NEWS AND NOTES.

It is understood that a regular mail agent will soon be placed on the narrow gauge trains from Portland to Coburg. This will prove a great convenience to the people.

The little city of Gervais is well fixed financially. The city now has $500 at interest, and its last tax levy was one mill on the dollar. There is about $100,000 worth of property in the corporate limits.

The Salem Talk informs us that Capt. Lafollett, who went to Salem a few weeks ago, with a supposed incurable disease, after having been given up to die by some of the most noted physicians of the state, is rapidly convalescing, and is now able to make his appearance on the street, and bids fair to occupy his seat in the approaching session of the legislature, to which he was elected by the republican voters of Yamhill county, last June.

Some days ago a general purchasing agent in Portland received an order from Josephine county for a barrel of packed butter. As Josephine county lies in one of the best grass regions in the state, and is known to be rich in cattle, the agent was greatly surprised. He set out to make the purchase however, and again was surprised to find that there was not a single barrel of packed butter for sale in the city. All this illustrates a fine state of industry.

According to the receipts of which the internal revenue bureau has knowledge, the income to the government from the tax on oleomargarine for the full fiscal year will not be less than $1,000,000, and is most likely to amount $1,500,000. The collectors from all parts of the country are very clamorous for more assistance, especially the collectors at Chicago and Pittsburg. The collector in the latter city estimates that he will collect $250,000 of oleomargarine tax in this district alone. The collector at Chicago will probably collect the bulk of the large sum which the government now is certain to receive from this source. The information which the bureau has received from its officials in various parts of the country thus far points to a very considerable consumption, instead of the reverse, so that it is just possible that the market for genuine butter has been injured by a law that gives standing, character and government sanction to the imitation butter, which it did not have before.

A special Thanksgiving service will be held at St. James church on Thursday at 10 o'clock a. m., Rev. John C. Fair officiating, at which time an offering will be made for the benefit of Good Samaritan Hospital.

Union services will be held at the C. P. church on Thanksgiving, at which time a sermon will be preached by Rev. Mr. Satchwell, of the M. E. church.

RING THE CHANGES.

Ring Out the Old - Ring in the New.

In view of some changes in the business world, as well as among producers and laborers, it is well that we should one and all think of our own interests as well as that of others, and once in a while call a halt, take account of what stock we have on hand, whether it be in cattle, horses, merchandise or farms, and ascertain for ourselves our present condition and future prospects, and make such changes from time to time as each of us, after mature deliberations, find our better judgments may indicate. In view of these things I shall introduce to you on or about New Years, New Styles, New Goods, and a Radical change in the management of the Business which I trust may prove to our mutual advantage. It is with this object in view that it to be adopted. It will, upon investigation, be found simple and just to one and all. The time is past when a man can sell goods on one year or for an indefinite period, and compete with those who sell exclusively for cash. I shall on or about Jan. 1st introduce to you a system possessing all the advantages of both the credit and the cash systems, and none of the disadvantages of either.

A. J. APPERSON.

Special Notice.

In view of the change soon to take place, I desire all accounts to be settled by the 1st of Jan. A word to the wise is sufficient. Call and settle.
