Home Made Mavericks.

Best thing to raise wheat. A good soil, well cultivated.

No professional man lives so much from hand to mouth as a dentist.

How can a farmer make his coat last? By making his pants and vest first.

There are men so constitutionally dull that a blister will not make them smart.

A lady asked a gentleman his age. He replied, what you do in everything, X. L.

Only strong men should be rich, because taxes are too heavy for ordinary people to carry.

A young dude upon being called a tramp, replied, weally I'll wing my chestnut bell on him.

A kiss upon the lips is a mortgage upon a girls affections, which may be foreclosed at any time.

Man was made in dry weather, he was made of dust, and quite a number have never recovered from their creation. They are still dry.

Do try and talk a little common sense, said a young lady to her suitor. Oh, but would not that be taking an unfair advantage of you.

An average small boy from Mussel slough upon being asked the cause of his absence, answered, it was a temporary aberration of the mind superinduced by excessive inadvertance.

A young man of McMinnville said to his friend, I have a mind to buy a house and lot, marry and settle down here. His friend said, a better thing to do at this season is to remain single and settle up.

When you sell your butter and eggs pay your debts. When your wheat and oats, pay your clergy, your teachers, your doctors, your lawyers, editors, merchants and laborers. If you never sell these, pay your debts; it helps your credit. When is the best time to pay debts, whenever you have the money to do it with. How to pay, buy less on time, and pay often.

Among the things we do not do this year is to publish a fraud from J. H. Bates's, advertising house in New York, at a discount of 75 per cent. from rates paid by decent folk, and then trust him a year for that. We do not want any business from you, Mr. Bates, upon such terms of "customary credit," hence shall not deal with you.

Mine host L. H. Cook had his dining room at the Central Hotel very tastefully decorated for the supper in connection with the Firemen's ball. But though elegant in all its surroundings, the room was in no particular superior to the tables which were bountifully laden with every delicacy of the season. Miss Eva Cook, Miss May Alexander and Mrs. C. H. Cook are entitled to much praise for their painstaking efforts to make both the dinner and the supper models of perfection for the holiday season.

RING THE CHANGES.

Ring Out the Old -- Ring in the New.

In view of some changes in the business world, as well as among producers and laborers, it is well that we should one and all think of our own interests as well as that of others, and once in a while call a halt, take account of what stock we have on hand, whether it be in cattle, horses, merchandise or farms, and ascertain for ourselves our present condition and future prospects, and make such changes from time to time as each of us, after mature deliberations, find our better judgments may indicate. In view of these things I shall introduce to you on or about New Years, New Styles, New Goods, and a Radical change in the management of the Business which I trust may prove to our mutual advantage. It is with this object in view that it to be adopted.

It will, upon investigation, be found simple and just to one and all. The time is past when a man can sell goods on one year or for an indefinite period, and compete with those who sell exclusively for cash. I shall on or about Jan. 1st introduce to you a system possessing all the advantages of both the credit and the cash systems, and none of the disadvantages of either.

A. J. APPERSON.

Special Notice.

In view of the change soon to take place, I desire all accounts to be settled by the 1st of Jan. A word to the wise is sufficient. Call and settle.
