NEWS AND NOTES.

Band of Hope pic-nic at Grange hall, Saturday p. m.

The weather yesterday was a regular webfoot's delight.

It isn't tea that's intoxicating it's the girl that pours it out.

A straight flush—one that is n't manufactured by means of rouge.

Gold and silver ladies watches at a big bargain at the McMinnville jewelry store.

Knight & Hiatt have as nice a place of business as any on Third street. Give them a call.

A nice lunch for 25 cents at the St. Charles hotel on the 25th, from ten o'clock p m, till two in the morning.

The McMinnville Business College is open every evening at 7 o'clock for students in writing, drawing and book-keeping.

All firemen who expect to attend the ball Thursday evening, are requested to appear in uniform; by order of the committee.

McMinnville jewelry store is now the biggest and largest west of Portland and the cheapest in Oregon. Wm. Holl, proprietor.

A First Class Thanksgiving Dinner will be served at the Central Hotel on the 25th, by the prince of good caterers, mine host L. H. Cook.

If you want a stuffed pig, fattened upon pure wholesome feed, call at the Eurisko market. Unless specially ordered it will not be killed.

The Firemen's ball will be the finest affair of the year. Music by coachwhip string band, and supper by the popular caterer L. H. Cook. The program is fine.

Why do you pay for inferior silver plated table ware big prices, if you get at the McMinnville jewelry store, Wm. Holl, the best and finest can be had for the same price.

General Sherman has good memory for faces, but is apt to forget names. He was walking along in Washington one day, in company with a friend, when a man stopped him, smilingly asked after his health. "I beg your pardon," said the general, "your face is familiar, but I can't recall your name." "I made your shirts," was the reply. "Oh certainly! Recall yno perfectly!" exclaimed the general. "Colonel," turning to his companion, "let me intrgduse to you my old army friend, Major Shurz."

"The ceiling is very low," said the stranger who was looking at lodgings. "Yes," said the landlord, "but it will cost you so much less to heat the room." "But there's no register and no place for a stove." "Of course not, you couldn't stand it in such a low room." "But it will be as cold as Greenland." Nonsense, you couldn't crowd enough cold into such a small room to feel it. If it were a large room, now, you might talk." "But the rent is very high." He yields to the inevitable, and takes it.

RING THE CHANGES.

Ring Out the Old - Ring in the New.

In view of some changes in the business world, as well as among producers and laborers, it is well that we should one and all think of our own interests as well as that of others, and once in a while call a halt, take account of what stock we have on hand, whether it be in cattle, horses, merchandise or farms, and ascertain for ourselves our present condition and future prospects, and make such changes from time to time as each of us, after mature deliberations, find our better judgments may indicate. In view of these things I shall introduce to you on or about New Years, New Styles, New Goods, and a Radical change in the management of the Business which I trust may prove to our mutual advantage. It is with this object in view that it to be adopted. It will, upon investigation, be found simple and just to one and all. The time is past when a man can sell goods on one year or for an indefinite period, and compete with those who sell exclusively for cash. I shall on or about Jan. 1st introduce to you a system possessing all the advantages of both the credit and the cash sytems, and none of the disadvantages of either.

A. J. APPERSON.

Special Notice.

In view of the change soon to take place, I desire all accounts to be settled by the 1st of Jan. A word to the wise is sufficient. Call and settle.
