to those of his friends who have advanced his name for the distinguished honor.

A valuable hunting dog belonging to John W. Baker was poisoned on the 12th. Why not take the curs and spare the thoroughbreds. A community is judged by the character of its dogs, and there is a plentiful number of curs hereabout that might be sacrificed for the good of the community.

Jehu Baker, the man who beat Morrison for congress in the eighteenth Illinois district, is a brother-in-law of T. B. Wait, of Salem. He is a friend of Oregon and the Pacific coast, the Panama canal scheme, and all other enterprises affecting our interests, and will be of service to us in the high councils of the nation.

Brother Ireland how about that watermelon racket? Did you make it pan? Albany Bulletin. Make it pan? We sold enough to campers in Sleepy hollow to give us a half interest with Lon. Case in the First National bank at Newport, and send Uncle Jim. Fletcher back to Missouri for a bigger lot of seeds for 1887. How does your squash scheme pan Porter?

Observations.

A local reporter observes that: Money procures genius more readily than does genius command money.

It is unsafe to entrust a secret to one having too many confidential friends.

In the wake of the centralization of wealth follows an augmentation of crime.

The woman with undisplayed religion in her heart makes the best wife and mother.

The undegenerate sons of illustrious sires are almost as rare as Kooch-noor diamonds.

The conclusions of a petty jury are as difficult to comprehend as are the whims of a woman.

The average Portland Jehu believes pedestrians have no rights that he is bound to respect.

Only the parvenu element of society ventilates the privacy of its hospitality in newspaper columns.

Oregon has superseded Illinois and Indiana as the banner state for divorces. Some say the cause is atmospheric.

The sanitary condition of this city can be improved by the introduction of healthful drinking water and a superior system of sewerage.

Society is organized by hypocrisy. It is like Dead sea fruit; the crust is beautiful and alluring, but bite into it and your mouth will fill with bitter ashes.

The nondescript commonly known as the Anglomaniar nude has not yet made its advent here, however a few base imitators of this genuine thing of a neuter gender may flatter themselves to the contrary notwithstanding.

As long as the plutocrats of Oregon can command eight and ten per cent. per annum, so long will the state languish for the encouragement of such industries as to make it great. Heavy ruling rates of interest are "fun for the boys, but death to the frogs."

The County Press.

From the Register. Levi Bennett, of Dayton, came to see us the fore part of the week.

Wm. Merchant, of North Yamhill, was at this place during the fore part of the week.

J. J. Carey has some fine blooded dogs that he wishes to sell.

Sheridan letter: Russel Jones killed three deer last week. The Sheridan school house is nice and will remain so, as it is locked by two different men. Seth Moore and Marion Lady, brothers-in-law, who left for California last fall, have returned. Marion got his boy in California and Seth was made the fond father the second morning after his arrival here; its a girl.

An open letter to whom it may concern ought to be addressed to the Yankee Blade, Teledo Blade, Mayflower, et. al., from the press of these United States, something after this: We have so many applications from dead beats for space in our advertising columns for which no equivalent is returned to either us or the public whom you are thus enabled to rob, that your last proposition was consigned to our waste basket with the seal unbroken. "Let it r. i. p.," give us a rest.

Pupils are preparing for a school exhibition soon to be given in the interest of the library fund.

Miss Belle Johnson, teacher of music in McMinnville and at McMinnville college. Residence corner of Second and C Streets.

The parties interested in the organization of a choral union, also all subscribers, are cordially invited to meet at Garrison opera house, on Tuesday evening next, November 16th, at the hour of 7 o'clock, p. m., sharp. A general invitation extended to all who desire to participate.

Some person send us a call for a meeting of citizens to revise the city charter. Fix your date, gents; we will be with you. We would suggest that citizens and council act together in this matter, to prepare for submission to the legislature such amendments to the charter as will remedy existing defects. A competent attorney should be employed to assist the committee. Time is short.

Important Stock Sale.

Posters are out for an auction sale of fat and thoroughbred stock by Mills & Howe at their Mount Stewart farm near North Yamhill on Saturday Nov. 13th. The sale includes sixty head of all ages including fifteen head suitable for the butcher. Terms cash, or approved notes at 10 per cent.

A Bargain.

The Exchange hotel of North Yamhill, containing twenty-two rooms in all, two stories high, is offered for sale for cash, or exchange for real estate. The house is well known to the traveling public, and doing a good business. The present proprietor's reason for selling is that he is too far advanced in age to attend to it, and is determined to sell if an opportunity is offered, even at a sacrifice. In fact he is bound to sell if a customer comes. North Yamhill is as rapidly improving town as any on the west side, is the center of a large trade, the starting point for Tillamook bay, the resort for hunters and sportsmen in the summer season, and this is the best chance for a good man in the whole state. For further particulars address this office, or apply to J. Delap, North Yamhill, Oregon.
