Apperson's turkey when it flew in the direction of the Central was probably not aware of the fact that L. H. Cook always has a fine turkey dinner on Thanksgiving.

The Overland monthly for December will contain an exhaustive article upon our forests, with particular reference to southern California, written by Abbot Kinney, chairman of the state forestry commission.

The communication containing the announcement of the marriage of H. B. Stevenson and Miss Nettie Plummer, with a full description of the elegant toilets worn by bride and invited guests and account of the grand entertainment in the evening. Came too late for publication, but will appear in our next.

Choral Union.

There was a full attendance and much interest displayed at the Choral Union meeting Monday night at Garrison Opera house. The constitution and by-laws was adopted, and officers for the ensuing term chosen as follows:

- D. C. Narver, President;
- C. P. Bishop, Vice-President;
- A. B. Apperson, Secretary;
- Miss Belle Johnson, Treasurer;
- Carl Young, Musical director;
- Miss Belle Johnson, organist;
- Committee on room, C. P. Bishop, Dr. E. E. Goucher, and D. C. Ireland.
- Committee on finances, Geo. W. Jones, Chas. Grissen, J. J. Spencer.

The membership fee was fixed at $2.00 for active, and $4.00 for honorary members each. This is subject to change however, as it is not for the purpose of "making money" but for musical culture and improvement that the Choral Union is organized. We think that $2.00 a year for active membership, and $4.00 per year for honorary, is all that will ever be called for, it is probable that admissions to rehearsals and concerts will reimburse all future expenditures for director, organist and room, after the first quarter. This is a matter easily adjusted under the by-laws, and ought to deter none from active participation at once. There should be at least one hundred active members enrolled this month. In consequence of the snow blockade "in the states," and as the Portland music stores had to send east for the music ordered, the next meeting will be held at the call of the President D. C. Narver, of which due and timely notice will be given.

The boys are happy, everything moves along fine for the Firemen's ball.

"Our city charter is plenty good enough," says one citizen. "Taint neither," says another; but the lack of interest taken by the mass of people seems to indicate that whether it be good or bad it is all we will get.

Capt. Jerome, a pioneer master of the Wallamet, is lying at the point of death at his home of pyemia. Mrs. E. B. Fellows of this city, an old time friend of the family, is with them at present. Capt. Jerome's illness comes from blood poisoning which followed a recent accident which jammed one of his legs.

Ladies' Cloaks.

These cloaks have got to go because I am not going to winter them over this summer, so if you want a long cloak or a short cloak, a big cloak or a little cloak, a dear cloak or a cheap cloak, a tight fitting or Miss Fitting cloak, or any kind of a fit in cloaks, go to Appersons.

Tea Imports.

A. J. Apperson has advices from Yokohama to the effect that he has now en route another shipment of that famous Unity tea. The Japan Syndicate, from whom his advices are received, say that this tea has been cured by the perfection process, is shipped in Perfection Cans, and is superior in every way to other Japan teas, whether pan or basket fired.

Singular but True.

People are terribly forgetful sometimes. We once heard of a man so forgetful that he forgot his own name. But there is one remarkable thing about people who go to Bishop & Kay's to buy their clothing. They get such goods fits and fine goods and low prices, that they do no forget it, but go round regularly every year to lay in another supply. When you read this you will never forget it. It will make indellible impressions on your mind, and when you want anything in the clothing line you will go straight to Bishop & Kay's and buy it.

A Bargain.

The Exchange hotel of North Yamhill, containing twenty-two rooms in all, two stories high, is offered for sale for cash, or exchange for real estate. The house is well known to the traveling public, and doing a good business. The present proprietor's reason for selling is that he is too far advanced in age to attend to it, and is determined to sell if an opportunity is offered, even at a sacrifice. In fact he is bound to sell it if a customer comes. North Yamhill is as rapidly improving town as any on the west side, is the center of a large trade, the starting point for Tillamook bay, the resort for hunters and sportsmen in the summer season, and this is the best chance for a good man in the whole state. For further particulars address this office, or apply to J. Delap, North Yamhill, Oregon.

Watch This Art Gallery.

This is the time of year when Merchants all begin to show low prices. We realize that permanent trade cannot be made unless one has the correct styles and correct prices. We are selling goods at astonishingly low prices on the merits of our wares. We know that there are no better styles of Clothing, no better fitting, no better made than ours, and we believe that no one in McMinnville is selling Clothing as cheaply as we are.

We only ask an inspection of our goods and a comparison of prices.
